

LORAS
COLLEGE
BE MORE. BE LORAS.

2017 – 2018 STUDENT HANDBOOK

Welcome

Dear Loras Student,

Welcome to the academic year at Loras College! As you enter into or are returning to your college experience, the Loras College Student Handbook is a resource to assist you as you navigate your student experience. Some items you will find of interest are the Code of Conduct, Policies and Procedures, Community Living, and Campus Groups and Organizations information.

When joining any community, there are expectations which are expressed and implied. Loras College is no different. We are a Catholic, liberal arts institution of higher education that takes seriously the total development of our students. You will have many opportunities to be engaged both inside and outside the classroom. As our dispositions express, you will be an active learner, a reflective thinker, an ethical decision-maker, and a responsible contributor as you make your experience while attending Loras. This not only applies to your academic experience but also to your co-curricular involvements.

Knowing we all enjoy and expect certain rights in order to live, we also must keep in mind the responsibility to uphold our rights and the rights of others. The decisions you make, whether it be determining a major, joining one organization over another, developing healthy relationships, or simply attending an event—all come with rights and responsibilities. Not all of your decisions will be easy or good ones. We hope and expect that while reflecting on your decisions, the learning that takes place will provide a foundation that will serve you long after your time at Loras College.

On behalf of the Loras community, I wish you great success throughout your Loras College experience.

Many blessings,

Arthur Sunleaf
Dean of Students

Mission and Vision

Loras College Mission

Loras, as a Catholic liberal arts college, creates a community of active learners, reflective thinkers, ethical decision-makers and responsible contributors in diverse professional, social and religious roles.

Loras College Vision

Loras will excel in developing principled thinkers and caring professionals in the Catholic and liberal arts traditions.

Code of Conduct

Rights and Responsibilities of Students

Introduction

Loras College students have the right to live and learn in an environment that ensures their intellectual, personal and spiritual development. These rights are essential and will be protected against suppression. Reasoned dissent plays a vital role in the College, but freedoms cannot be protected or exercised in a college that lacks order and stability. Therefore, the purpose of the Student Handbook, and the Rights and Responsibilities of students incorporated within it, is to inform the student body that with rights associated with membership in the Loras Community come certain responsibilities. The recognition of both rights and responsibilities is part of the Catholic heritage of the College. As stated in the Pope John Paul XXIII's encyclical Peace on Earth, "Those, therefore, who claim their own rights, yet altogether forget or neglect to carry out their respective duties, are people who build with one hand and destroy with the other." It is this document of Rights and Responsibilities, along with the policies articulated in this Handbook that shape the expectations for the normal activities of the College. It is the intent of the College to ensure that students neither lose their rights nor escape their responsibilities as citizens. The Student Handbook codifies and clarifies specifically the rights and responsibilities for student members of this academic community.

General Expectations of Students

By enrolling at Loras College, the student accepts the responsibility for compliance with all local, state and federal laws and College policies. A student alleged to have engaged in any misconduct, be it academic or non-academic, shall have the right to a review of their conduct in accordance with procedures established by Loras College. The College expects students to show respect for the rights of others and for authority, to represent themselves truthfully and accurately at all times, to respect private and public property, to fulfill contractual obligations, including those which are financially made with the College, and to take responsibility for their own actions and the actions of their guests. Students will be accountable for their choices both on and off campus.

Definition of Student

"Student" means any person enrolled in courses offered by Loras College, including students taking correspondence courses, or taking course work through electronic means, (i.e. distance learning techniques such as televised classes). Furthermore, individuals who are not currently attending Loras College remain subject to both academic and non-academic disciplinary action upon re-enrollment for conduct that occurred during any period of attendance.

College Disciplinary Authority

Loras College has full authority to promulgate policies and procedures governing the conduct of its students. Further, the College holds its students to a dual responsibility to both civil authorities for violations of municipal ordinances, the laws of Iowa and the United States and the code of conduct as stipulated in the Student Handbook.

As such, disciplinary action taken by Loras College may precede and be in addition to any penalty that may be imposed by civil/criminal authorities. Disciplinary action at the College will not be subject to challenge on the grounds that criminal charges involving the same incident have been dismissed or reduced.

Philosophy of Student Discipline

The foremost intent of College discipline is one of education. The College's philosophy regarding student discipline is focused on encouraging the growth and development of students' potential through the responsible practices of good, sound principles and relationships. This infers a need for the understanding of self-discipline and respect for the rights and privileges of others who are involved in the educational process and a commitment to protect the best interest of the campus community.

The College's primary effort is directed toward corrective and preventative discipline, not simply punitive discipline. Emphasis is placed upon fair process and objectivity in order to ensure a fair hearing and giving the College's standings as an institution of higher education. Analogies with civil or criminal legal systems often do not apply. At the same time, the College is concerned about the interests of persons bringing forth allegations of inappropriate conduct. At no time are arbitrary or capricious actions sanctioned in Loras College's disciplinary structure. However, the College reserves the right to take necessary and appropriate action to protect the immediate safety and well-being of the campus community.

Disciplinary policies at Loras College are set forth in writing in order to give students general notice of prohibited conduct. They are not designed to define prohibited conduct in exhaustive terms.

Categories of Misconduct

Students will be held accountable for, and face possible disciplinary action, should their behavior fall into one of the following categories:

Academic Dishonesty and Misconduct: Behavior in which a deliberately fraudulent misrepresentation is employed in an attempt to gain undeserved intellectual credit, either for oneself or for another person. Students are required to actively protect their work against misuse by others (lending tests, projects, term papers). For more information about academic honesty and misconduct, please see the Undergraduate Bulletin.

Non-Academic Misconduct: Misconduct that is not of an academic nature usually involving violations of law, College policies or accepted societal and professional norms.

Acts of Non-Academic Misconduct

All students, faculty members, staff members, and administrators should report any alleged violation of College policy. The report may be filed at either https://lorasadvocate.symplicity.com/public_report, in person at the Information Desk (4th Floor Alumni Campus Center), or to Campus Safety at 563.588.7100.

Acts of Non-Academic Misconduct include any act which violates federal and/or state law, local ordinances, College policies or Residence Life/Greek Life behavioral standards whether on or off College property. This includes any act which is reportable under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, which includes acts of: homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking; drug law violations; liquor law violations; weapons law violations; and/or hate crimes related to any of the above offenses and incidents of larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, or destruction/damage/vandalism of property.

Campus Abuse Policy: Physical abuse, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, coercion and/or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health (mental or physical) or safety of any person. This includes but is not limited to dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. This policy also includes actions, activities or situations, planned or negligent, producing unnecessary and/or undue mental and/or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment, ridicule, excessive fatigue, physical injury, interference with scholarship, danger to life, exposure to situations where physical or mental well-being may be endangered, or defacement, damage or destruction of property, including acts of hazing. Students are encouraged to seek advisory interpretations of actions which might constitute "hazing" if they feel that a situation may be considered a hazing incident, and report any such actions to College Officials.

Animals on Campus Policy: In college housing, students may have non-dangerous aquarium fish as pets. All other pets are prohibited in all circumstances including temporary circumstances. Students who reside off campus with pets that wish to bring non-dangerous pets on/near campus should know that pets other than non-dangerous aquarium fish are not permitted in college facilities, and that all animals on campus sidewalks or roadways must be licensed,

Animals on Campus Policy (continued): vaccinated and on a leash, and must have an owner present to clean up after the pet. Students not complying with these guidelines will be asked to leave campus.

Loras College is committed to compliance with state and federal laws regarding individuals with disabilities. Members of the Loras College community who seek reasonable accommodation for disabilities in college housing should contact the Residence Life Office for assistance to discuss the possibility of a service animal, therapy animal, and emotional support animals. With respect to a request for a service or assistance animal, Loras College will determine, on a case by case basis, and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, whether such an animal is a reasonable accommodation on campus. In doing so, the college must balance the needs of the individual with the impact of animals on other campus patrons.

Where it is not readily apparent that an animal is a service animal as defined under the ADA, or an assistance animal under the Fair Housing Act, the college may require sufficient information and documentation to determine whether or not the animal qualifies as a service or assistance animal under the applicable law. The college may require that documentation be provided on the letterhead of a treating physician or mental health provider, and permit the college to determine:

- That the student has a disability for which the animal is needed
- How the animal assists the student, including whether the animal has undergone any training
- The nexus between the student's disability and the assistance that the animal provides

For students seeking reasonable accommodation, an accommodation review process will be undertaken, and may involve conversations between the Residence Life Office, Lynch Center, Counseling or Health Center, and other appropriate campus resources and the requesting student.

If a student desires that a service or assistance animal live in campus housing, the student must notify the Residence Life Office at least thirty (30) days prior to the desired move-in date so that the college can best accommodate the student and the animal. If all other criteria are met as set forth, a meeting can be arranged to discuss how to best accommodate the student, service or support animal, and the campus community. Consistent with federal and state law, a service or assistance animal may be prohibited from a facility or program if the animal's behavior or presence poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others. It may be excluded from areas where its presence fundamentally alters the nature of a program or activity, if the animal is disruptive, if its presence would result in substantial physical damage to the property of others, or if it substantially interferes with the reasonable enjoyment of the housing or public accommodation of others.

In regards to service, therapy, and support animals on campus, owners agrees to:

- Maintain a valid public license for the pet and provide documentation of such license annually
- Provide annual documentation of all vaccinations and a clean bill of health by a veterinarian
- Maintain insurance for the pet in the event of aggressive behavior by the pet
- Keep the pet on a leash or tether when navigating public areas
- Clean up after the pet immediately, including bagging and removing all pet waste in accordance with standards
- Maintain appropriate grooming of the pet and complete appropriate pest control measures
- Understand that college personnel may be required to enter residential spaces without the threat of harm. Any animal that threatens college personnel may be removed from campus
- Understand that animals are not permitted in college dining areas, bathrooms or shower facilities unless the animal is an ADA service animal and specific permission has been obtained for this purpose
- If the animal is to be kept in campus housing, hang a sign on their door notifying their neighbors of the presence of and the type of animal in the room

In the event that the animal becomes a disruption or noise nuisance, if pet waste is not removed in an immediate manner, the pet is not maintained under the control of the owner, or the pet becomes a health or safety risk for the community, the college may require the animal to be removed from the property.

Charges and Fines Policy: The student is responsible for all damages, lost property or unnecessary service cost caused by the student to College facilities. These charges will be placed on the student's account. This includes lock replacement costs as a result of loss of room, house or apartment key. Students whose disciplinary, library, traffic

Charges and Fines Policy (continued): and/or damage accounts are delinquent are not permitted to register for subsequent semesters/sessions and no transcript of credit will be issued until the account is paid in full.

College Alcohol Policy: It is the policy of Loras College to prohibit the unlawful use, sale, distribution, transfer or possession of alcoholic beverages. Loras College prohibits the lawful consumption of alcohol when it might impair an individual's academic or work performance, or pose a hazard to the individual, public, students or employees of the College on its property or at any of its activities. A conflict of interest may exist when alcohol is present among faculty, staff and students.

As a Community, Loras College strives to advocate healthy and safe choices, embrace responsibility, cultivate respect, and challenge all to be people integrity. Loras College is committed to providing a quality education and work environment where every student and employee has the right to work, learn and live in an environment free from the negative effects of alcohol and other drug use. The College recognizes that the decision to use alcohol is a personal choice; however, this choice must be made in accordance with federal, state and local laws regarding the use of alcohol.

The legal age for consumption of alcohol in the state of Iowa is 21. As a result, Loras College will partner with local law enforcement to uphold and enforce all laws, ordinances and College policies regarding alcohol use. In compliance with the Drug-Free Work Place Act of 1988 and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, Loras College prohibits the unlawful possession, distribution or dispensing of drugs and alcohol by students and employees on College property or as any part of College activities. All Loras College Community Members are responsible for abiding by the College Alcohol Policy found in the faculty, staff and student handbooks.

In order to provide a healthy living and learning environment, members of the Loras College community are expected to comply with the following policy regarding alcohol use:

There is NO ALCOHOL permitted (regardless of student age) in the traditional residence halls: Beckman, Binz, and Rohlman. Students of legal age residing in Byrne Oaks, Lynch-McCarthy Apartment Complex, the Visitation, Smyth Hall and campus houses will follow College standards (including state laws) relating to alcohol use. Underage students residing in alternative housing are expected to comply with College and federal regulations regarding alcohol use.

Students, (regardless of age), may not possess and/or display empty alcohol containers (cans, bottles, displays, highlighter displays, cases, bongs, keg caps, etc.). Containers will be considered evidence of use and/or consumption and may be confiscated and not returned. Bars or any bar-type structures are not permitted in any housing.

Students may not purchase, provide or make alcohol available to underage students and/or their guests. Underage students and their guests may not be present in space where alcohol is present.

Public intoxication is not considered a responsible contribution to the community and therefore is inconsistent with the mission of the College. Public intoxication is considered a violation of College policy and is defined as a person who, having consumed alcoholic beverages, experiences a loss of the normal use of his or her mental and/or physical faculties. This includes but is not limited to slurred speech, loss of motor coordination, aggression, loss of memory or abusive behavior.

Loras College prohibits the possession or use of intoxicants in public areas and at student-sponsored activities except as expressly recommended by the Dean of Students or his/her designee for his/her consideration and approval, with final approval coming from the College President. Public areas include but are not limited to such areas as the Fieldhouse, stadium, campus grounds, playing fields, parking lots and in all public meeting rooms; entrance, corridor, lounge or rest room of the residence hall public area; in academic areas or the Academic Resource Center or in off-campus venues where the College is hosting an event. College funds/student organization funds may not be used to purchase alcohol at any on or off campus event.

Kegged (tapped) beer, other common containers of alcohol (e.g. punch), and other large quantities of alcohol are prohibited in all campus housing. The alcoholic beverages and their containers will be confiscated and will not be returned to the violators, and judicial action may be taken. At any time such items are present in alternative housing, the Rental Agreement will be cancelled immediately. If such items are found in traditional housing, the housing contract will be cancelled immediately.

College Alcohol Policy (continued): Any games, activities or equipment that promotes the excessive use of alcohol (e.g. beer pong or beer pong tables, drinking games and other items similar in nature), are not permitted on College property. Any such items may be confiscated and not returned if found on college property.

Per the Student Handbook, the College reserves the right to adjudicate off-campus behavior. Loras students represent the College at all times whether on campus or off, and therefore may be held accountable for off-campus behaviors that do not meet the behavioral expectations set forth in the Student Handbook.

A person is also considered to be in violation of the College's standards on alcohol use if his or her personal alcohol consumption infringes upon the rights of other persons or property, or when alcohol use causes a student or employee to represent the College in a manner that is inconsistent with the mission of the institution. For information on sanctions related to alcohol policy violations at Loras College, please see ALCOHOL POLICY – STUDENT SANCTIONS INTERNAL TO THE COLLEGE.

College Drug Policy: Illegal use, possession, sale or distribution of any state or federally controlled substance, including prescription drugs, is punishable by strict College standards. Suspected violations of this policy will be reported to Campus Safety, and/or the Dubuque Police Department. Students are held accountable for applicable laws and policies relating to the use of drugs or drug paraphernalia on or off campus.

Members of the College community and their guests are not permitted to possess anything deemed to be drug paraphernalia such as bongs, pipes, rolling papers, etc., or items being used as drug paraphernalia. The odor of drug use (for example, the odor of marijuana) is considered sufficient evidence to take administrative action. Students and/or their guests may not be present in rooms where such drugs are present. Drug possession, use or distribution in College facilities and on campus will result in judicial action for those involved. For information on sanctions related to alcohol policy violations at Loras College, please see DRUG POLICY – STUDENT SANCTIONS INTERNAL TO THE COLLEGE.

College/Personal Property Policy: Attempted or actual theft of, damage to and/or improper possession of property of the College or property of a member of the College community or other personal or public property or individual or group activities that result in defacement, damage, or destruction of College or personal property. College property (residence hall room furniture, classroom furniture, lobby furniture, all other facility furniture) must remain in its assigned location at all times. Storage is not provided.

Compliance Policy: Students are to follow reasonable and lawful directions by all College officials (including but limited to Area Coordinators, Resident Advisors, Safety Personnel, etc.) or may be subject to judicial action, which may include a non-compliance charge or other sanction. Students who fail to complete sanctions imposed through the established College judicial process may also be in violation of the college's compliance policy, and such cases may be forwarded to the College Hearing Board for review.

Disruptive Behavior Policy: Intentionally or recklessly interfering with normal College-sponsored activities, including, but not limited to studying, teaching, research, College administration or fire, security or emergency services. Disruption or obstruction of teaching, research, administration or other college activities (including public-service functions on or off campus) or of other authorized non-College activities when conduct occurs on College premises. Disruptive activity may include but is not limited to any behavior in class or out of class, which for any reason interferes with the classwork of others, involves disorder, or otherwise disrupts the regular and essential operation of the College. This may include leading or inciting others to disrupt scheduled and/or normal activities on College premises, as well as classroom behavior that interferes with either (a) the ability to conduct the class or (b) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program. (See Loras College policy on Classroom Behavior, Undergraduate Bulletin)

Loras College supports the principle of freedom of expression for both instructors and students. The college respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires classroom conditions that do not impede their exercise. Classroom behavior that interferes with either 1) the ability to conduct the class or 2) the ability of other students to profit from the instructional program will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in disruptive activity may be subject to disciplinary action.

Disruptive Behavior Policy (continued): When a student's behavior is so disruptive as to compel immediate action, the instructor has the authority to remove the student from the class. When a student has been removed from class, the instructor should file a report on the Loras College Advocate system within 24 hours of the student being removed from class. A student who has been removed from a class shall arrange for and attend a meeting with the instructor and his/her Division Chair within three (3) business days of the removal. The outcome of this meeting may be either:

- An agreement of expectations between the student and the instructor and the reinstatement of the student to the class, or
- The continued removal of the student from the class and transfer of documentation to the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs and copied to the Dean of Students. The outcome of the above meeting should also be logged into the student report filed on the Loras College Advocate system.

When a student's misbehavior does not require immediate removal from the class, these steps shall be followed:

- The instructor responsible for the class or activity where the disruptive behavior occurred shall inform the student that his/her behavior has been inappropriate. The instructor shall describe to the student specific needed changes in the student's behavior. The student shall be provided an opportunity to modify his/her behavior in accordance with the changes identified. If a student believes the instructor's expectations are unreasonable, he/she may confer with the instructor's division chair to review this matter. If the instructor is also the division chair, then the student may confer with the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- Should a student's behavior continue to be unacceptable, the instructor shall remove the student from the course and the classroom behavior policy described above shall be in effect.

Noise may also be considered a disruption to the college community. Students are expected to ensure that neither they nor any situation for which they are responsible is noisy enough to disturb fellow residents or persons. The College reserves the right to impound or exclude from the premises any equipment or person who violates the noise policy.

Out of consideration for other students, resident faculty, staff and neighbors of the College, stereos and other equipment are never (including playing outside of study hours) to be played so loud that they can be heard outside of the room they are played in. Speakers cannot be placed in windows. The City of Dubuque has an anti-noise ordinance covering unnecessary noise from a group, building or automobile. Games and other outdoor activities are not permitted on the grounds after sundown except in areas with lighting or at the request of the supervisor for a later time.

In traditional housing, quiet hours begin at 10:00 p.m. Sunday through Thursday; and 12:00 midnight Friday and Saturday. Quiet hours end at 9:00 a.m. During quiet hours the following regulations should be adhered to. Sound equipment (may include stereos, radios, TVs, etc.) can be played only while the door is fully closed, and volume may not be heard in any other room. Group activities of any type are permitted only in student rooms upon the condition they cannot be heard outside the room. Noisy gatherings, sports and shouting in corridors are prohibited. Academic hours during finals week start the Friday before finals week and last through finals week. Social hours will be from 4:00–6:00 p.m. daily. Courtesy hours are in effect in all college facilities, 24 hours per day.

Hallway sports and activities such as football, hockey, water fights, Frisbee, hacky sack, cricket, soccer, bags/corn hole, ladder ball, slip and slide or other water sports and other similar activities are not permitted indoors in college facilities unless approved by Residence Life Staff for events in college housing or the Event Coordinator for events in all other facilities. Sports conducted in the public areas present a potential for accidents or damages and can be disruptive to others.

College Dress Policy: At all times, students are to dress in accordance with good taste as defined by College officials, including an appropriate top, bottom, and shoes. Masks and/or costumes that conceal a person's identity (including morph suits) are not permitted on campus at any time.

Facility Maintenance Policy: No student shall alter, paint, repair or contract the repair of any electrical, mechanical, plumbing, furnishing, structural fixture or equipment in a campus facility. If a student needs repair assistance, he or she should contact a Resident Advisor or Area Coordinator or email fixmyroom@loras.edu

Facility Maintenance Policy (continued): Students should be aware of the following policies regarding the windows/screens in college facilities: Posters, signs (including neon signs), decorations, etc., are not to be placed in the windows. Bottles, food and other objects are not to be displayed in the windows or placed between the windows and screen. Students removing screens from Loras College housing or dropping articles from the windows in any facility will be subject to judicial action. Anyone who removes or breaks a screen that has been permanently affixed to the window frame or allows people to enter or exit through these windows after removing the screen may face judicial action and/or be denied campus housing immediately.

Fire Safety Policy: All students are to follow fire and safety precautions. Whenever a fire alarm is sounded, all students, except those with emergency responsibilities, are required to leave the building. Failure to leave the building when an alarm sounds may result in judicial action, including fines for violation of local fire regulations and codes. Students will not be permitted re-admittance until the building is considered to be safe and the alarm is suppressed.

Please note the following additional information:

- Halogen lamps, candles, incense and other open flames are not permitted in any housing option.
- Misuse or unauthorized uses of firefighting, fire sprinkling systems and other safety equipment or warning devices will result in a referral to the College Hearing Board.
- Fire pits and/or outdoor fireplaces are permitted for campus houses and other areas designated by the Campus Safety or Residence Life Office. Fire pits must be enclosed and may burn only materials permitted by city ordinances and codes. If a fire is deemed to be cause of concern, students must agree to extinguish the fire immediately. Bonfires are not permitted in any circumstance.
- All extension cords and power strips used must have circuit breaker protection. Extension cords or power strips without circuit breaker protection are not permitted.

Forgery/Unauthorized Use Policy: Forgery of or unauthorized use of College documents, records, computers, telephones, identification or property. This includes providing false representations to the College in any form, written or verbal.

Gambling Policy: Except in instances where the location or circumstance of a game is regulated under Iowa Code chapter 99B, individuals may participate in gambling if a bona fide social relationship exists among the participants. A participant in an unlicensed social gambling game shall not win or lose more than $50 in a 24-hour period. A wager is unlawful if the wager involves the outcome of an athletic contest or event and the wager is made by a coach, official, player or contestant of a school, educational institution or interscholastic athletic organization participating in the contest or event.

Social gambling is illegal on school property in Iowa. The social gambling games, which are listed as either legal or illegal games under Licensed Social Gambling, Division VII, are also legal or illegal for Unlicensed Social Gambling. With the exception of poker, games customarily in a gambling casino for which the house provides a banker, dealer or croupier or for which specially designed tables are required are illegal social games. The illegal games include punchboard, push card, pull-tab, slots, craps, chuck-a-luck, roulette, Klondike, blackjack, chemin de fer, baccarat, faro, equality and three-card monte. The games allowed under social gambling include poker, pinochle, pitch, gin rummy, bridge, euchre, hearts, cribbage, dominoes, checkers, chess, backgammon, pool and darts.

Groups and Organizations (Recognized) Representing the College Policy: As individual students are asked to uphold certain expectations, organizations and athletic teams and their officers and coaches are under obligation to the College and larger community to maintain high standards of ethical conduct. This includes proper maintenance of financial records and good sponsorship of College events and activities. Any activities, including promotion of events and activities that encourage inappropriate conduct of student members which would bring embarrassment to the College's reputation as an institution of higher learning, or which violate the policies contained within the Student Handbook may cause the recognition of the organization to come under judicial review by the Student Life Office. For specific information and policies relating to campus groups and organizations, please see the STUDENT ORGANIZATION RESOURCE MANUAL.

Guest and Visitation Policy: Guests must abide by all rules and regulations of the College and are responsible for their actions. The guest and the resident host are responsible for the actions of their guests and any expenses incurred by them.

Guest and Visitation Policy (continued): Please note: All overnight guests to the college MUST be registered. Students may register overnight guests at any time at the 24-Hour Information Desk, located in the Alumni Campus Center, Fourth Floor. Registered guests will be required to provide proof of identification, and will be issued a visitors pass to be carried while visiting campus.

Other important things to remember include that visitors of the opposite sex after 2:00 a.m. and overnight guests of the opposite sex are not allowed in traditional housing. Sibling guests of the opposite sex 13 years old or younger are permitted as overnight guests. Guests may not stay for more than three (3) consecutive nights in a two-week period. A maximum of two (2) overnight guests will be allowed in any one room at any one time. A student who fails to register his/her guest with the hall staff according to the procedures specified by the Area Coordinator may be subject to judicial action. Visitors must contact the person they wish to visit in order to have the resident host escort the visitor into the residence hall. Visitors will not be permitted in the hall without a student escort. Cohabitation is not permitted at any time. At no time may a student take up residence in a room, house or apartment which he or she is not assigned to. The maximum number of non-overnight student guests that are able to be in a residence room is as follows: a single room, five (5) occupants; a double room, ten (10) occupants; triple or quad rooms, fifteen (15) occupants; a six-person room or campus house, eighteen (18) occupants.

Harassment Policy: Harassment or threatening behavior that intimidates another person. This includes, but is not limited to harassment of a complainant, respondent, advisor, witness, or judiciary member prior to, during and after a judicial hearing.

Misrepresentation Policy: Falsifying, distorting or misrepresenting information for the purpose of gaining benefit for oneself or others to any office, agency or individual acting on behalf of the College. No person shall act as an agent of the College unless authorized to do so. Additionally, possession, creation and distribution of false identification is illegal. Students involved in such offenses either on or off campus may face judicial action. False IDs may be confiscated and destroyed.

Privacy Policy Pertaining to the Use of Cameras, Video Recording Devices and Audio Recording Devices: On campus residences are a place where students should feel comfortable, secure and confident that their privacy is respected. Video cameras, video phones, recording and listening devices (other than college authorized security cameras and devices) can breach the trust and security students expect. Therefore, the use of such devices, without the consent or full knowledge of the individuals involved is strictly prohibited. Students reported to be in violation of this policy will be referred for judicial action.

Protest/Demonstration Policy: Protests of any description must be registered with the Dean of Students. Time, place and manner restrictions are the prerogative of the College. Limitations include: disruption of regular classes, avoiding the scheduling of two events at the same time in the same facility and the protection of the public order and to ensure compliance with local, state and federal laws. Any limitations must be both reasonable and content-neutral, the latter term meaning that they shall be applied without regard to the content of the expression or the purpose of the assembly. Limitations may include requiring 1) scheduling and planning with the appropriate authorized designee, 2) restricting or prohibiting the use of certain areas, 3) limiting certain forms of expression in specific areas and 4) reimbursing the College any cost associated with the use of the facility, area or medium. Note: Given the wide diversity of expression that occurs at higher education institutions, the use of any College facility, area or medium for any expression shall not constitute or suggest endorsement of the content of the expression, or any proponent of the expression, or any proponent thereof by the Board of Regents, the College, its admissions staff, faculty, student body or any individual member of these constituencies. Presenters of expression shall assume full responsibility for any violation of law they commit while in/on College property.

Reporting Policy: Failure to report or discouraging another person from reporting a violation of College policy for which one has knowledge. This policy also includes false reporting, including false reporting of a bomb, fire, or other emergency situation. Such behaviors may result in judicial action.

Sexual Misconduct Policy: Rape, sexual assault, sexual abuse, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, sexual exploitation, and/or other sexual misconduct (Refer to "Addressing Sexual Offenses-Policies and Procedures" in Safety and Security section of Student Handbook). Examples of sexual misconduct may include, but are not limited to the following examples of unwelcome acts:

Sexual Misconduct Policy (continued): Verbal: Insults, threats, jokes or derogatory comments based on gender; sexual innuendo or suggestive comments; sexual propositions or advances; pressure for sexual favors; corruption of a minor; importuning or public indecency

Nonverbal: Posting of sexually suggestive or derogatory pictures, cartoons or drawings; making suggestive or insulting noises, leering, or whistling; making obscene gestures; corruption of a minor; importuning; voyeurism or public indecency

Physical: Touching, pinching, squeezing, patting or brushing against the body; impeding or blocking normal work or movement; coercing sexual intercourse or assault, rape or sexual battery; sodomy or assault with an object; corruption of a minor; importuning; public indecency; felonious penetration including oral penetration, penetration with a body part, or penetration an object not matter how slight; or prostitution

Sexual Abuse/Sexual Assault/Rape: Any sexual act between any persons is sexual abuse by either party when the act is performed with the other participant in any of the following circumstances:

- The act is done by force or against the will of the other, including but not limited to rape or attempted rape
- If the consent or acquaintance of the other is procured by threats of violence toward any person
- If the act is done while the other is under the influence of a drug-induced sleep or is otherwise in a state of unconsciousness
- When the victim is incapable of giving consent because he or she suffers from a mental defect or incapacity
- When the victim lacks the mental capacity to know the right and wrong of conduct in sexual matters
- When the other person is a child

Please note that this includes non-consensual sexual intercourse (rape), non-consensual sexual contact (sexual assault) and sexual exploration). The college defines rape as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration of a sex organ of another person without their consent. This includes the touching of an unwilling person's intimate parts (defined as genital, groin, breast, buttocks, or the clothing covering these areas or forcing an unwilling person to touch another's intimate parts.

Sexual Exploitation: Sexual exploitation is taking sexual advantage of another person without consent for one's own advantage or benefit or for the advantage or benefit of anyone other than the person being exploited, or engaging in sexual intimidation. Examples of sexual exploitation may include but are not limited to the following:

- Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person in order to gain a sexual advantage over such other person
- Causing the prostitution of another person
- Electronically recording, photographing or transmitting identifiable utterances, sounds, or images of private sexual activity and/or the intimate body parts (including genitalia, groin, breast, or buttocks)
- Allowing third parties to observe private sexual acts of a participant without the participant's consent
- Voyeurism (spying on others who are in intimate or sexual situations)
- Threatening to sexually assault another person
- Stalking, including cyber-stalking
- Engaging in indecent exposure

Sexual Harassment: Sexual Harassment includes, but is not limited to unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; sexually motivated physical contact or other verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to that conduct or communication is made a term or condition, either explicitly or implicitly, of obtaining employment or education; or
- Submission to or rejection of that conduct or communication by an individual is used as a factor in decisions affecting that individual's employment or education; or
- That conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's employment or education, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment or educational environment.

Sexual Misconduct Policy (continued): Dating Violence: Dating Violence is defined as the intentional use of physical, sexual, verbal, or emotional abuse by a person to threaten, harm, intimidate, or control another person in a dating relationship. Violent behavior is unacceptable in our community, and all cases involving violence will be referred to the College Hearing Board for review. The College Hearing Board hears cases where the outcome may include suspension or expulsion.

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence is defined as felony or misdemeanor behavior with a current or former spouse, domestic or intimate partner, someone who shares custody of a child, someone who cohabitates, or someone who is situated as a spouse. (Please note: roommates are not considered a domestic relationship unless they are involved in a relationship defined as domestic above). Violent behavior is unacceptable in our community, and all cases involving violence will be referred to the College Hearing Board for review. The College Hearing Board hears cases where the outcome may include suspension or expulsion.

Stalking: Loras College is determined to provide a campus atmosphere free of violence for all members of the campus community. For this reason, Loras College does not tolerate stalking, and will hold students who engage in stalking behaviors accountable through the college's judicial system and will report students who engage in stalking behaviors to the local authorities. Loras College is also committed to supporting victims of stalking through available campus counseling and health services, and can assist with referrals to community support services. This policy applies to all members of our campus community. The College defines stalking as a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear/significant emotional distress. Stalking behaviors may include but are not limited to:

- Non-consensual communication including in-person communication, telephone calls, voice messages, text messages, email, social networking site postings, instant messages, postings of pictures or information on websites, written letters, gifts or any other communications that are undesired and/or place another person in fear
- Following, pursuing, waiting or showing up uninvited at a workplace, place of residence, classroom or other locations frequented by a victim
- Surveillance and other types of observation, whether by physical proximity or electronic means
- Trespassing
- Vandalism
- Non-consensual touching
- Direct physical and/or verbal threats against a victim or a victim's loved ones
- Gathering of information about a victim from family, friends, co-workers and/or classmates
- Manipulative and/or controlling behaviors such as threats to harm oneself or threats to harm someone close to the victim Defamation or slander against the victim. Victims of stalking have the right to learn the outcome of their case, including any recommended sanctions.

Solicitation/Sales Policy: Contact the Event Coordinator, 540 Alumni Campus Center, regarding requests from students, staff or organizations. Solicitation, advertising and distribution of materials by groups without permission is forbidden on the campus at all times. If unapproved solicitation occurs, the situation should be reported to Campus Safety. On campus groups may solicit in residence halls with the prior permission of the Area Coordinator. Off-campus groups and businesses may be permitted to solicit in residence hall and housing facility lobbies or common areas.

Tobacco Policy: Loras College has a responsibility to its students and employees to provide a safe and healthful environment. Research findings show that tobacco use in general, including smoking and breathing secondhand smoke, constitute a significant health hazard. In addition to causing direct health hazards, smoking contributes to institutional costs in other ways, including fire damage, cleaning and maintenance costs, costs associated with employee absenteeism, health care and medical insurance.

The health hazards associated with tobacco use are well established. The policy is established to:

- Reflect and emphasize the hazards of tobacco use;
- Provide a healthy environment for our students, faculty, staff and visitors; and
- Model respect for human dignity, personal wellness and stewardship for the environment.

Loras College is a tobacco-free campus. The use of tobacco products in college-owned buildings, on college property or within college-owned vehicles is prohibited. This policy applies to students, employees and campus visitors.

Tobacco Policy (continued): For the purpose of this policy, smoking is defined as lighting or burning any type of matter or substance that contains tobacco, including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, cigarillos, pipes, beedies, kreteks, water pipes, bongs, and hookahs. This policy also includes the lighting or burning of non-tobacco plants or marijuana, and includes the use of electronic cigarettes, which are also prohibited from use within 500 feet of a school as indicated by Iowa law. Smokeless tobacco products are also prohibited.

Organizers and attendees at events such as conferences, meetings, lectures and social and sporting events using Loras College facilities will be required to abide by the College's tobacco policy. Organizers of such events are responsible for communicating and enforcing this policy.

The sale of tobacco products on campus is prohibited. The free distribution of tobacco products on campus is also prohibited. Campus organizations are prohibited from accepting money or profits from tobacco companies. Tobacco advertisements are prohibited in college-run publications.

Effective implementation of this Tobacco policy depends on the courtesy, respect and cooperation of all members of the Loras community. Complaints or disputes should be brought to the attention of the college personnel who has immediate responsibility for workplace (supervisor), event or residence. If satisfactory resolution is not reached, the Dean of Students should be consulted. Compliance with the Tobacco policy is appreciated and expected. Students found in use of tobacco products while on campus will be referred to and deliberated through the college's non-academic conduct process. Employees found in use of tobacco products on campus will be referred to their immediate supervisor. Guests found in use of tobacco products will be asked to refrain from use while on our campus.

Unauthorized Access Policy: Unauthorized entry into or use of any College building, facility, vehicle, equipment room or area. This includes unauthorized possession or use of College keys, computers, access cards, lock combinations or other special access codes, including telephone codes.

Weapons Policy: Possession of or firing of firearms, fireworks, explosives, ammunition, sling shots, balloon launchers, paintball equipment, knives (with blades longer than three inches), bows and arrows, air soft guns, swords, items construed as weapons or any other weapons capable of inflicting personal injury or damage either in a student's room or on a student's person may result in severe judicial action, including but not limited to appearance before the College Hearing Board. All weapons will be confiscated and may not be returned.

The College respects each individual's right to bear arms but does not believe firearms are appropriate in the workplace or on College property. Any employee bringing a firearm to the workplace or property, or carrying a firearm in a college vehicle may be disciplined in accordance with College policy up to and including termination. Any student bringing a firearm to campus property may be referred to the College hearing board for possible suspension or expulsion. This prohibition extends to firearms kept in vehicles on College property and at College jobsites, including parking lots, regardless of whether the vehicle is owned or leased by the College or to the employee.

The Residence Life Office, Student Life Office and Dean of Students Office reserve the right to amend and update policies and procedures as needed.

Additional Information Regarding Acts of Non-Academic Misconduct Searches/Privacy for Students

The right of privacy for students is a value to be protected. For that reason, except under extreme or emergency circumstances, premises occupied by students and the personal possessions of students should not be searched unless appropriate authorization has been obtained for reasonable and sufficient causes and the reasons for the search and the materials sought are specified.

Therefore, the College adopts the following policy on the privacy of a student's room/apartment/house or person: In those instances where reasonable and sufficient causes indicate that a student is in possession of contraband material (including but not limited to firearms, stolen property, firecrackers, drugs or drug paraphernalia) the Area Coordinator and a representative from the Campus Safety Office will be authorized by the Dean of Students or his/her designee to search the student's room and/or personal belongings. If the search occurs in college housing, a Resident Advisor may be present during the search. For the search of a student's room or personal belongings, Room Search Authorization may be requested. Reasons for the search and the objects sought must be specified in the application for the search permit. After normal business hours, the Dean of Students may grant permission to search via telephone.

When a room or belongings are searched, the student will be notified with information regarding the search. Students will be advised of the search at the time of search and may remain in the room if present. The search will be conducted by a member of the Residence Life Staff together with a member of the Campus Safety Staff. The College reserves the right to enter student rooms/apartments/houses for purposes of maintenance and housekeeping, safety and security at any time. College personnel reserve the right to act on the "Plain View Theory" (e.g., discovery of contraband, weapons and consequent disciplinary action for illegal items in plain view). Contraband and stolen property found in the room may be confiscated for the duration of the investigation/case. Illegal items, including drug paraphernalia, will not be returned.

Administration of Non-Academic Discipline

Delegation of Authority for Non-Academic Discipline

Major governing groups and the administrative units to whom they are responsible, (i.e., Residence Hall Councils, Student Life, Residence Life, and Area Coordinators) are authorized by the Dean of Students to develop rules, regulations and judicial procedures to protect the rights of their student mentors/residents. Conduct boards or courts may enforce College, house or hall regulations involving members of their groups provided that student fair process procedures are articulated or rendered. The actions of student organization disciplinary boards do not, however, take the place of the College's formal disciplinary process should there be an alleged violation of College policy.

Reducing and/or Rescinding Sanctions

Reviewing authority is retained by the Dean of Students, at his/her discretion, to convert any sanction imposed to a lesser or more severe sanction or to return a recommended sanction to the conduct officer or hearing body.

Confidentiality of Disciplinary Records

All findings, files and proceedings of the College judicial system are confidential and protected by College safeguards against improper disclosures of confidential student records. Information from disciplinary records are not made available to unauthorized persons on or off campus, without the expressed written consent of the student involved, except under legal compulsion or if the safety of the student or other persons may be in question. To the maximum extent possible, victim's identities and personally- identifiable information will be excluded.

Records regarding disciplinary actions imposed against individual students are generally maintained by the Office of the Dean of Students for seven (7) years after which they are destroyed. Exceptions to the general policy are the sanctions of suspension, expulsion and cases involving any type of sex discrimination for which the records are permanently maintained.

Reporting Disciplinary Action

It is the policy of Loras College to require all members of the College community, including hearing officers, student governing boards and faculty and administrators, to report any disciplinary action taken against individual students, whether academic or non- academic in nature, to the Office of the Dean of Students. This disciplinary report will become a part of the student's disciplinary record and be administered under policies governing the Dean of Students.

Discipline Procedures

All students enrolled at Loras College are responsible for rules and regulations set forth for cultivating a healthy community standard. The responsibility of administering the discipline system is delegated from the Loras College Board of Regents to the Dean of Students by the President. In turn, the Dean of Students may further delegate disciplinary/judicial authority to Student Life, Residence Life and other areas as needed. Each of these groups may be authorized to handle violations of the code of student conduct. All cases should be resolved at the lowest possible level.

Statement of Limitations

No student shall be subject to disciplinary procedures due to alleged violation(s) of College policies unless procedures are initiated within one year from the time the alleged misconduct occurred or was made known to the Dean of Students Office, whichever occurs later. This limitation will apply only when the student is enrolled at Loras College.

Hearing Officers

Area Coordinators may serve as the initial hearing officers authorized to deal with incidents contrary to College or residence hall policy. Area Coordinators may dispense sanctions, impose disciplinary measures and recommend suspension/expulsion from the College.

The Assistant Dean of Students may initially hear cases pertaining to violations of policy in Residence Life. Review of Area Coordinator sanctions will be heard by a representative from Student Life or Residence Life. Normally, policy infractions and incidents contrary to College policy are handled initially within the context in which they occur. Incidents that occur off campus may initially be heard by the Student Life Office.

College Hearing Board

In the event of an incident involving possible sanction of suspension or expulsion, the incident will be considered by the College Hearing Board. This board is chaired by the Associate Dean of Students or his/her designee and includes appointed representatives from the Loras College community: two students, two faculty members and two staff members. These appointed individuals, approved by the Dean of Students, are the voting members of the Hearing Board. The chairperson may vote in the event of a tie. A secretary will be appointed to take minutes of the proceedings; however, recording devices are not permitted during the hearing or any preparation meeting. In some instances, at the discretion of the Dean of Students or his/her designee, a formal administrative hearing may be held due to the nature of the complaint or infraction of College policy.

Due to the extensive documentation required to prepare a case for the college hearing board, respondents who are referred to the college hearing board will be charged a $50.00 administrative fee. This fee will be refunded in the event the respondent is found not responsible for any allegations.

Procedures

The respondent will be advised of the specific charges being brought against him/her in advance of the hearing. If the board proceedings involve a complainant other than the college, the complainant also has the right to a prehearing notification meeting. If the student does not appear at the established hearing time, the case shall be heard without the student being present.

During the course of the hearing, the respondent will be allowed to respond to any alleged violations presented, ask questions of the complainant and/or witnesses and present a summary of the case. Please note that per the United States Office of Civil Rights in hearings related to any type of sex discrimination, the complainant and the respondent are not to personally question or directly cross-examine each other during the hearing, as allowing so may be traumatic or intimidating for the complainant, thereby possibly escalating or perpetuating a hostile environment.

After the hearing has been completed, the board (or administrator) will retire to closed session to determine if the respondent is responsible or not for the policy infraction. If the student is found responsible, the board (or administrator) will determine an appropriate sanction and the date of its implementation. The decision of the board will be presented in writing to the respondent as soon as possible. Under applicable Clery Law and Title IX Law, in instances involving violent crime or any type of sexual misconduct, the complainant will also be notified in writing, and simultaneously, of the outcome of the hearing in the manner described as appropriate under these laws. If the student is suspended or expelled, the date of implementation is the date of the board or administrator decision, and such date is non-negotiable. The decision of the College Hearing Board (or administrator) will be effective immediately unless a timely petition to review has been filed. Please note, in the event of a hearing for any type of sexual misconduct, Title IX Law requires the incident related to the sex discrimination be heard independent from any other code of conduct violation allegations.

Hearing Board Advocates

Both the respondent and complainants may have an advocate (faculty, staff or peer) present at the hearing or appear without the assistance of an advocate. In the event that the hearing board is held to address a Title IX violation that involves sexual misconduct, respondents and complainants may choose any individual, including legal counsel to serve in the advocate role; however, the advocate must act within the described role of the advocate as listed below. The identity of attending advocate must be submitted to the Associate Dean of Students or his/her designee 48 hours prior to the hearing.

The advocate may:

- Advise the student on the preparation and presentation of the case and/or;
- Accompany the student to the hearing(s)

The advocate may not:

- Present the case or summary of the case for the student;
- Directly question any individuals involved in the hearing process;
- Directly address the college hearing board

Review of College Hearing Board Decisions

Review of a decision of the College Hearing Board may be petitioned by a respondent who has been suspended or expelled. Under Title IX law, in the instance of any type of sexual misconduct, a petition for review may also be filed by a complainant. The written petition for review must be written and prepared by the student, and filed in the Dean of Students' Office within three business days of notification of suspension or expulsion, and must also include reasons for the request and the factual information to substantiate those reasons. The request for review must be based on one of the following:

- The student believes the College Hearing Board decision was flawed procedurally.
- Loras College Student Handbook policy was not applied correctly.
- New information not available at the time of the College Hearing Board meeting is now available, which could alter the outcome of the case.

The request for review will be considered by a Review Board, appointed by the Dean of Students and consist of one faculty member, one staff member and one student. If the Review Board determines there is valid basis for review, a review hearing will be scheduled. Following the review hearing, the Dean of Students or his/her designee shall recommend a course of action to be taken. The recommendation may include:

- Affirm the decision of the College Hearing Board.
- Remand the case to the College Hearing Board with instructions for a rehearing.
- Modify the sanction(s) imposed by the College Hearing Board.
- Reject the decision of the College Hearing Board and dismiss the complaint.

The decision of the Dean of Students or his/her designee is final.

Hearing Board Witness

Both the complainant and respondents may also have witnesses available to be brought in during the hearing. The Associate Dean of Students or his/her designee needs to be notified 48 hours in advance of the identity of any witnesses asked to attend the hearing. Both complainant and respondent may bring up to 4 incident witnesses. An incident witness is someone who is present with the questioned behavior occurred. Neither the complainant or respondent may bring character witnesses to the hearing; however, both the complainant and the respondent may provide two letters of character to be submitted to the college hearing board as a part of the hearing process. Letters of character should be submitted in advance to the Associate Dean of Students and/or her designee.

Evidentiary Standards for Non-Academic Misconduct

In all cases of alleged non-academic misconduct, the appropriate hearing officer will be responsible for compiling sufficient evidence to substantiate the charges. The evidence must support a determination that it is "more likely than not" that a violation of the student code of conduct occurred in all cases involving a potential penalty lesser than expulsion. In cases where expulsion has been determined to be a possible sanction, "clear and convincing evidence" must provide the basis for such expulsion. Please note that in cases involving any type of sexual misconduct, the standard of evidence required by Title IX is preponderance of evidence, or a determination that it is "more likely than not" a violation has occurred. Hearsay evidence and personal testimony may be considered.

Requests for Accommodations

In all cases of alleged non-academic misconduct, requests for accommodations should be made to the Associate Dean of Students or his/her designee.

Disciplinary Sanctions

Although not intended to be all-inclusive, the following are possible sanctions that may be imposed, either singularly or in combination, upon a student for infractions of College policies. Please note that students who fail to follow through on an assigned disciplinary sanction may be referred to the college hearing board.

Reprimand: When a student is reprimanded, oral and written notification shall be made to the student warning that continuation or repetition of the specified conduct may be the cause for further disciplinary action. A reprimand becomes part of a student's disciplinary record in the Office of the Dean of Students, but is not a part of the student's academic record.

Restriction: A restriction upon a student's privileges for a period of time may be imposed. This restriction may include, but is not limited to, denial of the right to represent the College in any way, the denial of the use of the facilities or denial of the opportunity to participate in co-curricular activities.

Reprimand with Restrictions: A reprimand may include restrictive conditions, the terms of which shall be furnished, in writing, to the student.

Educational Sanction: The conduct officer may confer with the student and prescribe a project or class beneficial to the individual, campus or community. This project or class may be given alone, in conjunction with other sanctions or in substitution for other sanctions if the project is successfully completed.

Fine: A student may receive a monetary fine as a consequence of a policy violation.

Restitution: A student who has committed an offense against property or another person may be required to reimburse the College or other owner or injured party for damages, misappropriations of property or injuries received. Any such payment in restitution shall be limited to actual cost of repair or replacement and/or financial restitution for physical injury, such as medical bills. Failure to pay will result in a disciplinary withholding of a student's records and/or a "hold" being placed upon the student's further enrollment.

Enrollment Hold: Should a student not respond to a request to meet with a conduct officer or the Assistant Dean of Students, such officer may either place a hold on the student's opportunity to enroll in subsequent semesters or may declare a default by the student and impose disciplinary sanctions. The student must be notified in person or through the mail at least five (5) College working days prior to sanctions being imposed.

Cancellation of Enrollment: In instances where the Assistant Dean of Students has placed a hold on a student's enrollment for failure to comply with sanctions resulting from a prior informal or formal hearing, such hold may be cleared with the condition that the student's enrollment will be canceled for failure to meet the conditions of the clearance.

Graduation Hold: Should a student not respond to a request to meet with a hearing officer or the Assistant Dean of Students or if a student does not comply with already imposed disciplinary sanctions, then the Dean of Students may place a hold on his or her participation in graduation exercises and his/her diploma.

Disciplinary Probation: A student on probation is deemed not in good standing with the College, and his/her enrollment as a student on probation may be conditioned upon adherence to the rules and regulations. Any student placed on probation will be notified of the terms and length of the probation (which often includes meetings with a probation mentor and written reflection). The probation will occur during times the student is scheduled to be on campus. Any conduct in violation of the probation may result in a College Hearing Board hearing, which can lead to the imposition of additional restrictions, suspension or expulsion.

Disciplinary Suspension: If a student is suspended, the suspension is effective immediately, he/she is deprived of student status and must carry out total separation (student shall not visit attend events, or otherwise enter college property) from the College for a specified period of time. Students who choose to violate their suspension and return to campus without express permission from the Dean of Students will be escorted from college property, and may face

Disciplinary Suspension (continued): arrest/legal action. A student placed on suspension will be withdrawn from classes. Conditions of readmission shall be stated in the letter of suspension. Such order of suspension shall remain a part of the student's disciplinary record in the Dean of Students' Office. If a student is suspended, the date of the suspension is the board or administrator decision date. This date is non-negotiable, and all college processes will be based on this date. No additional refunds will be given to the student, and the student will receive grades of W for current courses.

Involuntary Withdrawal from the College: Involuntary withdrawal from the College is governed by the College's Policy and Procedures Addressing Disruptive Students with Special Circumstances. Such involuntary withdrawal begins immediately upon notice from the Dean of Students, with final approval by the Loras College President, and may occur with or without a formal or informal hearing. Involuntary withdrawal is enacted when, in the judgment of the Dean of Students or his/her designee, the immediate physical or emotional well-being of the student, other students or other members of the College community might be endangered. A hearing will then be scheduled—within one week—to determine the disposition of the case. Involuntary withdrawal may also include physical removal from the campus, if deemed necessary. No additional refunds will be given to the student, and the student will receive grades of W for current courses. Provisions for administrative withdrawal related to a psychological or physical health problem are addressed separately under the Counseling Center and Health Center sections of this handbook.

Disciplinary Expulsion: Expulsion normally entails a permanent separation from the College (student shall not visit, attend events or otherwise enter college property at all in the future). Students who choose to violate their suspension and return to campus without express permission from the Dean of Students will be escorted from college property, and may face arrest/legal action. The imposition of this sanction shall become a part of the student's permanent disciplinary record. If a student is expelled, the date of the expulsion is the board or administrator decision date. This date is non-negotiable, and all college processes will be based on this date. No additional refunds will be given to the student, and the student will receive grades of W for current courses.

Student Sanctions Related to Violation of the Alcohol Policy: Loras College recognizes that with rights come responsibilities. With this in mind, the following sanctioning information outlines how students who violate the alcohol policy will be held accountable. The examples given are not to be interpreted as all-inclusive.

Description of Violations (apply to all students regardless of age or location of incident)

Minor Violations: Underage possession or consumption of alcohol, drinking in public/non-approved locations (any age), being present at a location where alcohol is being consumed and where it is a violation to possess alcohol (i.e. traditional halls).

Serious Violations: Student exhibits any of the following behaviors: Staggering disorderly conduct, vandalism, verbally disruptive, fighting, intoxication, vomiting but coherent and conscious, consumption of large quantities of alcohol (defined by the Loras College philosophy on low-risk drinking that follows) regardless of physical appearance (including participation in drinking games or possession of structures that promote high-risk drinking such as bars, beer bong tables, drinko boards, beer battleship games or other similar items), a second minor violation or a second off-campus arrest.

Severe Violations: Student exhibits any of the following behaviors: Vomiting and/or incoherent; unconsciousness; needed or received medical attention (including treatment by EMTs and/or a visit to the hospital); lost control of bodily functions; memory loss; a pattern of alcohol abuse; possession of kegs, bulk, common source or other large containers; repeated minor or serious alcohol violations or a third off-campus arrest.

Standard Minimum Responses: FIRST OFFENSE

These are recommended minimum sanctions. More severe sanctions may apply to individuals who have a prior judicial file, and/or where there are additional policy violations of other behavior standards.

Minor Violations:

- $100 fine
- Written reprimand
- Group alcohol education course

Serious Violations:

- $150 fine
- Disciplinary probation (up to eight [8] weeks)
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21
- Written educational reflection

Severe Violations:

- $200 fine
- Disciplinary probation (up to sixteen [16] weeks)
- Deferred cancellation of housing
- Referral for off-campus assessment and a three-night education course
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21

Standard Minimum Responses: SECOND OFFENSE

Minor Violations:

- $150 fine
- Disciplinary probation (up to eight [8] weeks)
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21
- Group alcohol education course

Serious Violations:

- $200 fine
- Disciplinary probation (up to sixteen [16] weeks)
- Deferred cancellation of housing
- Referral for off-campus assessment and three-night education course
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21

Severe Violations:

Sanctions External to the College

Possession of alcoholic/intoxicating beverages by someone under 21 years is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, a fine, or both. There are also state laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol, charging money for alcohol without a liquor license, and/or using a false driver's license to obtain beer or other alcohol beverages. Depending upon the number of previous convictions or gravity of the circumstances, you may be charged with a felony or misdemeanor for such an offense. It is most likely that you will also forfeit your driving privileges in the event you are convicted of such an offense.

State of Iowa legislation reads, in part: "No person shall sell, give or otherwise supply alcoholic liquor or beer to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe said individual to be under legal age, and no person or persons under legal age shall individually or jointly have alcoholic liquor or beer in his/her or their possession or control; except to the extent that a person under legal age may handle alcoholic beverages and beer during the regular course of his/her employment by a liquor control licensee or beer permitted under this chapter." (Code of Iowa, Section 123.47) "No person shall sell, dispense or give to any intoxicated person, or one simulating intoxication, any alcoholic liquor or beer." (Code of Iowa, Section 123.49) "Any person who violates any of the provisions of section 123.49 shall be "Guilty of a simple misdemeanor." (Code of Iowa, Section 123.50)

There are also Dubuque ordinances similar to those described above. If drugs are involved, the city will most likely defer to the state or federal authorities because their penalties are more severe. If alcohol is involved, an individual may be convicted of violating both local and state law and punished according to both laws. Courts do not excuse individuals convicted of these offenses from a prison sentence to go to college or work. A conviction for such an offense is a serious blemish on the student's record, which could prevent the individual from entering many careers or obtaining certain jobs.

Further information regarding these local, state and federal laws may be found in the Campus Safety Office where copies are available to students and employees. Students and employees are encouraged to review this information. The above-referenced examples of penalties and sanctions are based on the relevant laws at the time of adoption of this policy statement. Such laws are, of course, subject to revision or amendment by way of the legislative process.

Student Sanctions Related to Violation of the Drug Policy: Please note that violations involving any quantity of illicit drugs or other controlled substances will be referred to the college hearing board for review. Definition of Violations:

Minor Violations: Possession of any drug paraphernalia or objects that could be used as drug paraphernalia (e.g. bongs, pipes or cans/bottles used for smoking marijuana). Hookahs may also be investigated as drug paraphernalia. The odor of drug use may also be considered a minor violation.

Serious Violations: Possession and/or use of marijuana, illicit drugs or other controlled substances regardless of quantity (including residue); or a second "first level" violation.

Severe Violations: Distribution and/or possession of large quantities of marijuana and/or any illicit drug. Repeated violations of other lower-level offenses.

Standard Minimum Responses: FIRST OFFENSE

Minor Violations:

- $150 fine
- Off-campus drug counseling session
- Disciplinary probation (up to sixteen [16] weeks)
- Deferred cancellation of housing
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21

Serious and Severe Violations:

- Recommend suspension or expulsion to College Hearing Board or
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21 and referral to off campus assessment agency and complete required treatment

Standard Minimum Responses: SECOND OFFENSEMinor Violations:

- $300 fine
- Disciplinary probation (up to thirty-two [32] weeks)
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21
- Cancellation of housing
- Referral to off-campus assessment agency/complete any recommended treatment programs

Serious or Severe Violations:

- Recommend suspension or expulsion to College Hearing Board or
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21 and referral to off campus assessment agency and complete required treatment

Standard Minimum Responses: THIRD OFFENSEMinor, Serious, or Severe Violations:

- Recommend suspension or expulsion to College Hearing Board or
- Notifying parents/legal guardian via letter if student is under the age of 21 and referral to off campus assessment agency and complete required treatment

Drug Use and Abuse Prevention

Loras offers many opportunities and choices. Each decision made can greatly impact your future. Choices relating to alcohol and other drug use can affect a person's safety, academics, health, relationships and the lives of others in the Loras community. Frequently, alcohol and other drug misuse result in sexual assaults, increases in vandalism, discipline problems, decreases in academic performance, injuries, medical problems, death including overdoses, suicides, traffic fatalities and impaired driving abilities as well as physical and psychological dependency. Absence from work, erratic job performance, safety hazards and a decrease in job productivity are just a few problems experienced by persons who are impaired by using alcohol and other drugs. Each person must become aware of the issues related to alcohol and other drug use in our community. The following section provides information concerning health risks, College sanctions, legal consequences and area-support services regarding these concerns.

Health Risks Associated with Other DrugsNarcotics (Opium, Morphine, Codeine, Heroin, Hydromorphone, Meperidine, Methadone)

- Possible effects: Euphoria, drowsiness, respiratory depression, constricted pupils and nausea.
- Effects of overdose: Slow and shallow breathing, clammy skin, convulsions, coma and possible death.
- Withdrawal syndrome: Watery eyes, runny nose, yawning, loss of appetite, irritability, tremors, panic, cramps, nausea, chills and sweating.
- Risk of physical dependence: High
- Risk of psychological dependence: High

Depressants (Chloral Hydrate, Barbiturates, Benzodiazepines, Methaqualone, Glutethimide)

- Possible effects: Slurred speech, disorientation, drunken behavior without odor of alcohol.
 - Effects of overdose: Shallow respiration, clammy skin, dilated pupils, weak and rapid pulse, coma and possible death.
 - Withdrawal syndrome: Anxiety, insomnia, tremors, delirium, convulsions and possible death.
 - Risk of physical dependence: Moderate to high
 - Risk of psychological dependence: Moderate to high

Stimulants (Cocaine, Amphetamines, Phenmetrazine, Methylphenidate)

- Possible effects: Increased alertness, excitation, euphoria, increased pulse rate and blood pressure, insomnia and loss of appetite.
- Effects of overdose: Agitation, increase in body temperature, hallucinations, convulsions and possible death.
- Withdrawal syndrome: Apathy, long periods of sleep, irritability, depression and disorientation.
- Risk of physical dependence: Possible
- Risk of psychological dependence: High

Hallucinogens (LSD, Mescaline and Peyote, Amphetamine Variants, Phencyclidine)

- Possible effects: Analogues, illusions and hallucinations, poor perception of time and distance.
- Effects of overdose: Longer, more intense "trip" episodes, psychosis and possible death.
- Withdrawal syndrome: Withdrawal syndrome not reported.
- Risk of physical dependence: Unknown
- Risk of psychological dependence: Unknown, high for Phencyclidine and analogs (i.e., PCP)

Cannabis (Marijuana, Tetrahydrocannabinol, Hashish, Hashish oil)

- Possible effects: Euphoria, relaxed inhibitions, increased appetite and disoriented behavior.
- Effects of overdose: Fatigue, paranoia and possible psychosis.
- Withdrawal syndrome: Insomnia, hyperactivity, decreased appetite occasionally reported.
- Risk of physical dependence: Unknown.
- Risk of psychological dependence: Moderate.

Drug/Alcohol Counseling and Rehabilitation Programs

The Counseling Center has drug/alcohol counseling for students and employees and can make referral for needs not able to be met through that program. There also are other programs offered throughout the community. A number of such programs are listed below. Seeking alcohol or drug treatment, or receiving a referral for services is confidential, and will not, alone, result in disciplinary action. Individual privacy will, of course, be maintained in any counseling/rehabilitation process.

Policies and Procedures

Equal Employment Opportunity (Chapter 2.10)

Loras College, in compliance with Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1974 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, gender, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, status as a veteran or any other protected class in any of its policies, practices, or procedures. This includes but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and student services.

It is the policy of Loras College to provide equal opportunity in all terms and conditions of employment for all persons as described in the College's Equal Employment Opportunity Plan. The intent of this policy is to prohibit discrimination, to ensure reasonable accommodations, and to promote the full realization of equal employment opportunity. This policy of equal opportunity applies to and must be an integral part of every aspect of personnel, policy, and practice in the employment, development, advancement, and treatment of employees and applicants for employment at Loras College.

Loras College is an equal opportunity employer and ensures that employment, salaries, and access to training should not be restricted because of race, color, national origin, sex, gender, age, religion, disability, sexual orientation, status as a veteran or any other protected class. Loras College will maintain procedures to assure equal employment opportunity for all College employees. It is the aim of Loras College to encourage College employees to realize their potential, to function more effectively, and reach a level commensurate with their abilities and ambitions.

While Loras College is firmly committed to its policy of nondiscrimination and equal employment opportunity in its recruitment practices, it reserves its right to grant preference to qualified men and women who profess its Catholic heritage and destiny in order to maintain its religious and institutional integrity. This is in accordance with Section 702, Title VII, which provides that a church-related institution may give preference in employment on the basis of religion where religion is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that institution. As a positive commitment to equal employment opportunity, it is the intent of the Board of Regents of Loras College that this policy be applied at all levels and in all segments of the College community, including all employees and all agencies, persons, vendors, and other organizations who contract to do business with the College.

Loras College is committed to the achievement of equal opportunity for minority groups, women, and qualified impairment; and to ensure equal opportunity in all aspects of employment and all other personnel actions, including but not limited to, compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs, return from layoff, termination, educational privileges, faculty promotion, and tenure, as well as selection for training, including apprenticeship training.

This basic policy applies in all employment relationships. Administration of this policy affects recruiting, hiring, placement, supervision, training, promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff, and termination. All College personnel policies, procedures, and practices must subscribe to the intent of this basic employment policy. Each person--administrator, supervisor, or search committee member--involved in the hiring and post-hiring processes, is responsible to know the equal employment opportunity policy of the College and must participate actively and effectively in managing Loras College's human resources in a fair and impartial manner. It is the responsibility of each Vice President to provide sufficient resources to administer such a plan in a positive and effective manner; assure that recruitment activities reach appropriate sources of job candidates; provide reasonable opportunities to employees to enhance their skills so that they may perform at their highest potential and advance in accordance with their ability; provide training and advice to managers and supervisors to assure their understanding and implementation of the College's policy of equal employment opportunity. Compliance with intent of College policy shall be part of the acceptable standards of performance for all employees.

Any person responsible for employment or promotion decisions should ensure that these decisions are based solely upon an individual's qualifications for the requirements of the position for which he/she is being considered. All supervisory personnel are accountable for observation of the policy of equal employment opportunity. The Equal Employment Officer (Director of Human Resources) shall provide leadership and guidance to administrative units in the conduct of their programs affecting employees and applicants for employment.

Equal Employment Opportunity (Chapter 2.10 - continued): Inquiries about or complaints alleging violation of the College's equal employment opportunity policy should be directed to the EEO Officer. The complainant may consult with or file a written complaint with the EEO Officer. Complaints about conduct by non-faculty staff employees are required to be processed as set forth through procedures directed by appropriate vice president. In appropriate circumstances, students may be assisted by the EEO Officer (Director of Human Resources) regarding understanding their rights to seek internal review of complaints.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students specific rights with respect to education records. They are:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day Loras College receives a request for access. Students should submit to the appropriate official (Office of the Registrar for academic records and Dean of Students for disciplinary records), written requests that identify the records) they wish to inspect. The appropriate official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. Copies of educational records may be provided at the cost of $20. A redacted copy of the student record will be provided in 45 days as listed above.
2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes is inaccurate or misleading. A student may ask Loras College to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the Loras College official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If Loras College decides not to amend the record as requested, the College will notify the student of the decision regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.
3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the College has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Regents; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Loras College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA are: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue SW, Washington, DC 20202-4605.

Further notice is hereby given that Loras College may release "directory information" without the prior consent of the student unless the student formally and timely requests that such information be kept confidential. Written requests not to release directory information must be filed with the Dean of Students during the first two weeks of the fall semester and must be renewed each fall. Such requests must apply to all of the following categories; a student may not specify that only some of the categories not be released. Directory information consists of the following information and is subject to change provided the change is effective only in the subsequent year (i.e., fall term) and provided the change(s) is/are appropriately publicized:

- Student's name and address
- Telephone number
- Date and place of birth
- Major field of study
- Dates of attendance
- Degrees, honors and awards received
- Academic classification
- Gender
- Educational institutions previously attended
- Degree(s) held, date(s) granted and institution(s) granting such degree(s)
- Thesis title
- Participation in officially recognized organizations, activities and sports
- Weight and height of student participating in officially recognized sports
- Photographs
- Email addresses
- Enrollment status
- Credits enrolled
- Damage charges and costs

Non Discrimination Policy: Race, Disability, Gender

Loras College admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Loras College does not discriminate against any individual on the basis of qualified disability or gender in its admission or access to, or treatment of, or employment in its educational programs or activities. Loras College is required by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title IX and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 not to discriminate in such a manner.

Inquiries concerning the application of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 to Loras College may be referred to Coordinator, Loras College mail #25, or to the Director of the Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Health and Human Services.

Mandatory Child Abuse Reporting Policy

Loras College strives to protect the welfare of minors on its campus. This includes minors (under the age of 18) who are on campus or participating in off-campus college-sponsored programs. Any uncertainty about whether reporting is required should be resolved in favor of making a report.

Who Must Report

Iowa Code 232.69, this policy requires anyone who, in the scope of their employment responsibilities, examines, attends, counsels or treats a child, to report suspected physical or sexual abuse of a child. This includes all employees, including, but not limited to, faculty, coaches, student employees, administrators and staff. If you are not sure whether you are required to report, you should err on the side of caution and report. You do not need to have proof that abuse has occurred in order to be required to report.

When to Report

Individuals must report child abuse when they see, know about or reasonably suspect the abuse of a child. A report should be made within 24 hours after becoming aware of the suspected abuse. The types of abuse required to be reported under this policy include any physical or sexual abuse of a child.

- Child means any person under the age of eighteen (18) years.
- Physical abuse means non-accidental acts or omissions that cause, or fail to prevent, physical injury to a child.
- Sexual abuse means the commission of a sexual offense according to Iowa law, including rape, sexual assault, molestation, incest, indecent exposure or exploitation of a child in a manner in which the child is used for gratification or sexual enjoyment by another person.

In the Event of an Emergency, Call 911

Suspected abuse should be reported to both:

- Title IX Coordinator: Phone 563.588.7029, Email Nancy.Fett@loras.edu AND
- Campus Safety: https://loras-advocate.symplicity.com/public_report/ online reporting system or Phone 563.588.7114 or 24-Hour Information Desk 563.588.7100

When making a report of child abuse, the reporter should provide the following information to the best of their knowledge:

- Name of the alleged victim(s)
- Name of the alleged perpetrator(s)
- Time and date of the incidents being reported
- Location where the incidents occurred
- Any additional information known about the abuse

Mandatory Child Abuse Reporting Policy (continued): Mandatory Reporters under Iowa Code 232.69. It is possible that some reporters, as well as others who interact with minors who are on campus or participating in off-campus college-sponsored programs may be mandatory reporters of child abuse under Iowa Code §232.69. These individuals have additional responsibilities to report all forms of child abuse as described in Iowa Code § 232.68(2). Under §232.69, mandatory reporters must report suspected abuse to the Department of Human Services. Child abuse can be reported to the Department of Human Services by calling the toll-free child abuse reporting hotline 24 hours a day: 1.800.362.2178. Loras College encourages everybody, including those who are not mandatory reporters under Iowa Code §232.69, to report all forms of child abuse to the Department of Human Services in addition to reporting to the Title IX Coordinator and the Department of Public Safety under this policy. Consistent with Iowa law, the College will take no retaliatory action against an employee who makes a good faith report of child abuse.

Title IX/Sex Discrimination Policy

Loras does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities, and we are required by Title IX not to discriminate in such a manner. Questions regarding Title IX may be directed to our Title IX Coordinator Nancy Fett at 563.588.7029, nancy.fett@loras.edu, or to the Office for Civil Rights.

Sexual Misconduct Policy and Grievance Procedures

The Catholic tradition affirms the inherent dignity of each person and the need to respect it: "When we deal with each other, we should do so with the sense of awe that arises in the presence of something that is holy and sacred. For that is what human beings are: we are created in the image of God." (US Bishops, Economic Justice or All). Thus, Loras College is committed to having a positive learning and working environment for its students and employees and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. This principle is consistent with the mission of the College that "recognizes the human dignity of each individual and challenges men and women to grow with purpose and direction." Sex misconduct is demeaning and degrading, and can have a negative impact on a person's performance at work or in class. Sexual misconduct of any kind will not be tolerated. Disciplinary sanctions will be taken up to and including discharge for College employees and expulsion of students.

This policy covers all members of, or visitors to, Loras College and those otherwise associated with the College to include but not limited to: administrators, faculty, staff (administrative, professional and hourly), students, vendors, contractors, volunteers and internship supervisors. The College may impose discipline or sanctions if sexual misconduct occurs on or off College premises if there is any connection with a person's participation in a College-sponsored organization, program or activity, or if the conduct poses a risk of harm to any member of the campus community.

The fact that someone did not intend to sexually harass an individual is not necessarily a defense to a complaint of sex discrimination. Regardless of intent, it is the duration, effect and characteristics of the behavior that determine whether the behavior constitutes sex discrimination. Harassing conduct may be disciplined even if the complaining person is not the intended target of the conduct. Academic presentations of the Catholic Church's moral teaching regarding sexuality are very appropriate and consistent with the College's mission, and may not be claimed as violations of this policy.

The Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Officer shall be responsible for promoting understanding and acceptance of, and assuming compliance with local, State and Federal laws and this policy. The EEO Officer will ascertain that notice of this policy is circulated to the employees and students of Loras College. The policy will be incorporated into the Student Handbook, as well as the handbooks for faculty, salaried and hourly employees. Resource materials and educational programs on this policy and on the prevention of harassment shall be provided to employees and students. Information on this policy will also be distributed to volunteers, internship supervisors, vendors and contractors.

Nothing contained within this policy shall be construed to change or modify the principles of Academic Freedom or Freedom of Expression expressed in sections VII and VIII of the Regent's Position Paper contained with the Loras College Faculty Handbook.

Statement of Consent

The College believes that consent is essential in matters involving sexual activity. Consent is informed, through mutually understandable words that indicate a willingness to participate in a mutually agreed upon sexual activity. Talking with a partner about sexual activity may seem awkward, but such conversations serve as the basis for sexual experiences in the context of mutual willingness and respect. Furthermore, at any time during consensual sexual activity, a person may refuse to continue further with any sexual activity. Consensual sexual activity recognizes sober, verbal communication, free of threats or other coercion. College policy recognizes that someone who is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol is unable to give consent. From the point of refusal, any previous consent is rendered invalid.

Consensual Amorous Relationship Policy

Employees should be sensitive to the fact that they have a professional responsibility for students in such matters as counseling, evaluating, supervising, advising and providing services to students as a part of the school program. Consensual relations are defined as amorous, romantic or sexual relationships into which both parties have voluntarily entered. They become of concern to the College when one person in a relationship is in a position of authority over another. Examples of these situations include but are not limited to relationships between instructors and students, supervisors and employees or administrators and students.

Consensual relationships of these types are prohibited. These relationships can violate the trust between instructors and students, administrators and students or supervisors and employees. Most critically, they contain inherent potential for abuse of power and authority. Anyone who engages in a sexual relationship with a person over whom he or she has any degree of authority must understand that the degree to which such a relationship is truly mutually consensual may be questioned at any time. Even when both parties have apparently consented at the outset, such consent does not invalidate a subsequent charge of sexual misconduct after one party withdraws his or her consent and communicates that decision to the other party.

Types of Sexual Misconduct

Examples of sexual misconduct may include, but are not limited to the following examples of unwelcome acts:

Verbal: Insults, threats, jokes or derogatory comments based on gender; sexual innuendo or suggestive comments; sexual propositions or advances; pressure for sexual favors; corruption of a minor; importuning or public indecency

Nonverbal: Posting of sexually suggestive or derogatory pictures, cartoons or drawings; making suggestive or insulting noises, leering, or whistling; making obscene gestures; corruption of a minor; importuning; voyeurism or public indecency

Physical: Touching, pinching, squeezing, patting or brushing against the body; impeding or blocking normal work or movement; coercing sexual intercourse or assault, rape or sexual battery; sodomy or assault with an object; corruption of a minor; importuning; public indecency; felonious penetration including oral penetration, penetration with a body part, or penetration an object not matter how slight; or prostitution

Sexual Abuse/Sexual Assault/Rape: Any sexual act between any persons is sexual abuse by either party when the act is performed with the other participant in any of the following circumstances:

- The act is done by force or against the will of the other, including but not limited to rape or attempted rape
- If the consent or acquaintance of the other is procured by threats of violence toward any person
- If the act is done while the other is under the influence of a drug-induced sleep or is otherwise unconscious
- When the victim is incapable of giving consent because he or she suffers from a mental defect or incapacity
- When the victim lacks the mental capacity to know the right and wrong of conduct in sexual matters
- When the other person is a child

Title IX/Sex Discrimination Policy (continued): Please note that this includes non-consensual sexual intercourse (rape), non-consensual sexual contact (sexual assault) and sexual exploration). The college defines rape as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration of a sex organ of another person without their consent. This includes the touching of an unwilling person's intimate parts (defined as genital, groin, breast, buttocks, or the clothing covering these areas or forcing an unwilling person to touch another's intimate parts).

Sexual Exploitation: Sexual exploitation is taking sexual advantage of another person without consent for one's own advantage or benefit or for the advantage or benefit of anyone other than the person being exploited, or engaging in sexual intimidation. Examples of sexual exploitation may include but are not limited to the following:

- Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person in order to gain a sexual advantage over such other person
- Causing the prostitution of another person
- Electronically recording, photographing or transmitting identifiable utterances, sounds, or images of private sexual activity and/or the intimate body parts (including genitalia, groin, breast, or buttocks)
- Allowing third parties to observe private sexual acts of a participant without the participant's consent
- Voyeurism (spying on others who are in intimate or sexual situations)
- Threatening to sexually assault another person
- Stalking, including cyber-stalking
- Engaging in indecent exposure

Sexual Harassment: Sexual Harassment includes, but is not limited to unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; sexually motivated physical contact or other verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct or communication of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to that conduct or communication is made a term or condition, either explicitly or implicitly, of obtaining employment or education; or
- Submission to or rejection of that conduct or communication by an individual is used as a factor in decisions affecting that individual's employment or education; or
- That conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's employment or education, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment or educational environment.

Dating Violence: Dating Violence is defined as the intentional use of physical, sexual, verbal, or emotional abuse by a person to threaten, harm, intimidate, or control another person in a dating relationship. Violent behavior is unacceptable in our community, and all cases involving violence will be referred to the College Hearing Board for review. The College Hearing Board hears cases where the outcome may include suspension or expulsion.

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence is defined as felony or misdemeanor behavior with a current or former spouse, domestic or intimate partner, someone who shares custody of a child, someone who cohabitates, or someone who is situated as a spouse. (Please note: roommates are not considered a domestic relationship unless they are involved in a relationship defined as domestic above). Violent behavior is unacceptable in our community, and all cases involving violence will be referred to the College Hearing Board for review. The College Hearing Board hears cases where the outcome may include suspension or expulsion.

Stalking: Loras College is determined to provide a campus atmosphere free of violence for all members of the campus community. For this reason, Loras College does not tolerate stalking, and will hold students who engage in stalking behaviors accountable through the college's judicial system and will report students who engage in stalking behaviors to the local authorities. Loras College is also committed to supporting victims of stalking through available campus counseling and health services, and can assist with referrals to community-support services. This policy applies to all members of our campus community. The College defines stalking as a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear/significant emotional distress. Stalking behaviors may include but are not limited to:

- Non-consensual communication including in-person communication, telephone calls, voice messages, text messages, email, social networking site postings, instant messages, postings of pictures or information on websites, written letters, gifts or any other communications that are undesired and/or place another person in fear

- Following, pursuing, waiting or showing up uninvited at a workplace, place of residence, classroom or other locations frequented by a victim
- Surveillance and other types of observation, whether by physical proximity or electronic means
- Trespassing
- Vandalism
- Non-consensual touching
- Direct physical and/or verbal threats against a victim or a victim's loved ones
- Gathering of information about a victim from family, friends, co-workers and/or classmates
- Manipulative and/or controlling behaviors such as threats to harm oneself or threats to harm someone close to the victim Defamation or slander against the victim

Victims of stalking have the right to learn the outcome of their case, including any recommended sanctions.

Applicable State Statutes - State of Iowa Statutes Regarding Consent

The State of Iowa defines incapacitation as meaning a person is disabled or deprived of ability as follows:

- "Mentally incapacitated" means that a person is temporarily incapable of apprising or controlling the person's own conduct due to the influence of a narcotic, anesthetic or intoxicating substance
- "Physically helpless" means that a person is unable to communicate an unwillingness to act because the person is unconscious, asleep or is otherwise physically or mentally limited
- "Physically incapacitated" means that a person has a bodily impairment or handicap that substantially limits the person's ability to resist or flee

State of Iowa Definitions of Sexual Misconduct

The State of Iowa and Loras College use the following sexual abuse definition. Sexual abuse is considered a felony as defined in Section 709 of the Iowa State Code. Sexual assault is considered first-degree sexual abuse under Iowa law. Sexual assault is defined as forced penetration of the vagina, anus or mouth with a finger, penis or any other object. Although the term "rape" is used in this policy and in other educational material, the Iowa legal system uses the umbrella term of sexual abuse and sexual assault, and not the specific term "rape," when cases are taken to court. Sexual assaults occur on a broad continuum and include—criminal behaviors endangering another/other persons. They range from verbal assaults to rape. Loras College takes a very strong stance against acts of violence by a member of our community. Students found responsible of sexual assault can expect strong disciplinary actions by the College. Any community member with knowledge of any incidents of sexual assault should report the incident to Campus Safety, the Dubuque Police Department and the College's Title IX Coordinator. It is recommended and encouraged that survivors seek confidential counseling.

A student who reports a violation of the sexual misconduct policy is entitled to:

- To be treated with respect by college officials
- To be made aware of available options
- To choose whether or not to report your complaint to the police
- To be free from any pressure
- To not be prejudged or blamed for what occurred
- To take advantage of campus support resources
- To speak to a male or female staff member about the incident
- To experience living in a safe and educational environment
- To be made aware of options regarding support resources, remedial actions, timeframe to file a complaint and resolution options
- To have an advocate present during disciplinary hearings
- To have College officials answer questions and explain the systems and processes involved
- To be informed on the progress of the investigation of the case, including the right to prompt, fair, and impartial discipline proceedings, the right to learn the outcome of the case, and the right to appeal that outcome

- To have irrelevant prior sexual history disallowed during campus disciplinary proceedings
- To be free from retaliation
- To receive information on the College's responsibilities regarding judicial no-contact, restraining and protective orders

The use of alcohol or other drugs by either party is not an extenuating circumstance and does not mitigate the responsibility of a person found to have committed sex discrimination. False accusations of sex discrimination can injure innocent people. Initiating a false harassment complaint or initiating a harassment complaint in bad faith may result in disciplinary action. A finding for the accused does not constitute a finding that the complaint was in bad faith.

Retaliation Policy

Retaliation against anyone reporting or thought to have reported sexual misconduct or who is a witness or otherwise is involved in a sexual misconduct proceeding is prohibited. Such retaliation is a serious violation of the policy and will be investigated as an independent act of sex discrimination. Encouraging others to retaliate also violates this policy.

Disciplinary Actions and Sanctions

The College Hearing Board will hear issues of student sexual misconduct. The composition of the board is described in the COLLEGE HEARING BOARD section of this document, and will receive training specific to hearing cases of alleged sexual misconduct.

Any student who is found responsible for sexual misconduct will be disciplined up to and/or including expulsion. All students have a right to campus access free of sexual or physical intimidation, including campus housing. A person accused of sexual misconduct while residing in College housing may be asked to leave College housing pending investigation of the complaint. Similarly, survivors of sexual misconduct may request changes in both their academic and housing situations.

The standard of evidence used by the College Hearing Board is preponderance of evidence standard of proof. This means that the College resolves complaints based on what they believe is more likely than not have happened. A complete description of the disciplinary procedures and policies of Loras College can be found in the Policies and Procedures section of the Loras College Student Handbook.

Important Information for Victims of Sexual MisconductReporting Alleged Violations of Sexual Misconduct

Anyone who believes he or she has been the subject of, has been notified about or has observed sexual misconduct as defined by this policy, should report the alleged conduct. To report an incident of sexual misconduct, an individual may:

- Contact a resident advisor (RA), area coordinator (AC), security officer (563.588.7100 or 0 from a campus phone), or the Title IX Coordinator, who can assist you in reporting the incident, or file a report online at www.https://loras-advocate.symplicity.com/public-report/. Survivors may have the right to choose to remain anonymous or keep a report confidential when reporting an incident, if the report is made to a counselor, as described below. Reports made to other Responsible Employees of Loras will be reported to school officials in accordance with our Title IX obligations.
- Contact the Loras College Counseling Center or Health Center to receive assistance and access to counseling resources from a trained advocate. Please note: Sexual misconduct reports made to the Counseling Center or Health Center will be kept strictly confidential unless the student releases information to other authorities.
- Contact law enforcement authorities by calling the Dubuque Police Department if the assault occurred within the City of Dubuque. If the assault occurred in another area of Dubuque County, call the Dubuque County Sheriff's Department. Both Departments can be reached by dialing 911. Loras College officials will assist the survivor with reporting an assault if you request assistance.

Title IX/Sex Discrimination Policy (continued): Reporting Alleged Violations of Sexual Misconduct:

- Contact the Title IX Coordinator, who at Loras College is Nancy Fett. She can be reached at her office, Hennessy Hall 401, or via phone at 563.588.7029. In the role of Title IX coordinator, she will coordinate all matters related to sexual misconduct at the College and will coordinate the efforts of the college to comply with Title IX Law. As the Title IX Coordinator, she is responsible for:
 - Ensuring both the complainant and respondent are aware of the seriousness of the complaint
 - Explaining Loras College's sexual misconduct policy and procedures
 - Exploring various means of resolving the complaint
 - Making referrals to the Counseling Center or other resources if appropriate
 - Discuss with the complainant the option of notifying police if criminal activity was reported
 - Conduct or arrange an investigation of the prohibited conduct
 - Preparing or overseeing any reports, recommendations, or remedial actions that are needed or warranted to resolve any prohibited conduct
 - Assess each complaint individually

Residency Requirement

Studies have shown that residence hall living has positive effects on the attainment of a bachelor's degree, satisfaction with faculty and willingness to re-enroll at the same college because of positive experiences. Students who live on campus also often join social organizations and participate in student government opportunities. In addition, students who live on campus are more likely to have higher GPAs than those who do not. Because most research supports that living on campus truly enhances the student learning experience, Loras College identifies itself as a residential campus—a campus that takes great care in providing intentional out-of-classroom learning experiences for our students.

Based on the college's residential identity, students with less than 80 credits or who are under the age of 21 by the first day of classes of the fall semester, who do not reside with parents, legal guardians, a spouse or children in the City of Dubuque or nearby, are required to live in College-owned housing. Students are not permitted to move off campus after they have taken up residence, unless authorized in writing by the Assistant Dean of Students. Permission will be granted only in extraordinary cases.

Full-time first-year, sophomores and juniors who fail to take up residence on campus or who move off campus during the semester without prior written approval from the Assistant Dean of Students may be called to appear before the Housing Board and may be charged for a room. The College Housing Board will have the authority to cancel the registration of a student who has failed to fulfill his/her residence requirement. Should the College Housing Board decide that the registration of the student should be cancelled, the Dean of Students will so notify the student and the Registrar in writing.

In very rare circumstances, a student may qualify from an exemption from the residency requirement. Students who have completed a minimum of 45 credits may request exemption from the residence requirement due to a major life change (for example, military service or addition of a spouse or children) by submitting their reasons in writing to the Assistant Dean of Students. Exception to the residence requirement must be authorized in writing by the Assistant Dean of Students. Applications are available in the Student Life Office, 540 Alumni Campus Center, and must be made by April 1.

Students who have completed a minimum of 45 credits who wish to live off campus for a medical reason may request a formal medical accommodation through the Health Center. Exemptions for medical circumstances must go above and beyond basic illnesses or ailments. Requests will not be approved for common issues such as frequent colds or for medical issues which could be addressed by requesting accommodations in housing (e.g., students with allergies who could manage their symptoms with an air conditioner or students requesting a specific mattress size or type can be accommodated on campus and will not be approved). All information will be verified.

Students who wish to receive an exemption from the meal plan requirement may complete a health-related meal plan change form available at the Health Center. Students are not granted permission to reside off campus solely for meal plan related issues. Please note: Altered physician's forms (altered by the student, parent or any other party) will not be accepted. The request will be closed and forwarded to the Housing Board for review. Students must submit their request and above completed documentation by April 1 to:

Loras College Health Center
1450 Alta Vista
Dubuque, IA 52001
Phone: 563.588.7142
Fax: 563.588.7659
Email: tammy.marti@loras.edu

A request to return to commuter status may be honored for students who are choosing to live WITH parents, a court-appointed guardian, spouse, or child within the city of Dubuque or within a reasonable distance. If approval is granted, student will be eligible for commuter status at the beginning of the following semester, and is only eligible if living with Residency Requirement (continued): approved guardian. Students approved to live off campus with parents and are found to be living elsewhere may be billed for on-campus housing costs.

All students requesting an exemption to the residency requirement should include a letter of support from their family indicating awareness of the request for exemption. Student athletes must include a letter from their coach indicating support of the request. Students should note that a need for summer housing is not considered a valid reason for exemption from the residency requirement, as the college offers summer housing in houses, apartments and a traditional residence hall option. All applicants should be aware that any information provided during the request process will be reviewed by the appropriate persons/review board, and the college may contact documentation sources to verify accuracy of application information.

Statement Regarding the Right to Cancel and Room Contract

The College reserves the right to cancel the Residence Hall Room Contract in the case of a student who, in the judgment of the residence hall staff and/or the Dean of Students, demonstrates a serious inability to adjust to the expected lifestyle of the residence hall and/or demonstrates a serious inability to comply with the rules and regulations required for appropriate residence hall living. In addition, the College may terminate the housing agreement when a student fails to comply with the rules and regulations of the College or the residence hall regulations and repeatedly violates rules and regulations, or if the student's actions are found to be detrimental to the student's own welfare or to the welfare of the community. The Assistant Dean of Students and/or the Dean of Students shall be authorized to revoke the Residence Hall Room Contract. The Area Coordinators shall be authorized to alter room placement if the student demonstrates an inability to relate to the rules and regulations in cases in which placement would be beneficial for the resident.

Additional Policies Pertaining to College Housing

Acceptance of a student as a resident and assignment of a student to College housing requires the student to complete and sign the Residence Hall Room Contract or Rental Agreement together with the appropriate deposit. Signature of the student on the Residence Hall Room Contract or Rental Agreement means that the student has read, understands and agrees to all the terms and conditions of the contract. Any student withdrawing from the housing option after taking up residency at any time during the academic year, including withdrawal at the end of first semester, must follow the proper checkout procedures with his or her Area Coordinator. Students who wish to break their housing contract mid-semester may be responsible for buying out their contract at 50% of the remaining rate. The following guidelines apply for students residing in college housing:

Alternative Housing Policies

For specific policies regarding your alternative housing unit, students should refer to the specific regulations in their own personal Rental Agreement, which can be found in your Residence online account or a copy can be obtained by contacting your Area Coordinator. A Rental Agreement is a binding contract between the student and the College. Students should be advised that signing a Rental Agreement commits them to the housing options for the academic year unless they withdraw from the College. If any person in the group withdraws from the College or that housing option before occupancy date, the additional students may be moved and those students on the waiting list will be given the option to that rental unit. Students should also understand that in signing a Rental Agreement, they are individually and collectively responsible for the information contained within the Rental Agreement, and will be held accountable accordingly. Obtaining keys and check-in to a rental option implies you understand and agree to the terms of the Rental Agreement.

Cable Policy

Students are provided basic cable from a local cable provider. As a result, students are not permitted to contract cable or dish service from an external vendor in college facilities.

Checkout/Vacating Policies

As indicated in the terms of the Residence Hall Room Contract/Rental Agreement, students must vacate the premises within 24 hours after termination of this agreement or discontinuance as a student. Students are to vacate their rooms by 10:00 p.m. on the last day of their last final exam at the end of both semesters unless prior approval for late departure has been obtained from the area supervisor. An extra charge may be given for any approved occupancy extension. Graduates may remain in their room until 4:00 p.m. on Commencement Day. To check out of college housing, the student should contact his or her Resident Advisor to review checkout guidelines and schedule a time to complete the checkout process.

Consolidation Policy

Students living in single rooms will be billed at the single room rate. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a double room, the remaining student may be billed at the single room rate from the date the vacancy occurs, unless within seven (7) days of that date the student notifies the Area Coordinator requesting a roommate. Should the student refuse to accept the roommate assigned or fail to move to another room in order to eliminate the vacancy, he/she will be billed for a single room.

Damages and Costs Policy

The student is responsible for all damages, lost property, or unnecessary service costs caused by the student to college facilities. These charges will be placed on the student's account. Where two or more students occupy the same room and responsibility for loss or damage in the room cannot be ascertained by the College, the cost of damage or loss will be divided and assessed equally between or among the residents of the room/apartment/ house. When responsibility for common area damage to the floor or hall cannot be ascertained, this amount will be divided equally among the residents of these areas and will be charged to the student account at the end of each semester. In the rare instance of common area damage charges that exceed a total balance of $10,000, each student in that area will forfeit their housing deposit to assist in reparation of damages. Any unused portion will be refunded to the students during the following semester.

Early Arrival Procedures

Continuing students who desire to return to their housing assignment earlier than the specified date in the fall term must request permission from Residence Life by August 1. Requests submitted after this date may not be considered. Permission will be granted only in exceptional cases. Continuing students who return to on-campus residency early will be charged $90 per night, as College facilities are closed at this time. Continuing students who return early without the permission of Residence Life will be fined $25 for Failure to Comply in addition to the $90 per night charge. Please know that even if one or more of a student's roommates is returning early for an approved reason that does not approve all students in that option to return early—each student must obtain individual permission to return early. All college policies are in place and enforced during the early arrival period. Students who choose to violate policy may be removed for the early arrival period.

Housing Assignments/Room Changes

The College, at all times, reserves the right to assign or reassign students to rooms, and to close rooms when vacancies exist or when areas are rendered unfit for occupancy, or for conduct-related reasons. In the residence halls, room changes may be permitted at the discretion of the Area Coordinator, but not before the second full week of classes in the first semester, and during the last week of the semester. All room changes may require roommate mediation before the room change is permitted. However, if the College finds compelling circumstances, written authorization for a change may be granted. Students wishing to change their room are to complete the online Room Change Request form. Once the form is submitted, the appropriate housing staff will reach out to the student regarding the transition. Failure to follow the process/moving without authorization may result in judicial action, including a room change fine in the amount of $150.

Lockouts

Any resident who has locked him or herself out of their living space (or their building) should contact Campus Safety at 563.588.7100 to be let into their room/building. Students receive their first lockout free of charge. A second lockout call for the same student is $5, and a third lockout to the same student will be $10. Any subsequent lockouts will be $20 per instance. All lockout charges are applied to the student account.

Lofts

Students who wish to loft are required to rent an approved safe loft from our affiliate, www.bedloft.com. No other lofts will be approved. For more information about products and services provided by Bedloft, please visit their website at www.bedloft.com. Loras College is not responsible for any injuries related to lofts or loft construction.

Personal Use Agreement

All residents of college housing agree that the room or apartment assigned shall be used by him or her and may not be transferred or assigned to another person. Residents may not be assigned and may not occupy more than one space at the same time. The space may not be sublet. Further, the resident agrees that the space will be used for personal living, sleeping and studying and that no commercial operation, solicitation, canvassing, sales or advertising will be carried on therein.

Vacation and Break Procedures

Any student in any College housing option needing to remain on campus during major school year breaks (Thanksgiving, Christmas, spring and Easter) must complete a Stay Late form and be approved by the Residence Life Office and his or her Area Coordinator. Residence Life will maintain the prerogative of evicting students if contracts and/or policies are breached. The cost to stay over break is $90 a week (or any part of).

Personal Possessions

Students' personal possessions are not covered by the College insurance, and the College cannot assume responsibility for damage or loss to student property resulting from fire, theft or any other cause. All students are encouraged to check their family's homeowner policy for coverage of personal possessions while at college. It is never advisable to keep large amounts of cash on hand. Students should lock their doors at all times. Students are urged to report all thefts to the Campus Safety and the local police authorities. Personal possessions cannot be stored in College housing during the summer period. The College will not be responsible for items left in the residence halls, and these items will be discarded.

Room Care and Decoration

All room furnishings and decorations must meet the requirements of the state, local and College fire and safety standards and regulations:

- Students will be responsible for any damage that is determined by the Area Coordinator to be over and above normal use and wear
- Cooking is not permitted in student rooms due to fire and health ordinances. Kitchens are located in each residence hall/living option. Electrical appliances such as coffeemakers, corn poppers and small microwave ovens are permitted in individual rooms. The College reserves the right to remove unauthorized or dangerous appliances.
- Heating and cooking appliances such as toasters, frying pans, sandwich grills, hot plates, indoor cooking grills, waffle irons, pizza ovens and space heaters are prohibited because of the electrical load limitation and fire safety
- With few exemptions, any appliance that is greater than 1,000 watts is not permitted.
- Only refrigerators up to 5.0 cubic feet are permitted. Refrigerators must be plugged directly into the wall – extension cords or power strips should not be used for fire safety reasons.
- Students are encouraged to use discretion when decorating their rooms. Pictures and decorations are to be in accordance with the standards of good taste with the College mission.

- Items should be affixed with a non-damaging tape. Duct tape should NOT be used to affix items to walls or doors. Damage caused by affixing items to walls may be charged to students.
- No cloth or other flammable materials are permitted to hang in the doorways in such a manner as to block the ingress to or egress from the room. Room decorations and wall hangings, such as hammocks, sheets, flags, fish netting, parachutes and macramé items, etc., are not to be draped or hung from the ceiling or covering a doorway at any time.
- Due to the potential for room damage, metal tipped darts/dartboards are not permitted
- Live Christmas trees, greens/garland and wreaths will not be allowed in College housing; only artificial trees and U.L.-approved miniature lights may be used. Spray snow may not be used to decorate windows or doors.
- Waterbeds are not permitted
- As indicated by the College Alcohol Policy, bars or any bar-type structures (including nooks) are not permitted in any College housing option. Alcohol containers should not be used for decorative purposes. Beer pong tables, drinko boards, and other items that promote risky behaviors are also not permitted. These items may be confiscated and not returned.
- If a student chooses to use public road signs, street signs and construction equipment for decorative purposes, he or she may be asked to provide proof of purchase for these items. If proof of purchase is not available, the items may be confiscated and returned to law enforcement officials.
- On porches and lawns, only appropriate outdoor furniture is permitted
- Writing on walls is not permitted

Technology Resource Policies and ProceduresComputer Ethics Policy

Loras College is committed to the proposition that an academic institution is a community in which the ideal of honesty is to be fostered, encouraged and achieved. Respect for the College, for one's fellow humans and for property—both real and intellectual—are therefore essential ingredients of that ideal, and the College expects all its members to exhibit such respect. The ideal of honesty is of course a moral ideal, and so the policy stated below will in some respects go beyond the mere requirements of the law. Information technology, because of its extremely volatile nature, presents strong possibilities, and hence temptations, for misuse. It is important, therefore, for all members of the College community to be aware of that fact and to be extremely committed to use such technology appropriately and to show the respect described above. Accordingly, and for the benefit of all members of the College, the information technology usage policy stated below is intended to make clear just what constitutes that respect. All members of the College are expected to abide by these policies.

Loras College recognizes the benefits of utilizing technology as a tool in the teaching and learning environment. In providing these resources the College expects all users to agree to use the resources legally, ethically and in keeping with their intended use. Anyone who uses the technology services of the College agrees by such use to comply with the expectations outlined. The policies in this code apply to all hardware and software that make use of College resources, regardless of who owns the equipment or programs.

Access to technology resources is a privilege to which all College faculty, staff and students are entitled, much like the privilege of using the Loras Library system. Use of Loras technology resources is limited to purposes related to the College's mission of education. Certain responsibilities accompany that privilege and understanding them is important for all computer users.

System Integrity

Actions taken by users, which interfere with or alter the integrity of the College's computer systems, are improper. Such actions include unauthorized use of accounts, impersonation of other individuals in communications, attempts to capture or crack passwords, attempts to break encryption protocols, compromising privacy, destruction or alteration of data or programs belonging to other users and attempts to steal or destroy software or hardware owned by Loras. It is improper to create "worm" or "virus" programs or conduct experiments to demonstrate computer facility vulnerabilities without prior permission from Information Technology, or to create programs which disrupt or interfere with other users' computing processes. Users are responsible for damage caused by infected software they introduce into the system.

System Integrity (continued): The accidental or intentional introduction of a destructive program, such as a “virus,” can have serious consequences. Users should be aware of the threat of viruses on networks and while using laptops and desktops and use adequate protection against spreading them to other machines. Personal computer systems are prohibited from being connected to the Loras network. Personal wireless routers and access points are also prohibited from being connected to our network. Any attempt to compromise the College computer security systems will not be tolerated. Users must treat computing resources and electronic information as a valuable College resource. Protect your data and the systems you use. Back up your files regularly. Set appropriate passwords and change them regularly.

Copyright Observances

All users of Loras College’s technology resources are expected to abide by copyright laws and licensing agreements. No software should be loaded on any College computer in violation of licenses or laws. No user may copy, or attempt to copy, any proprietary or licensed software provided or installed by Loras College.

The College recognizes its role in education for ethical behavior in the technology setting as well as elsewhere. To that end, the Vice President of Finance and Administration will provide, when requested, information about copyright and licensing issues to members of the College community. Said Vice President will not be liable for copyright or licensing infringements by any student, faculty or staff member.

The central “fair use” concept of the 1976 copyright law allows borrowing of small amounts of printed, audio or video materials for such uses as “criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, ... scholarship or research” (Copyright Revision Act, p. 16). The test of fair use addresses 1) the purpose and character of the abuse; 2) the nature of the work copied; 3) the proportional amount copied and 4) market effect. Aside from legal issues, users should recognize that the violation of copyright laws with respect to software drives up prices, discourages vendors from offering educational pricing and makes the development of good software a risky investment of the developer’s time. Loras College supports the statement of principle developed by EDUCAUSE Software Initiative about the intellectual property and the legal and ethical use of software:

Respect for intellectual labor and creativity is vital to academic discourse and enterprise. This principle applies to works of all authors and publishers in all media. It encompasses respect for the right to acknowledgment, right to privacy and the right to determine the form, manner and terms of publication and distribution.

Because electronic information is volatile and easily reproduced, respect for the work and personal expression of others is especially critical in computer environments. Violations of authorial integrity including plagiarism, invasion of privacy, unauthorized access and trade secret and copyright violations including the downloading of music files may be grounds for sanctions against members of the academic community.

Privacy Rights

Loras College will help its users protect their stored information from accidental loss, tampering or unauthorized search or other access. The College regrets any inadvertent or non-malicious actions resulting in the loss of or damage to that information, but the ultimate responsibility for prevention and resolution of such problems rests with the individual user. The College respects every individual’s right to privacy in the electronic forum and prohibits users of College computers, including personally owned computers linked via the Loras network or the College telecommunications equipment to other systems, from violating such rights. Attempts to access electronic records containing information concerning another person or to use another person’s password represent examples of violation of privacy rights. Computer accounts, passwords and other types of authorization are assigned to users and shall not be shared with others. In general, information stored on computers is considered confidential, unless the owner intentionally makes that information available to other groups or individuals. Requests for disclosure of confidential information will be honored only when approved by College officials or when required by state or federal law, except when inappropriate.

Account Access

No person may use, or attempt to use, any computer accounts other than his/her own assigned account. The negligence or naiveté of another user in revealing an account name and password does not confer authorization to use the account. An account owner may not lend his/her account(s) to another user. A user should only access, or attempt

Account Access (continued): to access, files in his/her own accounts, files which have been made accessible to him/her by the files' owner, or files which have been made publicly accessible by the files' owner.

Publicly accessible, user-written "macros," templates and graphics may be shared at the user's personal risk. In addition, the user of such programs and files is responsible for any consequent damage to the computing systems at the College or the files or accounts of other students or faculty. If for any reason system files are corrupt, a standardized system or configuration will be provided. Any customization or files saved to the hard drive will be lost. Students are encouraged to use the utilities, programs and files provided on the computers made available through the network account. Please contact the Help Desk at extension 4949 or email (helpdesk@loras.edu) if you need your account password reset or if you have any questions. Each account owner is responsible for all computing activities involving that account, and will be held liable for any misuse of that account. The Vice President for Finance and Administrative Services must approve any exception to the access policies stated above.

Any user who is eligible to view or change sensitive institutional data must maintain the appropriate confidentiality and security of that information, in accordance with College policies as well as state and federal laws. Users must not use their network security permissions to obtain sensitive information beyond what is directly related to their job assignments. Intentionally disclosing protected information to any unauthorized person is a violation of federal law and can subject the violators to criminal and civil penalties.

Free expression of ideas is central to the academic process. Loras technology system administrators will not remove any information from active individual accounts unless the appropriate system administrator determines:

- The presence of the information involves illegality (e.g., copyrighted material).
- The information is unrelated to or is inconsistent with the mission of the College.
- The information in some way endangers or interferes with computing resources or the
- information of other users (.AVI or video files, MP3 or music files, computer games, ftp servers, a computer worm, virus or other destructive program).
- The information involves the use of obscene or abusive language.

Courtesy Standards

Abuse of College-owned public access computers, laptops and network resources may result in the suspension of use privileges. Such abuses include but are not limited to:

- Excessive use of paper
- Using College technology resources for personal monetary gain (except as such use relates to professional development)
- Monopolizing technology resources and other similar or related abuses
- Using technology resources to support personal servers, exchange copyright materials (MP3 files) or play games
- Distribution of mass emails (see following policy)
- Installing personal wireless routers/access points and attaching to the Loras network

In general, College-owned desktop and laptop computers, network resources, software, peripherals and electronic mail will be used for academic purposes only. Pornographic, threatening or nuisance messages are violations of the user's pledge to use computing facilities ethically. Proper use follows the same standards of common sense, courtesy and restraint in the consumption of shared resources that govern use of other public facilities. It includes:

- Regular deletion of unneeded files from one's accounts on servers
- Refraining from overuse of information storage space, printing or processing capacity
- Refraining from overuse of interactive network resources (such as Internet)
- Refraining from sharing accounts with ineligible parties (such as friends or relatives), acquiring accounts for which you are ineligible -or maintaining accounts no longer serving their assigned purpose

Activities like network gaming and MP3 file sharing are typically non-academic related and bandwidth intensive, and as such network bandwidth may be limited by Information Technology personnel. Loras reserves the right to delay, restart or cancel any job or program in order to improve system performance. Computing resources may not be used for illegal purposes. Examples include:

- Unauthorized copying or use of copyrighted material.
- Destruction of or damage to hardware, software or data belonging to Loras or other users.
- Disruption or unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications.
- Harassment of other users.

Mass Email

Some examples of items that fall under “non-academic” related email include: items for sale (including but not limited to books, refrigerators, furniture), apartments/houses for rent, roommates needed and alcohol related gatherings—including bar establishments, etc. The bulletin board feature on the campus portal <http://inside.loras.edu> would be the vehicle for such postings. Certainly, mass emails that are abusive or harassing are violations. The College also considers it a violation of policy to use mass emailing to campaign for Loras elections.

Violations of this policy will be taken very seriously and may result in fines or other punishments up to the loss of email privileges. Violators will be warned by the Help Desk and then referred to the Residence Life Office for judicial action.

Electronic Mail

College electronic mail (email) systems and services are College facilities. Any electronic mail address or account associated with the College, or any subunit of the College, assigned by the College to individuals, subunits or functions of the College, and all electronic mail associated with the account is the property of the Loras College administration and regents.

Those who use College electronic mail services are expected to do so responsibly, that is, to comply with state and federal laws with this and other policies and procedures of the College, and with normal standards of professional and personal courtesy and conduct. Access to College electronic mail services, when provided, is a privilege that may be wholly or partially restricted by the College without prior notice and without the consent of the email user when required by and consistent with law, when there is substantiated reason to believe that violations of policy or law have taken place, or, in exceptional cases, when required to meet time-dependent, critical operational needs. Such restriction is subject to established campus-wide procedures or, in the absence of such procedures, to the approval of the appropriate campus Vice President.

Personal Web Pages

Exercising one’s right to free speech in an academic community, however, also entails some responsibilities that authors need to be aware.

It is improper and inappropriate to use the College’s World Wide Web servers purposely to annoy, abuse, libel, threaten or harass anyone, individually or collectively, or to violate state or federal laws.

It is improper to make Loras College directory information (regarding students) viewable by off-campus computer users.

The author of a text or the creator of a graphic is protected by copyright law unless he/she specifically releases his/her work into the public domain. Other authors should not copy such texts or graphics onto their own WWW pages without the original author’s permission. In particular, authors should secure the permission of Loras College before using the College logo or reproducing parts of any College publication, and should not use the name of the College in any way that implies endorsement of the author’s personal ideas and opinions.

No one may use the World Wide Web servers for any activity that violates the College’s policies on academic honesty.

The College’s computing resources are finite. If one user’s WWW pages are so frequently accessed or involve the transmission of such large amounts of data that other uses of the equipment are impeded, the system administrators may remove the pages.

Technology Initiative

All full-time undergraduates are required to be a part of the technology initiative and sign and abide by the Loras College Computer and Peripheral Equipment Use Agreement when they receive their laptop. Other policies and procedures relating to the technology initiative are found on the Loras College Information Technology web pages. Students are responsible for staying informed about the computing environment and checking email coming from the Information Technology department and for announcements posted on the portal.

Network Appliances

These are personal PCs, desktops or laptops, wireless routers, gaming systems (Microsoft's X-Box) and other devices that are network capable and can be plugged directly into the Loras network. None of these appliances, or similar devices, are authorized to be on the Loras network. If found, the appropriate sanctions will be taken, which could include disabling the network port and/or other disciplinary actions.

Sanctions

These computing policies are endorsed by Loras College, Information Technology and Student Development. The College may take disciplinary and/or legal action against any individual who violates any computing policies, including temporary or permanent suspension of individual's use privileges to all or part of the College computing facilities, temporary suspension from the College or permanent separation there from, or could result in expulsion or termination from the College. Illegal acts involving Loras computing resources may also be subject to prosecution by state and federal authorities. Student violations of academic honesty standards for class work will be reported to the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Academic Dean in accordance with the regulations described in the Student Handbook.

Liability

Loras College hereby expressly and explicitly disclaims any liability and/or responsibility for violations of the policy here above stated. Loras College does not warrant that the technology services and resources will be uninterrupted or error free. Nor does Loras College make any warranty as to the results to be obtained from use of these resources.

Campus Safety Policies and Procedures

It is the mission of the Department of Campus Safety to assist in every way possible in providing a safe and secure atmosphere that is conducive to the educational process. However, the participation of the entire campus community is necessary in order to achieve the safest campus possible. Each segment of the campus community must cooperate not only with each other but also with area law enforcement agencies.

The Department of Campus Safety is located in suite 530, on the fifth floor in the Alumni Campus Center, and at the 24-Hour Information Desk on the Fourth Floor of the Alumni Campus Center. On campus the Department can be reached by phone at extension 7114 or 0. Off campus the Department can be reached by calling 563.588.7114 or 563.588.7100. The Department consists of eleven (11) full-time and six (6) part-time employees. The Department is staffed 24 hours a day, 365 days each year.

The Loras College campus falls into the jurisdiction of the Dubuque Police Department, the Dubuque County Sheriff's Department and the Iowa Division of Public Safety. The Department of Campus Safety maintains a very positive and open relationship with each of these agencies. The appropriate authorities assist the Department in campus crime investigation. Campus Safety monitors and records, through local police crime data, off-campus events sponsored by recognized student organizations. Extensive security officer training on both an annual and ongoing basis occurs with regard to emergency medical situations (CPR and first aid), fire prevention, evacuation plans, disaster recovery plans, asset protection, risk management, student issues and other student and employee safety matters.

The Department of Campus Safety and other departments provide several security programs including on-campus escort service; the lost and found department and student education on fire safety, personal safety, and alcohol and drug education programs.

Since Loras College is private, no member of the Department of Campus Safety possesses arrest authority. Loras College does, from time to time, hire police officers with full arrest authority (Dubuque County Sheriff deputies and Dubuque Police Department officers) to assist in activities and functions at the College.

Importance of Reporting: Crime prevention cannot take place without the assistance of the Loras College Community. The prompt reporting of crimes and suspicious behavior as well as cooperating with the authorities during the investigation of crimes or offenses is encouraged. Your cooperation can aid us in preventing others from being victimized. The Department of Campus Safety will assist anyone in filing a report with law enforcement agencies.

Reporting Policies: In the event that you receive criminal or emergency information, you are encouraged to promptly contact local authorities as well as the Department of Campus Safety by dialing extension 7114 or 0 or, if you are off campus, dial 563.588.7100. By reporting such information to the Department of Campus Safety, patterns are sometimes evident, aiding and preventing others from becoming victimized. Additionally, individuals can file a report, including an anonymous report, through the Loras College Advocate system. Individuals who wish to file a report may visit www.https://loras-advocate.symplicity.com/public_report/. Individuals may choose to add their name to the report or submit the report anonymously.

Confidential Reports: Should you be the victim of a crime which you do not chose to report, confidential assistance is available. The Loras College Counseling Center and the Health Center are not required by the Clery Act to inform Loras College authorities when a crime is reported to them. However, these departments are encouraged to report limited information to the Department of Campus Safety on a confidential basis so that the College may better evaluate the need for a campus safety alert and disclose the most accurate information available in its annual report. Only information relating to the nature of the crime and its location is provided to the Department of Campus Safety. The identity of victims and witnesses will remain confidential.

Emergencies: In the event of an emergency, the police should be contacted immediately. 911 telephone service is in effect for the entire city of Dubuque. Emergency medical care is provided at all hours at both Finley Hospital at 563.582.1881, and Mercy Medical Center – Dubuque at 563.589.8000. In the event of a campus emergency or disaster, the Crisis Management Team is activated and all directives and information is disseminated from headquarters of that team. The College has developed an extensive plan to cope with such situations if they develop.

Non-Emergencies: Reports should be directed to the respective police agency, which has authority to file criminal charges in the geographical area in which a crime was committed. In addition, crimes occurring on or around campus should also be reported to the Department of Campus Safety.

Minor Incident (disrupting only limited parts of campus): Any incident that does not seriously affect the overall functional capacity of the College and can be resolved with existing College resources or limited outside help is considered a minor emergency. This type of emergency involves only the locally affected area, and does not require the Core Emergency Response Team (ERT) to be convened. Impacted personnel or departments will work directly with the Loras College Campus Safety staff to assess and address the situation, and the Director of Campus Safety will be responsible for contacting and informing appropriate college staff.

Some examples of minor emergencies include but are not limited to: odor complaint localized chemical spill, plumbing failure and/or an inoperative elevator.

Major Emergency (disrupting sizable portions of campus): Any incident which affects an entire building or buildings and which will disrupt the overall operations of the College is considered a major emergency. Assistance from external organizations will most likely be required, the situation may escalate quickly, serious consequences to critical functions could occur and serious injury or loss of life might be possible. In this type of emergency, the Director of Campus Safety will activate/notify all members of the Core Emergency Team (Core ER T) and a Crisis Control Center will be established, and the Core Emergency Response Team (Core ERT) will meet at the Crisis Control Center to evaluate the situation and decide upon a course of action.

Some examples of major incidents include but are not limited to: building fires, chemical spills which could pose a threat to a large number of people, extensive power or utility outage, severe weather and/or an existing or imminent external emergency that may impact the campus.

Disaster (involving the entire campus and surrounding community): Any event or occurrence that has taken place and has seriously impaired or halted the operations of the College. In some cases, mass personnel casualties and severe property damage may be sustained. The effects of the emergency are wide-ranging and complex. A timely resolution of disaster conditions requires college-wide cooperation and extensive coordination with external jurisdictions. In this type of emergency, the Director of Campus Safety will activate/notify all members of the Core Emergency Response Team, a Crisis Control Center will be established and the Core ERT will meet at the Crisis Control Center to evaluate the situation and decide upon a course of action.

Some examples of a disaster include but are not limited to: major flooding, major earthquake and/or a massive release of a biological or chemical agent.

Regardless of the time of day, immediate contact should be made with those persons who are best able to provide the needed services in response to an emergency. In all life-threatening emergencies dial 911 and follow up with a call to Campus Safety at 563.588.7100. To be helpful, inform the 911 call center of the building, room and phone number you are calling from. All other emergencies should be directed to the Loras College Campus Safety at 563.588.7100. Campus Safety personnel will be responsible for contacting designated responders and administrative officials, and the specific guidelines within this plan will be followed.

The authority to declare a Campus State of Emergency rests with the President (or designee). When this declaration is made, access to the campus may be limited to registered students, faculty, staff and employees. Those who cannot present proper identification showing their legitimate business on campus may be asked to leave the campus. Unauthorized persons remaining on campus may be subject to arrest. Upon notification of a campus state of emergency, the Core ERT will meet at the Crisis Control Center. This core group of individuals shall respond at all incidents unless otherwise notified by the President or designee.

Each campus emergency will present hazards and situations unique to that emergency. It will be imperative that the Core ERT activate/notify the proper personnel in a timely manner. Once the Core ERT is notified, they will have the flexibility to respond to the incident as they deem proper for the situation at hand. A list of emergency phone numbers accompanies this document and provides a complete listing of individuals and/or agencies that can respond to a particular emergency.

In case of emergency, all employees must follow the appropriate emergency procedures found in this crisis plan. Emergencies that may be life threatening should be reported immediately to 911. Always inform the 911 Call Center of the building, room and phone number you are calling from. Non-life-threatening emergencies should be reported to Loras College Campus Safety at 563 588 7100. Personal safety is of utmost concern. All employees are responsible for taking precautions to assure their safety by familiarizing themselves with this plan. Faculty is responsible for initiating emergency procedures during class.

Administrators, Department Chairs, Directors and Supervisors

Every administrator, department chair, director and supervisor has the following general responsibilities prior to and during any emergency:

Emergency Preparedness:

- Become familiar with the Crisis Response Plan and ask any necessary clarifying questions.
- The Student Development Division will be responsible for informing students of the plan and making it available to them.
- Any College employee with supervisory duties will inform employees under their direction of the plan and make it available to them. Supervisors will also review the plan annually with employees.
- The Director of Physical Plant or designee will inform contractors of the plan and make it available to them.

Supervisors should inform all building occupants under their direction of the emergency condition. Evaluate the impact of the emergency on their activity and take appropriate action. This may include ceasing operations and initiating the appropriate emergency procedures listed in this plan. If the building or your area must be evacuated, it is your responsibility to ensure that your entire staff evacuates to a pre-assigned safe area and to account for personnel. If you are missing personnel, inform Campus Safety or the responding emergency services of the employee's name and last known location.

Core Emergency Response Team (Core ERT): This core group of individuals shall respond to all major emergencies and disasters unless otherwise notified by the President or designee. The Core Emergency Response Team will determine which members are needed to respond to the incident. A debriefing will be conducted within seven (7) days after each incident, and an After Action Report will be generated. All members of the team will be required to participate in incident response training. The following College staff members shall serve on this team.

Core Emergency Response Team Composition:

- President
- Assistant to the President
- Provost, Dean of the College
- Vice President for Finance and Administrative Services
- Vice President for Enrollment Management
- Vice President for Advancement
- Dean of Students
- Dean of Spiritual Life
- Director of Campus Safety
- Director of Physical Plant

Emergency Response Team (ERT): The members of this team who are activated will be dependent on the scope and size of the incident. The team may be activated as needed in part or as a whole by the Core ERT. As a group, their function will be to analyze and determine the impact of the incident, make appropriate emergency notifications, prioritize emergency actions, arrange resources and equipment, communicate information and instructions, monitor/reevaluate conditions and review the effectiveness of the response after the incident. A debriefing will be conducted after each incident, and an After Action Report will be generated. All members of the team will be required to participate in an incident response training program. Other members may be added to this group depending on the type of incident. The following College staff members shall serve on this team.

Emergency Response Team Composition:

- Director of Human and Organizational Development
- Assistant Dean of Students
- Director of Counseling Services
- Director of Health and Wellness
- Public Relations Coordinator
- Webmaster
- Director of Library Services
- Director of Campus Dining
- Senior Director of Technology and Support Services
- Director of Alumni
- Chemistry Lab Technician
- Senior Accountant

In the event of an active shooter incident: An active shooter situation is an incident where one or more subjects participate in a random or systematic shooting spree, demonstrating an intent to continuously harm others. Active shooter situations are dynamic and evolve rapidly, necessitating immediate law enforcement and emergency personnel to stop the shooting and prevent further harm to the community.

If an active shooter situation develops, Loras College will implement the campus Crisis Response plan and alerts will be sent out via the LORAS ALERT System via email, land line, mobile line, and text message to the campus community. Loras College and the Dubuque Police Department will work together to manage the incident.

If you find yourself in an active shooter situation, try to remain calm and dial 911 as soon as possible. Quickly determine the most reasonable way to protect your own life. Remember three important options – RUN, HIDE, and FIGHT – provided by the Department of Homeland Security.

RUN: If there is an acceptable escape path, attempt to evacuate the premises. Be sure to have an escape path in mind, and evacuate whether or not others agree to follow. Do not attempt to move wounded individuals. Leave your belongings behind, and do help others evacuate if possible. Work to prevent others from entering an area where an active shooter is present. Follow the instructions of any police officers on the scene, and keep your hands visible at all time. Call 911 once you are safe.

HIDE: If evacuation is not possible, find a place to hide where the active shooter is less likely to find you. Your hiding place should be out of the active shooter's view, should provide protection if shots are fired (i.e. in an office with a closed or locked door), and not trap you or restrict options for movement. Use heavy furniture to block the door if possible.

FIGHT: As a last resort, and only when your life is in imminent danger, attempt to disrupt and/or incapacitate the active shooter by acting as aggressively as possible against him/her, throwing items and improvising weapons, yelling, and committing to your actions.

The video, Options for Consideration, also provided by the Department of Homeland Security, outlines possible actions to take if confronted with an active shooter event. This video, found online at <https://www.dhs.gov/options-consideration-active-shooter-preparedness-video>, reviews the choices of evacuating, hiding, or, as an option of last resort, challenging the shooter. The video also explains how to assist authorities once law enforcement arrives on the scene of the incident.

You can prepare for an active shooter situation by remaining aware of your environment and any possible dangers; taking note of the nearest two exits in any facility you visit; reporting any suspicious behaviors or articles to Loras College Campus Safety at 563.588.7100; and reviewing posters regarding active shooter situation procedures that are posted in each classroom and lobby on a regular basis.

Emergency Notification System: Loras College has an emergency notification system to protect the safety of students, faculty, staff and visitors in the event of a disaster or emergency situation. Campus community members can enter personal contact information into the IQ system and receive notification via email, text message and phone that will alert them to the disaster or emergency.

To enter emergency contact information, open Internet Explorer to the inside.loras.edu page, choose Loras Links, and then IQ main page. Click on the link that indicates Click to Enter IQ. Next, click the grey login tab on the right side of the page. Then, enter your IQ username and password. Once logged in, click on the link titled Emergency Notification, and enter your emergency contact information. Please note:

In the event of a campus emergency, Loras email and Loras office phones will receive automatic notification messages. Use the fields on the screen if you wish to have messages sent to additional personal or family phone numbers and/or to additional email addresses in the event that emergency notification is necessary.

As required by law, Loras College has procedures in place to test the emergency response and evacuation procedures on at least an annual basis, including publicizing its procedures in conjunction with at least one test per calendar year. The College will document a description of the exercise, as well as the date and time of the exercise, and whether the exercise was announced or unannounced in the annual Disclosure of Campus Safety and Security and Campus Crime Statistics and Annual Fire Safety Report.

Statement on Timely Warning: In the event that a situation arises, either on or off campus, that, in the judgment of the Director of Campus Safety, the Dean of Students and/or their designee, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat, a campus-wide "Security Alert" will be issued. The warning will be issued through the college email system to students, faculty and staff, and will also be posted to the portal on the Inside Loras announcements page.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning via a "Security Alert" to the campus should report the circumstances to the Office of Campus Safety by phone at 563.588.7114 or 563.588.7100, by email at LorasSecurity@loras.edu or in person at the office located on the fifth floor, Alumni Campus Center or at the 24-Hour Information Desk, Fourth Floor Alumni Campus Center.

Post Emergency Services: Additional Services provided: services for students, staff and faculty members. Among the departments that provide such services are the following:

Loras College Counseling Center Alumni Campus Center

In addition, the Dubuque County Attorney's Office maintains a full-time victim/witness coordinator who assists students, staff, faculty and other citizens who are crime victims during and after the criminal prosecution.

General Access to College Buildings: Loras College is a private institution of higher learning. At certain hours of the night, only authorized personnel are permitted in many areas of the college. Most buildings open to the public are closed and locked after regular business hours.

Access to Residence Hall Buildings: Loras College uses a computerized fob access system in each of the residence halls. In an attempt to eliminate outside doors from being propped open, Loras College has installed electromagnetic locks on the exterior doors of all residence halls as well as most other campus facilities. Once activated, these locks will not allow access to the building without the proper access fob. Entry must be made at an entrance with a fob reader. Each door is individually alarmed so that security staff will be able to immediately respond to the precise area involved. The electromagnetic locking system is operated in conjunction with the fire alarm system so that when an alarm is sounded, all of the locks in that particular building release, allowing the doors to be used as emergency exits. Report all lost access fobs immediately to Campus Safety so they can be deactivated.

Within a residence hall, each room door may be locked. Each resident is advised to keep the room door locked at all hours of the day. Residents are held responsible for the conduct of their guests. At least one trained staff member is on duty 24 hours a day. Depending upon the rules of each particular floor, visitation by members of the opposite sex may be limited to certain hours of the day. Unauthorized individuals found within residence halls are subject to college discipline and arrest by local authorities.

Propped Doors/Unauthorized Entry: Propped doors pose a serious threat to the safety and security of our residents, their privacy and their belongings. Letting non-guests into the building or using unauthorized entryways is strictly prohibited.

- When all doors in the residence hall are locked, students are to use the "designated main entrance" to their building. All other exits are to be used only as fire or emergency exits. Unauthorized exit from a building will result in judicial action.
- Each student is issued an access card that allows him or her to access his or her place of residence. These cards should not be given to others. If lost or stolen, please report immediately to Campus Safety or Residence Life staff.

Access to Academic Buildings: The Department of Campus Safety routinely checks academic buildings which are closed during non- business hours to ensure they remain locked. Each building has a scheduled time to be secured and only authorized staff members are issued keys to secured buildings.

Physical Environment: At Loras College, all aspects of the physical environment are regularly assessed for safety. Such activity includes monthly inspections of all fire alarm systems, fire extinguishers, door alarming systems and daily inspections of lighting of the campus. Loras College has developed specific policies and procedures for disaster recovery and displacement of residents along with an extensively developed evacuation plan.

Residence halls are equipped with fire alarming systems. These alarms both signal into the Information Center (staffed 24 hours) and provide an audible alarm in the affected residence hall. All residence halls are equipped with automatic sprinkler systems. Academic buildings are also equipped with fire alarming systems. These alarms both signal into the Information Center (staffed 24 hours) and provide an audible alarm in the affected building.

Loras College also has an "enhanced 911 system" operating on campus. A call to 911 automatically alerts the Department of Campus Safety that a call has been made, allowing for a quick response by not only the police and fire department, but also the Department of Campus Safety.

Monitoring College Property: Members of the Department of Campus Safety monitor the campus 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The frequency and intensity of monitoring increases during the nighttime hours. Many campus pathways remain lighted throughout the night. Campus lighting is inspected daily. Maintenance crew members routinely replace lights; trim shrubbery and remove snow, ice and other debris from pathways and parking lots.

Arrest Authority: Because Loras College is a private institution no member of the Department of Campus Safety possesses arrest authority. Loras College does, from time to time, hire police officers with full arrest authority (Dubuque County Sheriff deputies and Dubuque Police Department officers) to assist in activities and functions at the College.

Officer Training: Each member of the Department of Campus Safety receives training on an annual and ongoing basis relative to emergency medical situations (CPR, AED and first-aid certifications), fire prevention, evacuation plans, disaster recovery plans, asset protection, risk management, student issues and student and employee safety.

Interagency Relationships: The campus is located within the city of Dubuque and Dubuque County. Accordingly, Loras College falls into the jurisdiction of the Dubuque Police Department, the Dubuque County Sheriff's Department and the Iowa Division of Public Safety. The Campus Safety Department maintains a very positive and open relationship with each of these agencies. The appropriate authorities assist in campus crime investigation and prosecution.

Procedures for Missing Persons: Campus community members should report missing persons to Loras College Campus Safety, accessible at 563.588.7114 or in person at the Loras College Information Desk, Fourth Floor Alumni Campus Center, or via phone to the Information Desk at 563.588.7100. Missing persons may also be reported to the Dean of Students, accessible at 563.588.7060, or at the Student Life Office, 540 Alumni Campus Center. Please note that missing person reports will be referred immediately to Campus Safety and/or local law enforcement.

Each student living in college-owned housing has the option to register a confidential contact person to be notified in the case that the student is determined to be missing. Only approved campus officials and law enforcement officers in furtherance of a missing person investigation have access to this information. Campus community members are encouraged to register a confidential contact person by contacting the Administrative Assistant to the Dean of Students at 563.588.7060.

If Campus Safety officials determine that a student for whom a missing person report has been filed has been missing for more than 24 hours, then within the next 24 hours, a college official will:

- Notify the individual identified by the student to be contacted in such a situation.
- If the student is under age eighteen (18), a parent or guardian and local law enforcement will be notified.
- If the student is over age eighteen (18), local law enforcement will be notified.

Campus Geography: Loras College reports statistics from all property owned by Loras College. This would include all of the College-owned houses and the Visitation Complex. We also report required statistical information that occurs on streets and sidewalks that are directly abutting Loras College property. Also included in our statistics would be the sidewalk on the east side of Alta Vista Street between Loras Boulevard and University Avenue due to the location of the Visitation Complex. For purposes of the Clery Act, we define the campus to include the following properties:

Jeanne Clery Act Information: To comply with all of the requirements of the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act and the requirements regarding Annual Fire Safety reporting, Loras College publishes an annual report containing the following information:

- How to report criminal actions or other emergencies occurring on or near campus
- Policies regarding security of, access to and maintenance of campus facilities, including campus residences
- A description of the geographical reporting area for Loras College
- Details about the Department of Campus Safety's authority and how that department works with state and local police agencies. Policies that encourage accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to the Safety Department and the appropriate police agencies also are included.
- A policy to assist monitoring and recording through local police agencies of criminal activity by students at off-campus locations of events sponsored by recognized student organizations
- A description of the type and frequency of programs to inform students and employees about campus security procedures, encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the safety of others, and inform students and employees about the prevention of crimes
- A statement of policy regarding the College's campus sexual assault prevention programs and procedures to follow should a sex offense occur
- Statistics concerning the occurrence on campus of particular criminal offenses including those that manifest evidence of prejudice based on race, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, and gender identity as prescribed by the Hate Crimes Statistics Act
- A description of available drug and alcohol abuse education programs, including appropriate policy statements
- Statistics concerning the number of arrest or disciplinary referrals for liquor-law violations, drug-abuse violations and weapons possession, including these same crimes that manifest evidence of prejudice as prescribed by the Hate Crimes Statistics Act
- A description of available emergency response and evacuation procedures, including timely warning information, missing person procedures and emergency communication guidelines
- A description of fire safety policies and procedures, exit plans and a summary of campus fires
- The Annual Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act and Annual Fire Safety report are available:
 - At the Loras College Campus Safety Office, 530 Alumni Campus Center
 - On the inside.loras.edu portal at <http://inside.loras.edu/StudentDevelopment/Safety/Pages/home.aspx>.

- The Campus Crime log is available for viewing at the Loras College Campus Safety Office, 530 Alumni Campus Center.

Crime Definitions Under the Clery Act: The following are definitions of occurrences that must be reported to Campus Safety and police:

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft or personal property of another.

Criminal Homicide (manslaughter by negligence): The killing of another person through gross negligence.

Criminal Homicide (murder and non-negligent manslaughter): The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody or control of a person by force or threat of force or violence and/or putting the victim in fear.

Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. (It is not necessary that injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife or other weapon is used which could and probably would result in serious personal injury if the crime were successfully completed.)

Burglary: The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or theft. For reporting purposes this definition includes: unlawful entry with intent to commit a larceny or felony, breaking and entering with intent to commit a larceny, housebreaking, safecracking and all attempt to commit any of the aforementioned. To classify an incident as a burglary, the following three conditions must be met:

- There must be evidence of unlawful entry (trespass). Both forcible and unlawful entry—no force—are counted.
- The unlawful entry must occur within a structure, which is defined as having four walls, a roof and a door. (This means you cannot have burglary from a vehicle.)
- The unlawful entry into a structure must show evidence that the entry was made in order to commit a felony or theft. If the intent was not to commit a felony or theft, or if the intent cannot be determined, the proper classification is Larceny.

Motor Vehicle Theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Sex Offenses, Forcible: Any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will, or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Including:

- Rape is the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim. This offense includes the rape of both males and females.
- Fondling is the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
- Incest is sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape is sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Dating Violence: Dating Violence is defined as the intentional use of physical, sexual, verbal, or emotional abuse by a person to threaten, harm, intimidate, or control another person in a dating relationship. Violent behavior is unacceptable in our community, and all cases involving violence will be referred to the College Hearing Board for review. The College Hearing Board hears cases where the outcome may include suspension or expulsion.

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence is defined as felony or misdemeanor behavior with a current or former spouse, domestic or intimate partner, someone who shares custody of a child, someone who cohabitates, or someone who is situated as a spouse. (Please note: roommates are not considered a domestic relationship unless they are involved in a relationship defined as domestic above). Violent behavior is unacceptable in our community, and all cases involving violence will be referred to the College Hearing Board for review. The College Hearing Board hears cases where the outcome may include suspension or expulsion.

Stalking: Loras College is determined to provide a campus atmosphere free of violence for all members of the campus community. For this reason, Loras College does not tolerate stalking, and will hold students who engage in stalking behaviors accountable through the college's judicial system and will report students who engage in stalking behaviors to the local authorities. Loras College is also committed to supporting victims of stalking through available campus counseling and health services, and can assist with referrals to community-support services. The College defines stalking as a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to feel fear/significant emotional distress. Stalking behaviors may include but are not limited to:

- Non-consensual communication including in-person communication, telephone calls, voice messages, text messages, email, social networking site postings, instant messages, postings of pictures or information on websites, written letters, gifts or any other communications that are undesired and/or place another person in fear
- Following, pursuing, waiting or showing up uninvited at a workplace, place of residence, classroom or other locations frequented by a victim
- Surveillance and other types of observation, whether by physical proximity or electronic means
- Trespassing
- Vandalism
- Non-consensual touching
- Direct physical and/or verbal threats against a victim or a victim's loved ones
- Gathering of information about a victim from family, friends, co-workers and/or classmates

- Manipulative and/or controlling behaviors such as threats to harm oneself or threats to harm someone close to the victim Defamation or slander against the victim. Victims of stalking have the right to learn the outcome of their case, including any recommended sanctions.

The Clery Act also requires disclosure of whether any of the above mentioned offenses, or any other crimes involving bodily injury, or incidents of larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation or destruction/damage/vandalism to property were hate crimes. A hate crime, for the purpose of this report, includes any Clery reportable or specified crime that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias. The categories of bias (based on the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting Hate Crime Data Collection Guidelines) include:

- Race
- Gender
- Religion
- Sexual Orientation
- Ethnicity/National Origin
- Disability

Please note that Campus Safety, in compliance with the Clery Law, also reports all arrests and referrals for disciplinary action for weapons and drug and alcohol infractions (including liquor law violations).

Fire Safety Procedures: These procedures should be observed for Loras students' own safety and protection in the event of a fire or fire drill. Students should be certain all roommates and guests know what to do if such an occasion arises. The evacuation routes posted on each floor should always be used during fire drills and, if possible, in the event of an actual emergency. If the normal evacuation route is not passable during an actual fire, students should use the best exit available. When the fire alarm sounds, students must exit the building.

Should time permit, students may:

- Check to see if the door and doorknob are hot before opening the door. If they are hot, do not open door.
- If students cannot exit their room, they should go to the window and await help from the fire department
- Leave the lights on
- Close the windows and lift the shades
- Close the door, but leave it unlocked

Exit Plan

When exiting the building, students should:

- Walk—not run
- Watch out for other students in the hallways and on the stairways
- Avoid causing a jam whereby inflicting injury to other students

DO NOT TRY TO LOCATE OR FIGHT THE FIRE WHEN THE ALARM SOUNDS!

If students are not near their assigned exit, they should leave through the nearest safe exit and walk to their designated area (the place assigned outside their building) and report for their section roll call. It is the student's responsibility to see that his/her presence is recorded. Students should remain at their assigned evacuation meeting area until which time they are given further instructions.

Assigned locations for evacuation are as follows:

Academic Resource Center	Keane Hall Lot
Christ the King Chapel	Keane Hall Lot
Field House	Keane Hall Lot
Hennessy Hall	Keane Hall Lot
Keane Hall	Keane Hall Lot
Planetarium	Keane Hall Lot
Science Hall	Keane Hall Lot
Wahlert Hall	Keane Hall Lot
Campus Houses	Safe distance from house
Visitation Complex	Nativity Parking Lot

Rohlman Hall	San Jose Lot
Alumni Campus Center	Faber Clarke Field
Beckman Hall	Faber Clarke Field
Hoffmann Hall	Faber Clarke Field
Physical Plant	Faber Clarke Field
Binz Hall	Faber Clarke Field or lowest Henion Lot
Lynch-McCarthy Apartments	Faber Clarke Field or lowest Henion Lot
Graber Center	West 17th Street Lot
San Jose Pool	West 17th Street Lot
Smyth Hall	West 17th Street Lot

In the event of an actual fire, campus community members should contact emergency services by calling 911 from an available phone. Additionally, fires should be reported to Campus Safety via phone at 563.588.7100 (or 0 from any campus phone) or in person at the Information Desk, Fourth Floor, Alumni Campus Center.

Physical Environment: At Loras College, all aspects of the physical environment are regularly assessed for safety. Such activity includes monthly inspections of all fire alarm systems, fire extinguishers, door alarming systems and daily inspections of lighting of the campus. Loras College has developed specific policies and procedures for disaster recovery and displacement of residence along with an extensively developed evacuation plan.

Residence halls are equipped with fire alarming systems. These alarms both signal into the Information Center (staffed 24 hours) and provide an audible alarm in the affected residence hall. All residence halls are equipped with automatic sprinkler systems. College- owned houses (structures designed as single-family dwellings) are equipped with smoke detectors as required by local/state code, and are regularly inspected by the city of Dubuque and/or local fire department staff. Fire extinguishers are also provided in each residence hall and college-owned house.

Academic buildings are also equipped with fire alarming systems. These alarms both signal into the Information Center (staffed 24 hours) and provide an audible alarm in the affected building. Fire extinguishers are also provided in each academic building.

Loras College also has an “enhanced 911 system” operating on campus. A call to 911 automatically alerts the Department of Campus Safety that a call has been made, allowing for a quick response by not only the police and fire departments, but also the Department of Campus Safety.

Fire Drills: Fire drills are conducted annually in academic buildings, and twice per semester in college housing. During 2012, fire drills were held in residence halls during the months of January, March, May, July, September and November. One fire drill was required in each academic building.

Fire Safety Education and Programming: During September of each year, Campus Safety will provide information on fire safety and education for the campus community in conjunction with Campus Fire Safety Awareness Month. Additionally, fire drills will be held in college housing during November, January, March, May and July to remind the campus community of the importance of practicing safe fire evacuation guidelines. Programming that supports personal fire safety will be provided on an ongoing basis throughout the year. Each August, Resident Advisors in college housing will be trained on emergency response during a fire situation, safe use of fire extinguishers and preventative fire safety measures for residence hall living.

Exit Routes to be Announced at Public Forums: In response to Dubuque’s Fire Code Section 408.2.2, Loras College has implemented a new policy to communicate alternative exits at any public forum held on our campus. The new policy states that each event must have a designated spokesperson who will be responsible for announcing emergency exit routes at the commencement of every college program or event, including sporting events, dinner receptions, concerts, lectures, etc. The designated spokesperson will be identified through our facility reservation process.

The designated spokesperson will be asked to identify the evacuation process to the audience before the event begins. The exits for the facilities are as follows:

- Alumni Campus Center (Marie Graber Ballroom): To exit from Ballroom B and D, go out the south doors and down the south stairwell to the main level exterior door. To exit from Ballroom A and C, go out the north doors and exit through the main doors on the west side of the building.
- Alumni Campus Center (Pub): To exit the Pub, go out the north doors and turn left and head out the east doors toward the back of the building.
- St. Joseph Auditorium (Hoffmann Hall): To exit from the first floor of the auditorium, go out the main door to the auditorium, down the hall and out the east exit (best route for wheelchair-bound individuals), or take a right, go up the stairs and out the south exterior doors. You may also exit right stage and exit through the northwest exterior door or the dock doors to the stage. From the second-floor balcony you can exit through the main doors to the balcony, take a right, down the stairs, and out through the south exit doors. On the south side you can exit through an emergency exit door and on the north side you can go down the stairs and out the northwest exit.
- Foley Auditorium (Science Hall): There are two exits from the auditorium. The lower level exit leads to the lower level hall to which a person can go left down the hall, up the stairs and out the south exit, or take the center stairs and out the west main entrance or go right down the hall and out the north exit. From the first-floor doors to the auditorium, you can go down the stairs and out the south exit, or go to the right and go out the west main doors to the building. Note: The last exit plan given is the best route for wheelchair-bound individuals. Depending upon the emergency, there is an elevator across the hall from the lower-level auditorium exit that they can take to the first floor and then out the west main entrance doors.
- Hoffmann Auditorium (Science Hall): There are two exits from the auditorium. First-floor exit, go across the hall and out the west main exit (best for wheelchair-bound individuals), or go left down the hall to the south exit or right down the hall to the north exit. From the second floor go down the stairs and out the south exterior door or take a right to go down the main stairs and out the west main entrance.
- The Gallagher Room (Visitation South Building): From the Gallagher room there are four exits. Exit through the northwest door and either go down the spiral stairs and exit the north exterior door or go across the skyway and then down the stairs and exit the northwest exterior door. You can also exit through the south door to the room and either go down the southeast stairs and exit the building on the lower level or sub-level, or take the hall (from the south door to the room) to the right, go through the choir room and then down the main stairs exiting the building through the main west doors. Note: Unless carried, wheelchair-bound individuals will need to exit through the last exit route given. Depending on the emergency, the elevator may be used and is located by the main stairs.
- The Art Gallery (Visitation South Building): Exit through the north exterior doors to the Art Gallery or enter the hallway, take a right, and exit the building through the west main entrance. Wheelchair-bound individuals can exit through the north exterior doors to the Art Gallery.
- Fieldhouse: From the Fieldhouse arena you can exit the building through the west exit (main doors, also wheelchair-bound individuals exit through this door), southeast exit (bottom of the south stairs on the lower level) and the northeast exit (located at the bottom of the northeast stairs on the sub-basement level). Another exit is on the north side of the building, sub-basement level, by the Equipment Room and Loras Men's Basketball Locker Room.
- Graber Sports Complex: From the Graber Arena first floor, you can exit the building at the southeast exit, north hall, west emergency exit, northwest emergency exit or the main door entrance, which is on the south side. From the second floor of Graber you can exit by using the southwest emergency exit (wheelchair-bound individuals can exit through this door from second floor), northwest emergency exit, or down the south stairs and out the main door.
- San Jose Pool: Exit the building through the west main entrance, northeast exit in the pool area, south hall (east or west) emergency exits and if need be go down the spiral staircase (located near the west door to the pool) and exit through the north maintenance door. From the lower-level exit the north emergency exit doors. Note: A hall connects both Graber and San Jose together. The north/northeast exits from Graber and the hallway east emergency exit lead into a small grassy area separating Graber Arena from San Jose Pool. This area has a fence that is secured so that no one from the street can get into the buildings; however, it is also a barrier for people trying to get out. For this reason, these exits will not be listed as emergency evacuation routes.

In the event of a tornado, Campus Safety and/or Residence Life will inform students of the impending emergency. Students should go to the lowest part of the building away from any windows or the designated storm shelter area. Students are responsible for their own evacuation. If students fail to seek shelter, the College relinquishes all responsibility for them.

Important Parking Information: Loras College is private property and assumes no liability or responsibility for any theft or damage to any vehicle parked in or on College property. The College does not guarantee parking space by sale of a permit. Parking is always on an “as available” basis. Using vehicles and parking at Loras is a privilege, not a right. Campus Safety does not sell more permits than spaces available on campus. All drivers should use proper care and caution while operating vehicles on campus.

The purpose of the Loras College traffic and parking regulations is to provide guidelines for safe and uncongested movement and parking of vehicular traffic on the Loras campus. For the accomplishment of these purposes, the rules and regulations contained herein have been formulated and are in effect 24 hours per day/365 days per year. These regulations will be enforced at all times, including the week of final exams, both semesters.

All persons who wish to park in any of the Loras College parking lots provided throughout campus must register their vehicle with the Campus Safety Office, display a current parking sticker on their vehicle and abide by the rules and regulations that govern campus parking. Parking permits and regulations can be obtained from the Campus Safety Office, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. Only one parking permit per student will be allowed. Vehicles must be registered with the Campus Safety in order to obtain a permit. Permit fees cover the academic school year and subsequent summer session. Please note: Students living in a campus house do not need to obtain a permit to park at their campus house; however, students without a permit may not park in other Loras College parking lots.

Permit Fees

- All full-time students—$100 per year.
- Part-time non-resident students (less than 12 credits)—$50.00 per year.
- Motorcycles—$100 per year (A special permit must be obtained for motorcycles—this permit is given at no charge to those students who have previously paid the fee to register their car with Campus Safety.)
- Long term parking—$50.00 per year.

Temporary Permits: Temporary parking permits are available at the Campus Safety Office. The cost of these permits is $5 per week. Temporary permits will not be issued for longer than two weeks in a row without approval from the Director of Campus Safety. Persons receiving temporary permits are responsible for all rules and regulations pertaining to traffic and parking on the Loras campus and will be held responsible for citations received.

Visitor Permits: All visitors to campus must park in designated visitor parking during the week (McClellan Family lot [also called Keane lot], Glen Conry lot [also called Cox Street lot] and the West 17th Street and San Jose/Graber Sports Center lots). They should obtain a temporary parking permit available from the Campus Safety Office if visitors will be on campus for more than a day or if no parking is available in the visitor spaces. The $5 fee for this permit may be waived at the discretion of the Director of Campus Safety. Students and employees may not park in any visitor stalls on campus.

Medical Permits: Medical permits must be issued by your state of residency. Law enforcement as well as Campus Safety can issue citations for any handicap parking violation.

Open Parking: Loras College will allow “open parking” on weekends. Visitors to campus will not be ticketed for parking in student or employee parking as long as they have obtained a valid visitor parking permit from the Campus Safety Office. A weekend is defined as after 3:00 p.m. on Friday night through 11:59 p.m. Sunday night.

Parking Lots: All parking lots on campus are considered the private property of Loras College. A permit must be obtained to park in these lots at all times. All individuals on campus who wish to park in these lots should abide by the appropriate regulations that govern these facilities.

Upper Campus Lots:

- McClean Family Lot—(commonly called Keane lot) located across from Keane Hall at the intersection of Loras Boulevard and Alta Vista Street. This parking lot is available to students, faculty, staff and visitors. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Hennessy Lot—located north of Hennessy Hall with entrance from Alta Vista Street. This parking lot is reserved for faculty and staff only from 7:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Rohlman Lot—located west and east of Rohlman Hall. This parking lot is available to students. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Byrne Oaks Lot—located north of Byrne Oaks with entrance from Kirkwood Street. This parking is available to students. A valid permit is required at all times.
- San Jose/Grabber Sports Center Lot—located north of this sports complex with entrance from Cox Street. This parking lot is available to students, faculty, staff and visitors. A valid permit is required at all times.
- West 17th Street Lot—located at the corner of Cox Street and West 17th Street with entrance from 17th Street. This parking lot is available to students, faculty, staff and visitors. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Alumni Campus Center Turnaround—located between the Alumni Campus Center and the Academic Resource Center with entrance from Loras Boulevard. This driveway and turnaround is a fire lane and should not be parked in for any reason without prior clearance from the Director of Campus Safety.
- Glen Conry Lot—(commonly called the Cox Street lot) located south of the Alumni Campus Center at the intersection of Loras Boulevard and Cox Street with entrance from Cox Street. This parking lot is reserved for faculty, staff and visitors only from 7:00 a.m.– 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Athletic and Wellness Center Lot—located at the intersection of Cox. St. and West 17th Street with access off of West 17th Street only. This lot is for use by Loras employees and visitors to campus between the hours of 7:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m., or by special permit. Students with a valid permit can utilize this lot after 3 p.m. until 7 a.m. daily and on weekends.
- Long Term Parking Lot—(commonly called the lower Keane lot) located in the western most tier of the McClean Family lot. This lot is restricted to long-term parking permitted vehicles only. A valid permit is required at all times.

Lower Campus Lots:

- Prairie Street Lot—located on the corner of Loras Boulevard and Prairie Street, this parking lot is available to all students and Loras employees. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Binz/Beckman Lot—located in the front of Binz and Beckman halls, this parking lot is available to all students and Loras employees. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Hoffmann Lot—located in front of Hoffmann Hall, this parking lot is available to Loras employees only from 7:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Henion Lot—located on Henion Street off of Loras Boulevard, this parking lot is available to all students and Loras employees. A valid permit is required at all times.
- Henion Street—is owned by Loras College from Pickett Street north to the New Apartments. This street is considered a no parking area.
- New Apartment Lot—located in front of the New Apartments with an entrance from Henion Street, this parking lot is available to all students and Loras employees. A valid permit is required at all times.

The Visitation:

- Visitation Lot—located behind the Visitation Complex on the corner of University Avenue and Alta Vista Street, with an entrance from Alta Vista Street, this parking lot is available to all students and Loras employees. A valid permit is required at all times.

Campus Houses:

- Campus houses that offer off-street parking are considered student parking for those residents assigned to reside in that house. Legitimate garages and/or driveways are to be used at all times. Parking in grassy areas or on sidewalks is considered a violation of fire-zone regulations and is subject to the Loras traffic and parking regulations fine schedule. A permit is not required to park in the driveway or off street parking areas for college owned houses; however, a permit will be required for all other campus parking areas.

General Parking Regulations

All members of the Loras College community who own or operate a motor vehicle on the Loras College campus are required to register their vehicle at the Campus Safety Office within the first two days of classes or within 24 hours of bringing the vehicle on campus thereafter. Persons using Loras parking facilities MUST display the appropriate current permit, properly affixed, at all times.

The Campus Safety Office has the right to revoke motor vehicle registration for any member of the Loras community who is a consistent violator of the Traffic and Parking Regulations. Persons on disciplinary probation may be prohibited from having a campus permit.

Loras College shall retain the right to tow any vehicle consistently violating the Traffic and Parking Regulations of Loras College and/or City and State regulations. An unregistered vehicle found on the Loras College campus may be subject to tow. Towing charges must be paid by the violator. Any person will be subject to having his/her car towed WITHOUT NOTICE for:

- Parking in fire lanes
- Parking in handicap parking spaces
- Effectively blocking another car
- Storing car on campus during any holiday break

The Loras College parking permit is to be displayed on the back of the vehicle inside rearview mirror. The permit must be permanently attached to the back of the mirror. The permit should be displayed on the handlebars of motorcycles. Student permits expire at the end of summer school.

All fines will be applied to the student or employee account.

The Campus Safety Office has final jurisdiction for all traffic matters on the Loras campus. This office reserves the right to summon consistent violators of the Traffic and Parking Regulations for adjudication.

Registering another person's vehicle or allowing another person to register your motor vehicle under false pretense or when prohibited from having a campus parking permit is forbidden. Students must register their vehicles with Campus Safety. Those registering cars at Clarke College or the University of Dubuque are subject to fine for false registration and loss of campus parking privileges.

When registering their vehicles, students MUST present their College I.D. and the registration for the vehicle they are registering.

Students must notify the Campus Safety or the Information Center by 7:30 a.m. if their cars do not start or if other mechanical problems are evident when parked in an employee lot. These cars must be moved within 24 hours or the vehicle will be towed at the owner's expense.

Due to space limitations, only one car or motorcycle per campus resident may be kept on the campus lots. No motor vehicle may be left on campus during any of the holiday breaks unless previously approved by Campus Safety. Owners will be fined and vehicles are subject to tow.

All students residing in non-traditional housing are required to register their vehicles if they choose to park in College-owned lots and abide by all parking regulations.

Bicycles are to be parked in furnished bike racks located about the campus. Bicycles secured to College property other than racks are subject to confiscation by Loras College Campus Safety.

PEDESTRIANS HAVE THE RIGHT OF WAY AT ALL TIMES!

Students will be held responsible for any guests' or visitors' traffic or parking violations.

Parking Expectations

Faculty/staff parking lots are identified with signs. These are reserved areas for employees from 7:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. A valid permit is required. All other parking lots have been identified as student parking. Student and employee permits are required to use these areas, including designated off-street parking associated with campus-owned houses.

Do NOT park in loading dock areas, with the exception of maintenance and service vehicles.

Do NOT park in fire lanes, interior roadways, loading zones, garage entrances, turnarounds, crosswalks, any temporarily barricaded areas or any other access points in and out of campus. THESE AREAS ARE CONSIDERED FIRE LANES AND ARE TOW ZONES!

Do NOT park on the grass, sidewalks or any other College grounds not designated as legitimate parking areas. All legitimate parking stalls will be clearly marked.

Do NOT take more than one parking space for your vehicle.

Do NOT park in disabled spaces without the appropriate State permit.

Do NOT park in reserved spaces.

The same parking rules pertain to motorcycles as to cars.

EMERGENCY FLASHERS WILL NOT BE ACKNOWLEDGED AS A SIGNAL FOR SHORT-TERM PARKING.

Parking Fines: As stated in the Loras College Student Handbook, Fine and Damage Statement: “All fines and damage assessments are due within five (5) working days after they are assessed. Students whose disciplinary, library and/or traffic fines and/or damage accounts are delinquent are subject to current College policies.”

All appeals of citations must be submitted to the Campus Safety within five (5) working days of the citation. A form will be provided by Campus Safety for the appellant to fill out. All judgments of appeals are final. The appellant will be notified in writing of the Board’s decision in all cases.

Handicapped Parking: Handicapped students attending Loras College displaying the proper state-issued handicap parking permit may park their vehicles in the designated handicap parking spaces.

Special Parking Arrangements: It may be necessary for the Office of Campus Safety to temporarily close parking areas or alter stated parking policies (i.e., football game parking or graduation) with little or no notification. In this case, Security personnel will control traffic to restricted areas.

Campus Speed Limit: The speed limit on all interior streets and parking facilities of Loras College is 10 mph. Reckless driving is driving with a wanton disregard of personal safety or property. Examples: driving on sidewalks or grassy areas or squealing of tires when a momentary loss of control of vehicle occurs. The student to whom the vehicle is registered is responsible for any citations issued for careless and reckless driving or speeding even if he/she was not driving at the time the citation was issued.

For the convenience of its students, faculty and staff, Loras College maintains a bookstore where clothing, gifts, supplies, books, paper, sundries and other items may be purchased. MasterCard, VISA, Discover and American Express credit cards are accepted. Normal hours of operation are:

Monday–Thursday	8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.
Friday	8:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.
Saturday (while classes are in session)	10:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m.
Summer hours: Monday–Friday	8:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

Business Office

150 Keane Hall, 563.588.7335
 Monday–Friday, 9:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.

Personal checks may be cashed in the Business Office; a valid Loras ID card is required. Check cashing is limited to $50 per day. Any returned check or ACH transaction will result in a $25 Returned Item Fee. After two (2) returned Business Office (continued): checks are received by the College, those students will no longer be allowed to cash checks. An ATM machine is available 24 hours daily and is located near the Information Desk of the Alumni Campus Center.

Students employed on campus must complete a W-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate) form and an I-9 (Employment Eligibility Verification) form before a paycheck will be issued. The I-9 form requires a student to provide proper identification, such as an original social security card and a valid driver's license. When school is in session, students are allowed to work a total of fifteen (15) hours per week (Monday through Sunday), regardless of the number of positions employed. When school is not in session, students are allowed to work a total of forty (40) hours per week (Monday through Sunday), regardless of the number of positions employed. For example, a student who works during the summer on campus can work twenty (20) hours as a custodian and twenty (20) hours in admissions for a total of forty (40) hours in a week. Students are paid monthly during the academic year and bi-weekly during the summer. Any other payroll questions can be directed towards Rose Bakey in the Department of Human Resources. A Loras ID is required in order to receive a paycheck. Student payroll checks may be cashed at the Business Office if the check amount is $100 or less. Payroll checks in excess of $100 may be cashed at the Business Office if the student takes $100 or less in cash and has the remainder applied to his/her student account. American Trust and Savings Bank will cash Loras College checks for students if they show a driver's license for identification.

Campus Dining Services

Alumni Campus Center, 563.588.7295

Loras Campus Dining works with the College to provide a pleasant atmosphere and dining experience. The Café, Pub, Duhawk Market and Einstein Bros Bagels serve as important gathering places for members of the Loras community to come together to enjoy meals and conversation. In addition, the POD, located in Hoffman Hall is also available to students on the lower campus.

Meal Plan Requirements and Options

Meal plans purchased for the first semester of the academic year are automatically renewed for the second semester and the student will be billed for the same. Students desiring change, discontinuance or exemption at the end of the semester should consult the policy as stated above. Students who fail to notify the Residence Life Office of their desire to discontinue for the second semester may be assessed a processing penalty and/or may have to pay a meal plan charge through the effective date of their discontinuance. Off-campus students will be required to renew their meal plan each semester.

A student with a special dietary need should have their physician submit the prescribed diet to the Health Center and/or Loras Campus Dining. If possible the food service will prepare the diet in accord with the physician's instructions. A student who needs a boxed lunch because of an unavoidable absence or scheduling conflict should contact Loras Campus Dining.

There are currently three meal plans available to Loras College students. Meals are not transferable from one student to another. Any unused meals at the end of each semester are not transferable and are nonrefundable. All students residing in a traditional residence hall must be on a meal plan. The meal contract entitles students to meals only when classes are in session. Meal plans cannot be changed after the first week of classes each semester without exceptional circumstances.

All plans include dollar amounts available for use in the Café, Pub, the Duhawk Market, Einstein Bros Bagels, Concessions or the POD. Additional dollar amounts (minimum of $25) may be added throughout the semester; however, such amounts are not transferable from one student to another or one semester to another. Purchases of $100 or more receive a 5% bonus from Loras Campus Dining. Please use www.loras.campusdish.com to add dollars to your meal plans.

All students residing in traditional housing are required to have a traditional meal plan. All students residing in Byrne Oaks, Smyth, McCarthy-Lynch Apartments, Visitation apartments or College-owned houses may choose to have a meal plan, but they are not required to do so. Students requiring a change to their meal plan must submit to the Health Center an Application to Change Required Meal Plan form that has been completed, signed and stamped by their physician. Approval is granted for extreme medical reasons only.

Traditional Meal Plans

All students living in a traditional residence hall (Beckman, Binz, and Rohlman) must have the traditional meal plan. The traditional meal contract entitles students to meals when classes are in session. Meal plans cannot be used during academic breaks (i.e., spring break, winter break, etc.). The plans are not transferable from one student to another, and any meals not eaten at the end of the semester are not transferable and are nonrefundable. Meal plans cannot be changed after the last day of the first week of classes in a semester. Meals are available on campus during the times that January term classes are in session.

Gold Open Access Plan: This plan is your VIP Pass the Café! This plan gives you the ultimate in flexibility, choice and convenience. The Gold Plan enables you to graze or snack throughout the day. The Gold plan also features $250 Duhawk Dollars per semester to be used in the Pub, Duhawk Market, Concessions or POD. Purchases of $100 or more in additional Duhawk Dollars receive a 5% bonus from Campus Dining. Please use www.loras.campusdish.com to add dollars to your meal plans. This plan also features three (3) guest passes per semester to dine in the Cafe. Any remaining money or meals not eaten are not transferable from one semester to the next, and is nonrefundable.

Purple 125 Plan: This plan is designed so you can choose when to use your meals throughout the semester. You can use five meals one week and 10 the next; it's up to you! This plan also features $200 in Duhawk Dollars per semester to be used in the Cafe, Pub, Duhawk Market, Einstein Bros Bagels, Concessions or POD. Purchases of $100 or more in additional Duhawk Dollars receive a 5% bonus from Campus Dining. Please use www.loras.campusdish.com to add dollars to your meal plans. This plan also features three (3) guest passes per semester to dine in the Cafe. Any remaining money or meals not eaten are not transferable from one semester to the next, and is nonrefundable.

Alternative Meal Plans

All students living in alternative housing (Byrne Oaks, McCarthy-Lynch Apartments, and Smyth Hall, Visitation Apartments or College-owned houses) and all commuter students are NOT required to be on a meal plan. However, they may choose to be on a traditional or alternative meal plan. The Duhawk plan IS NOT available to students living in traditional residence halls. Meal plans cannot be used during academic breaks (i.e., spring break, winter break, etc.). The plan is not transferable from one student to another. The Duhawk meal plan will automatically be reassigned for the spring semester unless the Residence Life Office is notified in writing that you do not want to renew it.

Duhawk Plan: This plan features $525 per semester to be used in the Cafe, Pub, Duhawk Market, Einstein Bros Bagels, Concessions or POD. While balances are transferable from fall to spring semester if you renew your plan second semester, any remaining balance at the end of spring semester is nonrefundable. Additional Duhawk Dollars can be purchased throughout the semester (minimum of $25); however, dollars are not transferable from one student to another. Purchases of $100 or more in additional Duhawk Dollars receive a 5% bonus from Campus Dining. Please use www.loras.campusdish.com to add dollars to your meal plans.

Loras Plan: This plan features $250 per year to be used in the Cafe, Pub, Duhawk Market, Einstein Bros Bagels, Concessions or POD. While balances are transferable from fall to spring semester if you renew your plan second semester, any remaining balance at the end of spring semester is nonrefundable.

ID Cards

Identification of students on a meal plan is necessary in order to prevent unauthorized persons from entering the dining area. All students are required to show their identification card to the cashier in any given service area before proceeding through the service line to ensure their valid participation in a meal plan.

Behavioral Expectations in Dining Areas

Meals must be paid for in advance, at the door upon entry to the Café. In order to provide a pleasant dining experience for all, it is an expectation that students act respectfully toward others in the dining areas. Students are to refrain from throwing or wasting food; using dishes as spittoons and removing food, china, glasses and tableware from the dining areas. Students engaged in these activities will be subject to disciplinary action.

Overt misconduct, forgery and theft may constitute grounds for removal from the dining service contract without a refund. Out of respect for others, students are required to dress in accord with standards of good taste. Shirts and shoes must always be worn in the dining areas. Dining service personnel, Campus Safety, and the Residence Life staff reserve the right to deny admission to a student into the dining areas and the right to remove a student from the dining areas.

Meals for Ill or Injured Students

Students who are ill or injured may contact the Health Center to request meals from the cafeteria. If the Health Center is closed, students can contact their Area Coordinator.

Campus Safety

530 Alumni Campus Center, 563.588.7114

The Campus Safety Office has the responsibility for the custody and protection of buildings, registration of student and faculty motor vehicles, student ID/access cards, traffic and parking control, fire-prevention measures, detection and correction of hazards, key and lock control measures and the security control for all athletic, academic and social events on campus. For more information about services and disclosures offered by Loras College Campus Safety, please visit the Campus Safety section of the Loras College Student Handbook available online at www.loras.edu.

ID Cards

Contact the Campus Safety Information Desk at 563.588.7100 or in person on the Fourth Floor, Alumni Campus Center. Students are to carry their Loras College identification card on their person at all times and must show the card upon the request of any authorized person. IDs are valid only for the term of enrollment and remains the property of Loras College. There is a $10 replacement charge for a lost ID. Student is wholly responsible for use. Students who misrepresent their identification, including falsifying the ID card, or who lend the card to another may be subject to disciplinary action. Please note: Students must provide at least two forms of identification, including one photo identification, to receive a student ID.

Access Fobs

Access fobs are valid only for the term of enrollment and remain the property of Loras College. There is a $15 replacement charge—contact the Campus Safety Information Desk in person. Student is wholly responsible for use for the use of their fob.

Lost and Found

Lost articles may be claimed or turned in to the Campus Safety Office, 530 Alumni Campus Center. Note: The College assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to student property in any of the College buildings or on the campus due to fire, theft or any other cause.

Counseling Center

The goal of the staff at the Counseling Center is to help students identify barriers interfering with success at Loras and develop strategies to overcome them. The focus is to help students use the skills they already have as well as develop new approaches to situations. . The Counseling Center staff is made up of professional counselors who can provide individual and group counseling, workshops, classes and testing to address issues such as:

- Depression and anxiety
- Financial management
- Communication skills
- Family problems
- Adjustment to college and adult life
- Relationship difficulties
- Anger Management
- Sexual assault and trauma
- Test-taking or other study problems
- Eating disorders
- Grief and loss
- Vocational concerns

The Counseling Center is able to provide services for students who are struggling academically. The Center works closely with The Lynch Office of Disability Services as well as Headwaters, the Office of Resources and Retention on campus. Counselors can assist in facilitating tutoring, conducting groups to improve social skills or other needs to improve the student's overall experience at Loras College. Students can be assessed to identify a possible learning disability or attention disorders and referrals can be made to physicians in the community when a more e extensive diagnosis may be indicated. The Counseling Center also works closely with the Health Center and other areas of Student Life to address physical and mental health issues that may interfere with student success.

Counseling Center staff members are obligated to strictly follow state laws concerning confidentiality. Unless the student or someone else is in imminent physical danger, or the information concerns a minor who is being abused, no information concerning a client of the Counseling Center can be shared with anyone without the client's consent.

The Counseling Center provides information about emotional problems and screening tools to assist students to identify when they need help. More information as well as useful links to on-line assessments can be accessed on the Counseling Center website within Loras.

Absence Due to Psychological Issues

When a student is absent from class or the College due to psychological issues that seriously interfere with academic performance such as depression, anxiety or another problem, it is the responsibility of the student to seek assistance from the Counseling Center or other qualified professional and communicate with his/her professor concerning the absence. Students must follow the requirements of the professor regarding the course work missed. If requested by the student, contact with faculty may be made by the Counseling Center Director; the student must give permission to speak to a professor before the Counseling Center staff can do so. To arrange this notification the student must be in treatment with the Counseling Center or other mental health or health professional who can verify the need to be absent, and a release must be provided to allow notification. If the absence is extensive the student should consider withdrawal from the class or classes. If the last withdrawal date is past, students should talk to the Counseling Center Director to discuss administrative withdrawal.

Administrative Withdrawal Due to Psychological Issues

When a student is unable to complete a term due to significant medical/psychological issues a medical withdrawal may be considered. Please see the academic calendar and/or your advisor for important withdrawal dates. The student must contact the Health Center and/or Counseling Center and may be required to submit additional documentation from off-campus health care providers. The Health Center and/or Counseling Center will collect and review the information provided and make a recommendation to the Vice President for Student Development/Dean of Students.

If a withdrawal is granted, the student will receive a "W" on their transcript for the entire term. A partial withdrawal will not be granted. Loras College reserves the right to decide if a student will be allowed readmission to the college. If the student is readmitted, Loras College may also establish parameters for the return to campus/classes. Prior to returning to campus/classes the student must contact the Health Center and/or Counseling Center for an assessment and may be required to submit documentation from their health care provider.

Center for Experiential Learning (CEL)

590 Alumni Campus Center, 563.588.7922

The Center for Experiential Learning (CEL) expands the dimensions of a Loras education by working with students to integrate their knowledge, experience, skills and capacities. Through structured learning experiences in other countries, cities, communities and working environments, students are encouraged to design and pursue their learning objectives outside the traditional classroom. The CEL works with students to help coordinate opportunities in the following areas: academic internships, education abroad, service learning, study away and career exploration and planning.

Dean of Students Office

The Dean of Students serves as the senior student development officer and is responsible for the delivery of student services. The office administers student life and residence life policies and procedures and serves as student advocate to the faculty, administration and other College constituencies. In addition, the Dean of Students advises students, parents, faculty and others concerning campus life issues and the character of students' out-of-class activities.

Event Coordinator

543 Alumni Campus Center, 563.588.7212

The Event Coordination Office is responsible for coordinating all activities, meeting and events for Loras College. The office is in charge of the internal scheduling software, Express Request, found on the "Inside Loras: A-Z Search" under "F" for "Facility Reservation Form."

Postings, banners, flyers, table tents, easels, bulletin boards, sidewalk chalk and all other on-campus marketing must be approved by the Event Coordinator.

In addition, the Event Coordination Office is responsible for the coordination and planning of all non-Loras related, or external, functions. If you wish to host an activity, meeting or event on campus that is external to Loras, please contact the Event Coordinator at 563-588-7212.

Guest Speakers

A goal of the faculty, students, administration, staff and Board of Regents is for Loras College to be a superior educational center for the preservation, transmission and discovery of knowledge. The wide variety of co-curricular activities at Loras College represents one way this goal is achieved. Therefore, these activities are an integral part of the total educational mission of the College.

Requests for speakers are made to the Dean of Students or his/her designee by officers of sponsoring organizations, or in the case of the student organizations, by officers and the faculty advisor.

All publicity is to be coordinated by the sponsoring group with the Office of Institutional Marketing. The sponsoring organization in conjunction with the Office of Institutional Marketing is responsible for making known to the academic and larger communities that sponsorship of the guest speaker does not necessarily imply approval or endorsement of the views expressed either by the sponsoring group or the College administration or faculty.

Time, Place and Manner Information (Protests)

Protests of any description must be registered with the Dean of Students. Time, place and manner restrictions are the prerogative of the College. Limitations include: disruption of regular classes, avoiding the scheduling of two events at the same time in the same facility, the protection of the public order and to ensure compliance with local, state and federal laws. Any limitations must be both reasonable and content-neutral, the latter term meaning that they shall be applied without regard to the content of the expression or the purpose of the assembly. Limitations may include requiring 1) scheduling and planning with the appropriate authorized designee, 2) restricting or prohibiting the use of certain areas, 3) limiting certain forms of expression in specific areas and 4) reimbursing the College any cost associated with the use of the facility, area or medium. Note: Given the wide diversity of expression that occurs at higher education institutions, the use of any College facility, area or medium for any expression shall not constitute or suggest endorsement of the content of the expression, or any proponent of the expression, or any proponent thereof, by the Board of Regents, the College, its admissions staff, faculty, student body or any individual member of these constituencies. Presenters of expression shall assume full responsibility for any violation of law they commit while in/on College property.

The following are currently recognized by the United States Supreme Court as categories of speech or expression which are unprotected and can be barred or limited:

- Clear and present danger: Preparing a group for imminent lawless action, and steeling it to such action, as opposed to the abstract teaching of the moral propriety or even moral necessity for a resort to force and violence; AND there must not only be advocacy to action, but also a reasonable apprehension of imminent danger to the essential functions and purposes of the College. Such imminent lawless action shall include the following:
 - The violent overthrow of the government of the United States, the state of Iowa or any political subdivision thereof.
 - The willful damage or destruction or seizure and subversion of the institution's buildings or properties.
 - The forcible disruption of, or interference with, the institution's regularly scheduled classes or other educational functions.
 - The physical harm, coercion, intimidation or other invasion of lawful rights of the Board of Regents, institutional officials, faculty members, staff members or students or other campus disorder of violent nature.

- Fighting words: Words which by their very utterance inflict injury or are likely to incite an immediate breach of the peace. Personally abusive words that, when spoken to ordinary persons, are inherently likely to incite immediate physical retaliation.
- Obscenity: A description or depiction of sexual conduct that taken as a whole, by the average person, applying contemporary community standards (the community shall be comprised of faculty, staff and students of Loras College):
 - Appeals to the prurient interest;
 - Portrays sex in a clearly offensive way; and
 - Using a reasonable person's standard rather than the contemporary community standard does not have serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.

Financial Planning

Students are encouraged to visit with the Financial Planning officers whenever they have a financial problem or desire information about available aid. Loras has many types of financial aid for students, including scholarships, loans and campus employment.

The Office of Financial Planning recognizes that all students are entitled to receive professional and courteous service when making application for financial assistance. The staff also recognizes that each student has certain rights which are inherent to the financial aid application process. They want each student to understand that there are certain responsibilities which are a part of the application process as well. The following information describes the rights and responsibilities of students as they relate to the College financial assistance programs and the Office of Financial Planning.

Student Rights

Access to Consumer Information

All students have the right to know what financial assistance programs are offered by Loras College and the criteria used to determine eligibility. In addition, students have the right to the following information upon request:

- What federal programs are available to the student at the institution
- What aid programs are available through the institution itself and through private agencies
- How the institution distributes aid among students.
- The rights and responsibilities of the student receiving financial aid at the institution.
- How and when financial aid will be disbursed.
- The terms and conditions of any employment that is part of the financial aid award.
- The terms and schedules of repayment of student loans.
- The criteria the institution uses in determining whether or not a student who has failed to meet satisfactory academic progress may reestablish eligibility for federal aid.
- The names of associations, agencies or governmental bodies that accredit, approve or license the institution and its programs.
- The cost of attending the institution including tuition and fees, books and supplies; estimates of typical room-and-board costs or commuting costs and any additional costs associated with the program in which the student is enrolled or has expressed an interest.
- The institution's policy regarding funds and on distributing financial aid information.

Access to Financial Aid File

The Office of Financial Planning keeps all financial records collected in support of a student's application for financial assistance on file. This information is considered by the office since the documents can include copies of federal income tax transcripts of the student and/or parents. Students have the right to review documentation in their files with the following exceptions:

- Students who are by federal definition dependent are not permitted to review or request photocopies of their parent's financial records, i.e., federal income tax transcripts, social security statements etc., without the written consent of their parent(s).
- Students who are independent by federal definition are assured of not having their financial records, i.e., federal income tax transcripts social security statements, etc., released to their parent(s) without their written consent. It should also be noted that each student has the right to request, in writing, that financial information be released to governmental agencies, scholarship programs, etc. In addition, the student aid applicant must realize that the Office of Financial Planning can and in many cases must release directly, upon request, financial information that is held in common by other agencies. For example, if a student applies for financial assistance through Loras College and a state grant agency, it is legal for the agency and the office to share and compare application data without the prior consent of the student or the parents where applicable.

Access to a Professional Counselor

The Office of Financial Planning recognizes that the application for financial assistance is highly complex and paper intensive. Therefore, the office believes that it is the right of every applicant to be able to speak with a professional counselor on an appointment basis or by telephone. It is not, however, the right of any student to be seen "upon demand" by any professional staff member.

Understanding the Appeal Process

As noted under Part One (1) (Consumer Information) students have the right to know what constitutes satisfactory academic progress and the mechanism by which eligibility can be restored if students fail to make progress at any point in time. If a student does not meet the conditions of the progress policy and is in fact determined to be ineligible in a given term, the student has the right to a written appeal. The appeal must be submitted by the student within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice of academic suspension. The appeal is reviewed by the staff, and a final decision is made. Within ten (10) days the student is notified in writing of the decision concerning the appeal and his/her financial aid status.

Student Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of all student aid applicants to be responsive to requests that are made by the Office of Financial Planning. It must be understood that the Office of Financial Planning is dedicated to providing quality services to those students who take an active role in their own financial matters and who are willing to comply with all rules and regulations relative to the various assistance programs. Some of the responsibilities that a student must assume to ensure an efficient and timely reply to a request of financial assistance or information are:

Compliance with Request for Information

It is the responsibility of each student aid applicant to respond in a timely manner to all information requests that are made by the Office of Financial Planning. Requests can include but are not limited to applicable federal income tax transcripts, document of self-support (independent applicants) and household size verification. Once a request for documentation is made, the office does not continue to process the student's application until the information is received.

Avoid Submitting Fraudulent or Intentionally Misleading Information

It should also be noted that if upon review of a given student aid applicant's file, fraudulent or intentionally misleading information is found by the office, the following actions are taken:

- Loras College Campus Safety is consulted. If Campus Safety, in agreement with the Dean of Students, feels that a criminal investigation is warranted, they act accordingly.
- In extreme and clear-cut cases where the action of the student and/or parents is intentionally fraudulent and may involve multiple federal agencies, i.e., the Internal Revenue Service or The U.S. Department of Education, Health and Human Services, etc., the Office of Financial Planning contacts the United States Inspector General's Office. The Inspector General's Office then determines if criminal investigation is warranted and follows up accordingly.

Adherence to Place Application and Dates

It is the responsibility of the student aid applicant to be cognizant of the application priority dates and deadlines specific to each aid program that Loras administers. The Office of Financial Planning awards funds in the College work-study, supplemental grant and Perkins Loan programs on a first-come, first-served basis; therefore, it is to the applicant's advantage to begin the process early (after January 1 and before April 15 of each year). The office strives to process all applications in a timely manner and is not responsible for the deferment of college debts owed by financial aid applicants.

Proper Use of Federal Financial Assistance

It is the student's responsibility to use all federal financial assistance received for educationally related costs. Educationally related costs include tuition, fees, room, board, books, supplies, transportation (this does not include car payments or the purchase of a car) and personal expenses (this does not include the accumulation or servicing of consumer debt). Students are encouraged to consult with a Financial Aid counselor if they have questions regarding the use of federal student aid.

Responsibilities Specific to Student Borrowers

The majority of student aid recipients at Loras College are funded by one or more subsidized educational loan programs. It is the responsibility of all student borrowers to understand the payment provisions of the various loan programs as well as other requirements, such as interest rates, promissory notes and deferment and forbearance options. It is also the responsibility of the student borrower to obtain from the lender all policies and regulations that pertain to any loan program from which the student is receiving funds. The Office of Financial Planning is available to answer loan questions Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Lynch Learning Center

120 Academic Resource Center, 563.588.7134
Monday–Friday, 8:00 a.m.–4:30 p.m.

The Lynch Learning Center (LLC) provides services for students with diagnosed disabilities who request services. Two levels of assistance are available: the Enhanced Program and Accommodation Services. Students selected for the Enhanced Program attend a two-credit class both semesters of their first year. In addition, all students (first year and upper class) attend a weekly individual session with LLC personnel, receive tutoring as needed and the Accommodation Services that their documentation supports, which may include textbooks in alternative formats, assistive technology, extended time testing/testing in a distraction-reduced environment and note-taking services. An additional fee is charged for this program. Accommodation Services (note-takers, extended time tests/testing in a distraction-reduced environment, textbooks in alternative formats, assistive technology) are available to students with disabilities if they submit current documentation supporting the need for accommodations. No fee is charged for Accommodation Services.

Headwaters

The consultants in the Writing Lab assist students, faculty and staff in becoming more independent writers by focusing on the process of writing. Instruction is available in understanding an assignment, identifying possible topics, composing a thesis statement, generating supporting material, revising an initial draft and editing a final draft. The Writing Center also assists students and staff with career documents like résumés and cover letters. We can help create these documents, give advice on content and proofread for final copy. The Writing Center assists students who are applying to grad school by providing feedback on application letters, personal statements and essays. We can help prepare for GREs, MCATs, LSATs and other graduate school entrance requirements.

You can find us on the first floor of the library. Go down the red stairway, go straight past the classroom and the elevators and look for the hidden doorway on your right, beneath the Headwaters banner. Our normal hours of operation are Monday–Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and Fridays from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Drop in then or set up an appointment by calling 7349. The Writing Center serves all members of the Loras community. Every writer needs feedback on written projects. We can provide that careful critique of your work that makes every writer a better writer.

Loras provides many opportunities for assistance with classes. Individual tutors are available for one-on-one support. The SI program targets traditionally difficult courses and provides regularly scheduled, out of class, peer-facilitated study sessions.

Health Center

474 Alumni Campus Center, 563.588.7142; Fax 563.588.7659.
Monday–Friday 8:00 a.m.–12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m.–4:00 p.m.

Available Services

While college students are generally a healthy population, there may be times when illness or injury interferes with campus life. The Loras College Health Center, staffed by two registered nurses, provides a range of health care services to the campus community. The nurses will assess, offer treatment, provide over-the-counter medication and/or a referral to another healthcare provider if needed. We also provide health education, wellness promotion, and self-care opportunities. Most services are available at no charge to students registered at Loras College. We work closely with many other campus and community services.

Air Conditioners

Students requiring an air conditioner must submit an Air Conditioner Application that has been completed, signed and stamped by their physician to the Health Center. This documentation must be submitted each academic year. Approval of an air conditioner in the past does not guarantee the continued use of an air conditioner. Due to safety restrictions and electrical load limitations, a limited amount of air conditioners will be approved based on physician documentation of medical necessity

The student will provide their own air conditioner, not to exceed 5200 BTUs, complete with side curtains and appropriate angle stops to facilitate installation. Window modifications are not allowed.

The student may install their own air conditioner. To ensure the unit is secure in the window, the student should submit a request via email to fixmyroom@loras.edu for the maintenance department to check the air conditioner. The maintenance department will install the air conditioner for the student, if requested. The student should submit a request via email to fixmyroom@loras.edu for the maintenance department to install the air conditioner.

The Required Health Information form and vaccine record (an official signed and stamped record showing proof of receiving 2 MMR immunizations on or after their first birthday and at least 30 days apart or laboratory evidence of immunity (Rubeola and Rubella titers and Mumps IgG immune status) must be on file in the Health Center before the air conditioner request can be approved.

Air conditioners must be removed by October 30 unless the physician authorizes a request for an extension. Please contact the Health Center for approval if the air conditioner is needed during the spring semester. Students must submit the completed air-conditioner request form by July 31 to the Health Center. The Loras College Health Center will contact the student via email if his/her request has been approved or denied.

Confidentiality

All patient records maintained by the Health Center are private. Only authorized Health Center personnel may release patient records, and then only with written authorization from the patient. Parents of patients eighteen years and older, parents or spouses of emancipated minors and other next of kin will not have access to the medical record without the written consent of the patient.

Elevator Keys

Elevator keys are issued through the Health Center after receiving written documentation from a physician that details the student's need for access to an elevator due to injury or illness.

Health Insurance

Health insurance is important. Loras does not currently endorse a specific health insurance plan. Check the Health Center website for insurance tips. Students should be knowledgeable of their health insurance information and Dubuque "in network" providers. Students should submit a copy of their current health coverage to the Health Center where the information will be kept on file. In addition, we encourage students to always carry a copy of their insurance card. If a student becomes ill or injured when the Health Center is closed, they should contact the Area Coordinator or Resident Advisor for assistance.

All international students are required to have health insurance designated by Loras College unless health insurance is provided by your home embassy. The Loras College Health Center will enroll you into the health insurance plan with the plan fee being placed onto your Loras College student account. It is the student's responsibility to contact the Loras College Health Center prior to each semester to be enrolled into the health insurance plan designated by the college or to review your proof of insurance provided by your home embassy.

Health Requirements for Students

Complete and return the Required Health Information Form including a copy of your insurance card and your vaccine record to the Loras College Health Center via mail, fax or email. Your physician's office, high school, or state health department may have a copy of your vaccine record.

Loras College follows the American College Health Association immunization guidelines:

All students, first year, transfer, international and continuing education/graduate students registered for more than seven (7) credit hours and born after January 1, 1957, must provide proof of immunity to MMR (Rubeola, Mumps and Rubella). Students must provide an official signed and stamped record showing proof of receiving two MMR immunizations on or after their first birthday and at least thirty (30) days apart OR laboratory evidence of immunity (Rubeola and Rubella titers and Mumps IgG immune status) to the Loras College Health Center. The Health Center will assist students needing immunizations or laboratory work. Students will be required to pay for the immunizations or laboratory work. Students needing both MMR immunizations must wait 30 days between shots.

All International Students must report to the Loras College Health Center within two weeks of arriving to campus for a baseline TB (tuberculosis) screening. International students are required to have a QuantiFERON Gold or T-SPOT TB Test completed in the United States in the past twelve months. The Health Center staff will assist students to schedule testing. If the TB test is not covered by your insurance, the student will be required to pay for the test at the time of service. If a student previously tested positive for TB or has been treated for active TB disease, the student must attach documentation of the test and treatment with his/her health records. Students with positive tests will be referred to a local healthcare provider.

The above requirements must be met before students will be able to register for classes for the next semester. All documentation must be in English. Please note: Student athletes have additional athletic forms.

Although not required, we highly recommend students be immunized for meningitis. Talk to your physician about the benefits of receiving the vaccination. Information on the disease is available at our website.

Medical Withdrawal

When a student is unable to complete a term due to significant medical/psychological issues a medical withdrawal may be considered. Please see the academic calendar and/or your advisor for important withdrawal dates. The student must contact the Health Center and/or Counseling Center and may be required to submit additional documentation from off-campus health care providers. The Health Center and/or Counseling Center will collect and review the information provided and make a recommendation to the Vice President for Student Development/Dean of Students.

If a withdrawal is granted, the student will receive a "W" on their transcript for the entire term. A partial withdrawal will not be granted. Loras College reserves the right to decide if a student will be allowed readmission to the college. If the student is readmitted, Loras College may also establish parameters for the return to campus/classes. Prior to returning to campus/classes the student must contact the Health Center and/or Counseling Center for an assessment and may be required to submit documentation from their health care provider.

Missed Class Policy

When a student is absent from class due to illness, injury or hospitalization, it is the responsibility of the student to communicate with their professor and to follow the requirements of the professor regarding the course work missed. Penalties for absenteeism depend upon the policy and discretion of the professor as outlined in the course syllabus.

Written documentation from a physician excusing a student from class due to illness, injury or hospitalization is required if a student misses three or more consecutive days. This documentation can be brought or faxed to the Health Center (Fax 563-588-7659). The Health Center will relay this information via email to the Vice President for Student Development/Dean of Students, the student's professors and coaches. The Health Center will only send an email notification when the student is excused from classes for three or more consecutive days.

Professors wishing to verify other cases of student absence due to illness, injury or hospitalization may call the Health Center at 7142. Dates on which the student received care can be verified if permission has been granted by the student. Other health information is confidential. In some cases such as mono, a physician may give a student a class excuse with the instruction to attend classes as tolerated. The student is required to contact the Health Center either by stopping in, phone call or email on the days that they are not able to attend class with a condition report.

Transportation

Loras College does not provide transportation to class or to healthcare facilities for medical appointments, therapy, pharmacy, etc. Information including bus schedules, taxicabs and maps are available by the ACC mailroom.

Information Technology Center

Lower Level, Christ the King Chapel, 563.588.4949
Monday – Friday, 7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Exceptions will be posted in advance

The Technology Center offers Loras College students, faculty and staff a variety of computing facilities and services. A number of Microsoft, Linux and IBM RS/6000 servers provide general interactive and instructional computing for the academic and administrative community. Access to the systems is provided via networked computers and the Internet.

In addition to the servers, all full-time undergraduates are issued a Loras-owned laptop. Software and hardware support is provided via the Help Desk, extension 4949. The Help Desk is located in the lower level of Christ the King Chapel and offers telephone and walk-in support during the times stated above. Training seminars covering software applications will be held throughout the year. Times and dates for the seminars are posted on the portal (inside.loras.edu). Public printing is offered across campus in the following locations: In the Library (ARC), the IRC in Hoffman Hall, both color and black-and-white printing is available in the student lounge in the ACC, and both color and black-and-white printing is offered at the Help Desk located in the lower level of Christ the King Chapel. Printers have also been installed in the all of the residence halls.

The College network is connected to the Internet. All students are assigned web, email, e-Learn, IQ and Network accounts. Upon opening the account, each user is responsible for understanding and abiding by the Loras College Computer Ethics Policy found in the "Policies and Procedures" section of this Handbook.

Technology Initiative

All full-time undergraduates will receive a laptop computer for their use during the academic year. Part-time and graduate students have the option to pay the full-time technology fee and receive a laptop. Students may use the laptop computers in many places, including residence hall rooms, the library and off campus. Every building on campus is connected to a fiber-optic network. Residence hall rooms will have wired access capabilities as well as wireless, and wireless technology is used in classrooms and common areas on campus.

Technology Fees

All students are charged a technology fee each semester. This fee provides:

- Multimedia laptop computer for use both on and off campus
- Access to the campus-wide fiber optic network and Internet
- Cable TV from on-campus and off-campus housing
- Software required for academic efficiency
- Services and support from a telephone help line and walk-in Help Desk

There are fees for the use of public laser printers (over the 500-page allotment per semester). There are also limits on the amount of disk space available for the student directories on the servers. All users are encouraged to maintain only active, frequently used files on email and servers.

Acceptable Use

While extensive efforts are being made to keep the computer facilities at Loras open and accessible, there must be reasonable limits on the types of activities which can be permitted. Improper activities include: the intentional damaging of computing equipment, facilities or software; the unauthorized use, deletion or alteration of accounts or files belonging to other users; using the servers or access to any internal or external network service to harass or intimidate individuals or interfering with their reasonable and normal use of the system; creating personal copies of licensed, proprietary software; deliberately altering system files or operating system software in any way that would prevent or interfere with the intended use of the computer system by others. The Technology Services staff will suspend all computing privileges of any individual who engages in any of these improper computing activities—serious cases will be referred to the appropriate disciplinary body and, where violations of state or federal law are involved, to the proper civil authorities.

Student Expectations

With the Technology Initiative, it should be understood that students will not necessarily be asked to use their laptop in each and every class that they are taking. Some classes and disciplines will lend themselves more easily to the integration of technology in the classroom than others, and students will use technology outside the classroom for academic purposes extensively. Students will gain a valuable experience in using technology to assist in their education.

Intercollegiate Athletics

Athletic and Wellness Center (AWC), 563.588.7112

Loras maintains a broad program of intercollegiate athletics. The purpose of intercollegiate athletics is multidimensional. The intercollegiate athletic program provides students with an opportunity of becoming self-actualized by successfully participating in an extremely visible co-curricular learning environment. The intercollegiate athletic program is designed to provide students with an appreciation and understanding of fitness, mental as well as physical, and with many other related helpful benefits of exercise. Intercollegiate athletics also has as a purpose to instruct students in developing a degree of proficiency in athletic skills in their respective sport beyond that ordinarily gained in intramurals.

Loras is an affiliated member institution with the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III. Loras also is a member of the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC), Midwest Women's Lacrosse Conference (MWLC) and Midwest Collegiate Volleyball League (MCVL). We have 24 athletic programs: men's and women's golf, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's track & field, men's and women's cross-country, wrestling, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's tennis, baseball, football, men's and women's swimming & diving, softball, men's and women's volleyball, women's lacrosse and spirit squad. A student in good standing, enrolled in and carrying a minimum of twelve (12) semester hours, is eligible to participate in intercollegiate athletics. Students transferring from four-year institutions and junior colleges are eligible to compete in intercollegiate competition once they have fulfilled the transfer requirements as stipulated by the NCAA.

Each year a number of students have the opportunity to render an important service to the Loras intercollegiate athletic program as student managers. Any student who is interested should contact the head coach of that particular sport.

Each year students get involved with sports medicine as student athletic trainers. Any student who is interested should contact the Director of Athletic Training Education Program for information regarding the academic requirements. Student athletic trainers function under the direct supervision of the Head and Assistant Athletic Trainers.

Intramural Sports

The Loras College Intramural Program is more interested in participation than in ability level. The activities of intramural and recreational sports at Loras College consist of two phases:

- The intramural sports program provides for active competition for individuals and teams.
- Recreational sports, which consist of a wide variety of informal competitive games.

These phases are coordinated by the Loras Intramural Director and implemented under his direct supervision.

Loras College is dedicated to the total development of the student. The Intramural Department strives to develop the student through a variety of recreational activities where participation is more important than winning. Intramurals complements the student's development in Christian character, leadership and service.

The Intramural Program is completely voluntary and participation is solely determined by free choice and desire of each individual participant.

Since Loras College and the Director of Intramurals are not responsible for injuries incurred during intramural or recreational activities, it is strongly recommended that participants have satisfactory health status and appropriate medical, accident, disability or life insurance coverage for any injury that might occur during participation with the Intramural-Recreation Program.

There are many activities to choose and are determined by the feedback from students. Past activities have included: archery; badminton; baseball: accuracy, speed pitch, tee ball and home-run derby; basketball: basketathon, co-rec free throw, co-rec 2-on-2, 1-on-1, "21", d.u.h.a.w.k., beat the clock, finger-spin, five player, free throws (50), free throws (100), outdoor free throws (25), hot shot, pass-dribble-shoot, round-the-world, outdoor, 3-on-3, 3-pointer, under 6-ft. and super shot; bocce; bowling and co-rec bowling circus; croquet; darts; football: accuracy, field goal kick, flag (6 player) and pass-punt-kick; Frisbee accuracy; fun-n-fit; golf: chipping, regular (18 holes) and putting; hacky sack; horseshoes; hula hoop; juggling, obstacle run; pickle-ball; power weightlifting; pumpkin roll; racquetball: cut throat and regulation; royalty-pong; shoe kick; shuffle-board; softball: 12-in. and 16-in. all- size tourney, 12-in. and 16-in. home-run derby; super racquets; table tennis: glo-in-the-dark; tennis and tennis serving accuracy; track and field; volleyball: 4 player, 6 player; 4 player, 6 player glo-in-the-dark, sand, service accuracy and snow; ooof ball (hoover ball); wallyball; water basketball; whiffle ball and wrestling. Some activities are offered both semesters.

Students should regularly check the intramural website for entry dates, deadline dates, rules and regulations for all activities sponsored. All deadlines are by 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday. It is permissible to sign up earlier.

POLICY OF AWARDS IN INTRAMURAL SPORTS

- A tank top or T-shirt is given to each member of a championship team in team competition. A special certificate is given to the second place team.
- A tank top or T-shirt is given to each first place winner in individual competition. A special certificate is given to the second place individual. The above awards are based on a minimum of four participants or four teams.

- An individual trophy (24-in.) is awarded to the male or female student who is most outstanding in intramural competition during the school year. The trophy is awarded to the student with the most points in intramural play based on a new system stressing participation, rather than winning.
 - 10 points for each activity entered.
 - 100 points for each participant in an intramural event.
 - 60 points for being the first place winner in individual competition.
 - 50 points for being the runner-up in individual competition.
 - 40 points for being a member of a first place team competition.
 - 30 points for being a member of a second place team in team competition.
 - 20 points for being a member of a third place team in team competition.
- Pictures of all champions are mounted in glass and framed for permanent display.

Records of the top champions since 1946 are posted in Graber Sports Center. Pictures of all champions since 1956 are also posted in Graber Sports Center.

Intercultural Programs Office

The Office of Intercultural Programs is a center of multicultural understanding that weaves the Loras College commitment to diversity into the educational, spiritual, academic, cultural and social fabric of the campus. The Office fulfills this mission by providing leadership in education that celebrates individual differences of people within the Loras and Dubuque community by providing support for the tapestry of ideas and experience to which each person contributes to its overall environment. In facilitation of such endeavors, the Office especially encourages students of diverse and international backgrounds to participate in its support effort focused on mentoring and leadership development to strengthen their overall educational experience.

Library

Academic Resource Center, 563.588.7189

Monday–Thursday	7:45 a.m.–12:00 midnight
Friday	7:45 a.m.–4:00 p.m.
Saturday	10:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.
Sunday	12:00 noon–12:00 midnight

The Library includes three electronic classrooms and 25 individual and group study rooms for students.

The Loras Library holds over 300,000 items, subscriptions to over 55,000 full-text electronic periodicals and state and federal documents.

The Library houses an exceptional rare book collection that includes, among other items, a manuscript collection dating back to the twelfth century and over 65 books printed before the year 1501, giving Loras College the largest such collection in the state.

Important Library Information

The Check-out Desk is located on the main floor, level 200. Students may check materials out for up to four weeks by presenting their student identification card. Books are to be returned to the Check-out Desk or the book return located outside of the ARC entrance doors. Magazines, newspapers, books in special collections, other selected items and reserve books may be used only in the library. The library catalog lets you know if we hold the item you're trying to locate.

The library's online catalog can be used to search our collection of books, journals, articles, e-books, DVDs and government documents. The library provides access to numerous online periodical databases which index articles and often include the full text of those articles. In addition, there are librarians available to assist students with your research needs. The librarians create research guides to provide a starting point for students to begin their research if a librarian is not immediately available for assistance.

Interlibrary loan is a cooperative venture where libraries agree to share their resources with one another. While it must be used judiciously, if there is an article, book or other material that is not available in our collection, the library will try to borrow or obtain a copy of the item for you from another library.

- Conducting/arranging an investigation of the prohibited conduct
- Preparing or overseeing any reports, recommendations, or remedial actions that are needed or warranted to resolve any prohibited conduct
- Assess each complaint individually

History and Artifacts

Loras College History

Atop one of the Mississippi River's highest bluffs in historic Dubuque stands Iowa's oldest college. Founded in 1839 by Dubuque's first bishop, the Most Reverend Mathias Loras, a native of Lyons, France, Loras College proudly blends its future with its past. Established as St. Raphael Seminary to educate young men for the priesthood, the College also had the expressed intention of providing an opportunity for higher education to the citizens of the area. The College has functioned under several names (St. Raphael Seminary, Mt. St. Bernard, St. Joseph College, Dubuque College, and Columbia College), finally adopting its present name during its centennial in 1939. From the time of its founding, the College has devoted its faculty and facilities to an undergraduate program, but today confers both bachelors and masters degrees.

Distinctions

- U.S. News & World Report national ranking as a top tier "best college" among institutions in the Midwest.
- The oldest college in Iowa and the second-oldest Catholic college west of the Mississippi River. Only seven other Catholic colleges existed when Loras was founded; that number has grown to 232.
- A mainstream, coeducational, Roman Catholic college, one of only 12 archdiocesan colleges in the country.
- One of only 100 colleges across the country to provide all students and faculty laptop computers.
- Dubuque, Iowa, served as the center for Iowa Catholicism as Catholics established their first diocese in that city. The leading Catholic figure was Bishop Mathias Loras, a Frenchman, who came to Dubuque in the late 1930s. Bishop Loras helped establish Catholic churches in the area and worked hard to attract priests and nuns from foreign countries. Dubuque has historically been a community of Catholic Democrats who are also pro-life.
- Hosted Vice President Dick Cheney during the 2000 campaign, and numerous other political figures throughout the years, including then Senator John F. Kennedy who delivered the 1956 commencement address.
- Recent visitors to campus include: Bill Bennett, the late John Cardinal O'Connor, Francis Cardinal Arinze, Helen Thomas, George Will, Avery Cardinal Dulles, Jonathon Kozol, Jane Bryant Quinn, Tom Monaghan, Deal Hudson, Brian Lamb and Bowie Kuhn (former major baseball league commissioner and pro-life activist).
- Thirty-one bishops of the Catholic Church have attended Loras.
- The Ambassador to the Holy See, the Honorable R. James Nicholson, is an Iowa native.
- Alumni base of 22,600; most living in Iowa and Illinois (Chicago). Among them are: former Ambassador to Cambodia Kenneth Quinn; TV sports commentator Greg Gumbel; former U.S. Congressman Thomas Tauke; Harlem Globetrotter Curly "Boo" Johnson; Iowa State Representative Pat Murphy; Iowa State Senator Michael Connolly; Terry Duggan, former city of Dubuque mayor; Illinois State Senator Tom Walsh and Representative William Lipinski; the Rev. Msgr. Kevin McCoy, rector of North American College, Vatican City; retired
- Rear Admiral Jay B. Yakeley, former deputy director of the military office, The White House; Archbishop John Myers, Newark, N.J.; Virginia Grebasch, assistant counsel to the Inspector General, Reserve Judge Advocate; Iowa Attorney General Tom Miller; Tony Award winning playwright David Rabe; Pulitzer Prize winning political cartoonist Richard Locher; 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Michael Melloy and Chief U.S. District Judge, Central District of Illinois, Michael Mihm.
- Diatoms from the Loras College Freshwater Diatom Collection, the largest freshwater collection in the country at over 1,400, were sent into Qspace aboard two space shuttle missions and were featured on the Discovery Channel.
- Chaplain Aloysius Schmitt, a 1932 Loras alum, was the first Catholic chaplain killed in action in World War II. Loras' Christ the King Chapel was dedicated in his honor, and his memorabilia, which was recovered from the USS Arizona, are archived in the Chapel.
- Named one of the colleges in the nation for the number of graduates who become Peace Corps volunteers.
- Contributes $51,000,000 to the economic picture of the tri-state community each year.
- Ranks 37th out of more than 200 U.S. Catholic colleges and universities in the number of students in the 1960s, 70s and 80s who later earn doctorates; first among the Iowa Catholic colleges.

- The Loras College library is the oldest and third largest private academic library in Iowa. It contains original parchment manuscripts dating to the twelfth century as well as 500 books belonging to Bishop Mathias Loras.
- The Lorian student newspaper was first published on October 11, 1924; The College Spokesman literary magazine was published from 1903 to 1970, and in 1974 it was succeeded by The Outlet magazine.

A Proud Heritage

- In 1876 the first theatrical performance by students was a scene from “The Merchant of Venice”, but it was not until 1932 that women portrayed female roles in campus theater productions.
- The student rulebook for 1882 stated that students must wear soft-soled shoes when walking in all corridors so as not to disturb others in the building.
- In 1947-48 the yearly room rental fees in Keane Hall ranged from $120 to $250 with only room #344 commanding a $250 room rate.
- The Loras Players, founded in 1910, are the oldest amateur theater troupe west of the Mississippi River.
- Blue jeans, fatigue clothes, gym clothes and shirts without collars were not permitted except for recreational activities so stated the 1965 student handbook.
- The first organized orchestra and choir began in 1877, and the first band in 1912.
- Loras awarded its first honorary degree to a woman, Miss Roslyn Schrup, in 1959.
- According to the 1914 rulebook, students were not allowed to have any kind of food in their rooms either from the cafeteria or received through the mail.
- According to the 1935 rulebook, students residing in Loras Hall (now Keane) could not retain an automobile or motorcycle in Dubuque during the school year.
- In 1920, the College was renamed Columbia College to avoid confusion with the local Presbyterian Dubuque German College, which then became the University of Dubuque.
- Loras became co-ed in 1971, introduced women’s intercollegiate athletics in 1975 and currently has over 50% female students enrolled.
- The National Catholic Basketball Tournament was revived by Loras College in 1984 and brought national attention to campus.
- The first Student Senate was created in 1940 with the election of 16 men. Its purpose was to serve as a voice of the student body; provide cooperation between students, faculty and administration; develop good citizenship and carry on relationships with other colleges.
- The 1874 student handbook stated that students were forbidden to stand at the study hall windows, to spill ink, write on desks or walls or throw any paper on the floor. Students were to carry in as little dirt as possible, using the scraper before entering all rooms.
- Faculty member Rev. Alphonsus Dress composed the first College song entitled “Purple and Gold” in 1912 with words by Timothy Mulligan (Class of 1913).
- The first sorority on campus was Sigma Delta Omega in 1972.
- The first Duhawk football game to be played in the Rock Bowl was in 1940 when Loras beat Upper Iowa 27-6.
- The first computer usage on the campus began in 1968.
- Permission to visit relatives was granted only twice a month and was accompanied by a written request from the parents to the President of the College according to the 1938 rulebook.
- The 1965 student handbook stated that the owner of any car found in East Dubuque after 9 p.m. or prior to 6 a.m. would lose all driving privileges.
- In 1873 Archbishop John Hennessy acquired the site of an old hospital previously occupied by the Sisters of Charity of the BVM on Loras Boulevard and opened St. Joseph’s College.
- In 1874, tuition, room/board and laundry cost $225/year for the 35 students enrolled at St. Joseph’s College. In the 2000–01 many of the 1,725 students enrolled paid $20,951 at Loras College.
- The football team was undefeated in 1916, 1922 and 1947. Intercollegiate football was discontinued in 1959 and did not return until 1970.
- The student handbook for 1914 required students to salute all professors and visitors and noted that the regulation service uniform consisted of a cap, coat and breeches, leather shoes, leggings, white collar, white or wool gloves and an olive drab shirt.

- In 1972 the lower level of the Collan Center old dining facility became a student lounge called the “Last Draw” following a decision of the State of Iowa to reduce the minimum drinking age to nineteen.
- The 1930 student handbook prohibited the reading of newspapers or magazines in the study hall at all times and also required permission of the Dean before students were allowed to make a phone call.
- The bronze statue of Bishop Loras, built in 1939, weighs 3,000 lb.
- The student enrollment reached an all-time high in 1948–49 with 1,489 men taking advantage of the G.I. Bill.
- The student handbook in 1920 stated that bathing during study periods or after Night Prayer was strictly forbidden.
- The St. Joseph’s College catalogue for 1911–12 required that all students take physical training classes, stating a sound mind in a sound body produces a wholesome character.

The Loras College Mascot

What exactly is a Duhawk anyway?

The shortest answer would be to say that it is a hawk from Dubuque. Like many monikers, the Duhawk’s humble beginning is a story in and of itself.

In 1924, an unknown writer for the Detroit Free Press was compiling a football preview story about the upcoming game between Loras (then known as Columbia College) and the University of Detroit. Columbia, however did not have an official nickname at that time, which made for a dull story.

As it turns out, Columbia had just defeated a highly regarded Coe College, whose nickname was the Kohawks. It seems that the Free Press writer assumed that, since a team from Coe was called the “Kohawks,” a team from Dubuque should, naturally, be called the “Duhawks.” The name caught on and the team became known as the Columbia Duhawks, making that writer the inadvertent author of the nickname, which celebrated its 75th anniversary last fall.

While the school didn’t officially recognize the term “Duhawks,” in an effort to surface its own “original” nickname, a 1925 contest by The Lorian, the school newspaper, failed to win support for any number of other nickname options (despite a whopping $5 prize!). In September of 1926, the school newspaper ran a photograph of the football squad with the caption: “1926 Columbia Duhawks.” The Duhawk was here to stay and the door was opened for a long line of interpretations as to the look for the Loras College athletics’ symbol, leading to the new “Dewey 2000”—a look for the Duhawks’ future!

The new athletic logo features a full-body caricature of a Duhawk standing in a strong pose with its “hands” on hips and giving a confident gaze.

The Loras College Fight Song

Hail Loras Varsity
Cheer them along the way,

Onward to victory,
We will win this game today.

Let’s hear a cheer for the Varsity, Long may they reign supreme,

Shout till the echoes ring, for the glory of our team!

Coat of Arms

In 1920, Pierre de Chaignon la Rose, Massachusetts, was authorized to design a coat of arms which would be appropriate to an archdiocesan college, whose founder was Bishop Mathias Loras, whose patron is St. Joseph, and whose motto is Pro Deo et Patria, which translates to “For God and Country.”

The term “coat of arms” came into the language during the age of chivalry when a coat of arms was used by knights for the purpose of identification. A knight’s insignia was emblazoned on the short coat, which he wore over his armor and served as a means of recognition on the field of combat. Today, a coat of arms still performs the function of identifying the possessor, which explains why a college embodies its heraldic insignia in its seal.

The devices, colors and the motto of a college shield possess symbolic values, and they are intended to express the aims and the ideals of the institution.

The designer of the Loras College shield retained the colors of the Loras family arms, but he modified the design. In order to make room for the heraldic symbols of St. Joseph, the carpenter’s square and the lilies, he moved the “fess” to the top of the shield, making of it a “chief.”

The devices on the shield celebrate the founder and the patron of the College. The diamond panes on the chief, which are taken from the arms of Bishop Loras, express in heraldic fashion the name of the College. The carpenter’s square and the lilies on the field indicate that the College is under the patronage of St. Joseph. The colors, gold, red, silver and blue, which are those of the Loras family arms, reinforce the suggestion of the diamond panes on the chief.

The colors of Loras’ shield also suggest an archdiocesan institution in the city of Dubuque. The two colors on the chief, silver and blue, are those of the arms of Julien Du Buque, who gave his name to the city. No colors other than gold, red, silver and blue are to be used in printing the Loras Coat of Arms.

The logo for Loras College, while having its origin in the College coat of arms, will not replace it. The Coat of Arms will continue to serve as an official identification device, but will only be used in color where appropriate on official documents and on other official occasions.
