

Endorsements that can be added to World or U.S. History Major American Government Endorsement Guide For NICC Transfer Students (Updated 2/2018)

Students that want to add a second endorsement (beyond World History or U.S. History) should review the requirements below. Licensure and major requirements for students pursuing a History degree and secondary education licensure are located in a separate document.

Required Courses for American Government Endorsement

POL 101 Issues in American Politics
POL 121 Issues in Global Politics

Any of the 7 following Politics Courses:

POL 201 Campaigns and Elections
POL 202 Congress and the Presidency
POL 203 Iowa Caucuses
POL 232 American Political Thought
POL 233 Jurisprudence
POL 301 Constitutional Law: Federal Powers
POL 302 Constitutional Law: Civil Rights and Liberties
POL 303 Supreme Court Watch
POL 304 Identity Politics in America
POL 308 American Public Policy
POL 322 American Foreign Policy
POL 331 Political Thought and Contemporary Social Issues
POL 351 Comparative Environmental Politics

Equivalent Course(s) at NICC

POL 111 Issues in American Politics
No Course Equivalent

No Course Equivalents