

IRISH STUDIES (2021-2022)

Division of Language & Literature

Kate McCarthy-Gilmore, Ph. D., Chair

Students who seek an interdisciplinary study of Irish culture, literature, and history may pursue the Irish Studies minor.

Requirements for the minor in Irish Studies: Experiential credit may be accrued through our semester study abroad program at the Institute of Art, Design, and Technology at Dun Laoghaire, through a January term, or participation in a faculty-student summer research project.

Req	Course	Cr's
1	Elective: Experiential Learning (see note above)	3-12
Select between six to fifteen credits from Req 2 for a total of 18 credits in the minor.
2	L.BUS-379: The Rise and Fall of the Celtic Tiger-AC	3
2	L.LIB-245: The Irish in America-AC	3
2	L.ENG-240: The Nature of Ireland-AI, EC	3
2	L.ENG-274: Irish Gothic-AC	3
2	L.ENG-285: Modern Irish Literature and Culture	3
2	L.ENG-286: Ireland in Film	3
2	L.ENG-287: Irish Women's Writing-AC, EI	3
2	L.ENG-343: British/Irish Poetry: 1900 to present	3
2	L.HIS-245: The Celts-AC, EI	3
2	L.HIS-333: Imperial Geographies-AA	3
2	L.COM-283: Irish Cinema	3
2	Elective: Other Topics course under development	3
18 total required credits		